Mobile Unit open house

Photos by Brent Merrill

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde's Health & Wellness Center unveiled its new Medical Mobile Unit during an open house in the upper parking lot of the Wellness Center on Wednesday, Oct 5. Staff offered information about the mobile unit and offered healthy snacks for visitors who took the time to come and see the new equipment.

Nursing Supervisor Christa Hosley and Registered Nurse Tashina Blair welcomed visitors with a tray of healthy snacks to the Health & Wellness Center's Medical Mobile Unit Open House in Grand Ronde. Blair said the mobile unit was purchased through the Health & Wellness Center's diabetes grant just one week before this year's powwow. "We want to get this unit out to different events and up to the Portland office," said Blair. "Our goal is that it doesn't sit and we are looking for input from the community."
