Railroad Correspondence.

In the recent "Railroad correspondence" between Messrs. Nesmith, Huntington and Underwood, in relation to the offer of fifty thousand dollars of the "rescued and unrescued" stock to Mr. Nesmith, by the East Side Company, to secure his influence, Mr. Huntington stated that T. McF. Patton, a Director in the East Side Company, persuaded him (Huntington) to go over to Mr. Nesmith's, with the agents of the East Side Company. And now, this statement of Mr. Huntington's has brought out the following correspondence, which we copy from the Unionist:—Commercial

A CARD. SALEM, JULY 14, 1868.

To the Unionist:—In your daily issue of this date, I notice several communications from sundry persons on railroad matters, and which, as you state, have been published by request. In the communication of J. W. P. Huntington to James W. Nesmith, I am heralded forth as having urgently requested Mr. H. to accompany the party.

Now, I desire to say that Mr. Huntington is very much mistaken in his man. I never requested or advised Mr. Huntington, or any other person to visit Mr. Nesmith on business connected with railroads, or for any other purpose. I was not advised, nor consulted in any shape, way or manner concerning the visit. In fact, I never knew that Mr. Huntington had formed one of the party, until advised by his own communication.

Inasmuch as the other correspondence has been made public by request, I hope you will do me the justice to correct the statement therein made, by publishing this note.

Yours respectfully, T. McF. PATTON.

A CARD.

I read Mr. T. McF. Patton's card in the Unionist of the 16th inst. It is alike false in detail. It is false in spirit and false in letter. It is throughout an utter falsehood.

Patton met me in front of Meyer's store, on the morning of the day alluded to. He then and there urged that I should go to Nesmith's, with Messrs. Flint, Elliott and others. I had been previously requested to do so, by other persons, but domestic reasons, which Patton fully understood, made it very inconvenient for me to leave town on that day. I finally agreed to go, mainly up on his persuasion. He (Patton) stood at Hirsch's corner when the party (which included Messrs. Elliott, Flint, Parish, Loryea, Henderson and myself) got in to the carriage. He saw and recognized me among the number; he knew that I went, and he knew for what purpose I went. I am not mistaken in my man.

J. W. PERIT HUNTINGTON. SALEM, July 17th, 1868.

Whining.

All the teachers of the public schools of Portland were dismissed at the end of the last school term; and the Radical papers are whining terribly about it. They say politics was at the bottom of it.

We do not know what the cause is, nor what reason the School Officers assign; nor is it material. We do know, however, that ever since the Radicals have had control in Portland, they were very careful, as a general fact, to employ none except the "truly loil." Every Democrat was proscribed, no matter how well qualified in other respects. And this is true of almost every locality in the United States where the Radicals were in the ascendancy. And not only so, but many of the teachers thus employed, regularly taught Radical dogmas to the scholars, one half of whom were the children of Democratic parents. We know of many instances where Democrats, asserting their manhood, refused to tamely submit to such outrages, and took their children from school, and hired teachers who confined themselves to their legitimate duties.

It comes with a very bad grace from those who, for six or eight long years have thus proscribed and persecuted Democrats, now to set up a howl because the Democratic city of Portland has dismissed the Radical teachers aforesaid. Their previous acts should operate as a complete attonel.

We have no fears, however, that Democrats will imitate their Radical predecessors in this senseless, wholesale proscription. The Democratic party always has been an advocate of toleration. The Democratic party never yet imprisoned any one; never yet menaced anybody's liberty, or property, or life, because of a mere difference of political or religious belief; and they do not propose to imitate the Radicals in such things. They leave such villainy to the means of them.—Albany Democrat

Another twist to the tale of doing up the ladies and taking them off their pretty feet. The consequences would be miscellaneous if not positively fearful.

New Remedies Now Remedies

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary

ESTABLISHED IN 1854, 616 Kearney Street corner Commercial, San Francisco

For the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as gonorrhoea, gleet, stricture, syphilis in all its forms, seminal weakness, impotency, etc. (of years standing) and Ulcerated legs successfully treated.

HORRIBLE DISEASES.

It is many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces, and their broken constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians and friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured and cured before it is too late. Send them to Dr. Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any other dangerous medicine. It is important to the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Seminal weakness is the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures: sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the joints, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunt intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania, and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by this new and scientific mode of treating this complaint, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give $100 to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Dr. Gibbon is responsible, and will give each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge. Persons at a distance may be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicine promptly forwarded, free from damage or curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for ten dollars sent in a registered letter through Wells, Fargo & Co's Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial San Francisco. Post Office Box 252. Persons writing to Dr. Gibbon will please state the name of the paper his advertisement is in, and remember to put "252" on the letter.

MOWERS and REAPERS!

Over 60,000 Manufactured And now in use in this country and Europe.

THESE world renowned machines were awarded the first prize. Ten pounds sterling, at the Great Centennial Trial at Plymouth, England, July, 1865, and at the Great National Field Trial, held at Auburn, N. Y., in July, 1866, the first Premium, GRAND GOLD MEDAL.

THE PRIZE MOWER,

While it retains all the advantages which has made it so universal a favorite, it is greatly improved by addition of the Steel Lined Guards, New Pitman Connection, Stronger Knives, Adjustable Folding Shoe and Spring Seat, Making it a perfect machine. The lightest draft, the most durable, and at the same time the most simple, and best cutting machine in the world.

The Self-Rake Reaper!

Is justly called the "Victor of every Contest," and is constructed on the most scientific principles. The New Mowing Attachment gives general satisfaction and makes one of the most convenient combined Self-Rake Reapers known, and we fully warrant it.

The Hand-Rake Reaper,

Is at the same time the most durable, the best of the kind ever offered. It cuts a swath five feet wide in Reaping, and four and a half in Mowing. As a Mower it is equal to the best Folding Bar machine in use. The ease with which it is managed, and in changing from Mower to Reaper, or vice versa, will once recommend it. Manufactured by the
