Washington State seeks Native EXCEL Camp applicants

PULLMAN, WASH. – High school juniors and seniors are invited to attend Washington State University's Exploring College Emerging Leaders camp to be held Friday, Oct. 28, through Sunday, Oct. 30.

The camp is sponsored by the university's Native American Programs and seeks to encourage and promote higher education for Native American students, and introduce them to the opportunities and experiences at the school.

Participants will receive information regarding Washington State's application process, financial aid and scholarships, Native programming and resources. All activities, meals and lodging expenses will be provided at no cost.

The program is open to high school juniors and seniors who are interesting in attending Washington State. Students must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75 and have completed the application and parental permission form by the Sept. 30 deadline. The application is online at native.wsu.edu.

For more information, contact Native American Outreach Coordinator Autumn Jones at 509-335-8618 or native@wsu.edu. ■

See a photo you like in Smoke Signals?

Want a copy, or several copies?

Want to see if a photo that was taken but not printed in Smoke Signals because of space limitations might be something you'd like hanging on your living room wall? Tribal members can order 8-by-10-inch copies of photos taken by Smoke Signals staff members regardless of if they were published in the newspaper. Charge is $1 for each print ordered. Reprint orders must be pre-paid with a check made out to Smoke Signals. A photo reprint order form is available in the Publications Office of the Tribe's Governance Building in Grand Ronde, or can be mailed upon request.

All photos contained in Smoke Signals' current archive are available for purchase, but people interested in going through the archive must make an appointment to review photos for possible purchase.

No rush orders are permitted and requestors must allow 30 days for delivery. Requestors must be Tribal members. In addition, reprint requestors must agree that the reprint is for personal use only, and not for use in an ad, or for commercial, political or promotional purposes.

Smoke Signals reserves the right to decline a reprint request. To request a reprint order form, write to Smoke Signals at 9615 Grand Ronde Road, Grand Ronde, OR 97347, or call Michelle Alaimo at 503-879-1961 or 800-422-0232. ■
