For a good smoke, go to the Star restaurant, Charley Elliott proprietor.

If you want a good square meal for 25 cents, go to Charley Elliott's Star restaurant.

There are seven secret organizations in this place, and every night is occupied.

Nuts, candies and other delicacies too numerous to mention at the Star restaurant.

Wm. King and Morris Bennett, of Floras creek, were in this place one day last week on business.

Some elegant rooms can be had at a reasonable price, by calling on Mrs. R. Mathison, of this place.

Elder Canterbury preached here on Sunday. A goodly number of his church from the lower river was present.

Dr. Elgin came down from Myrtle Point on Sunday evening and left for the bay yesterday morning on business.

Mr. J. Quick, of Lamprey creek, who has been sorely afflicted with a lame leg, was able to attend church here Sunday.

An invitation has been extended by the Post here, to the G. A. R. of Marshfield, to be present here at the celebration on the Fourth.

The tug Katie Cook came up Wednesday evening to bring Captain Parker up so he could get the stage for the bay the next morning.

Uncle J. B. Hunt, of this place, is going to erect a big dancing platform at Bandon that will accommodate every person who may wish to dance there on the Fourth.

Dr. Elgin made the trip from Myrtle Point to Empire City and back to this place Friday. This is pretty good traveling and is due to close connection of the stage, cars and steamer.

Notwithstanding the Amethyst had an immense amount of freight for this river, she beat the other vessels up, from one to five days. She is one of the smartest little vessels afloat.

Three vessels sailed into this river last Friday—the Amethyst, Parkersburg and Helen Merriam, the Amethyst, which arrived here Saturday evening, for this place and the other two for Parker's mill.

Messrs. Charley Elliott and Harry Hunt will have a lunch stand on the grounds at Bandon on the Fourth. They will have coffee, tea, pies, cakes, meats, bread, eggs, nuts, candies, oranges, lemons, etc. Give the boys a call.

Mr. W. H. Carothers has acted wisely in following up the recent action of the government against adulterated teas. He is now offering to the public a guaranteed article of pure tea, imported direct from Japan, under his own brand and only in Perfection Tea Cans. Its name is "Mayflower Tea."

Steve Tripp has gone to Montana.

The Ceres' engine has been treated to an automatic lubricator.

If you do not purchase a town lot in Coquille City, you will regret it.

J. A. Lehnberg recently drove a band of one hundred and thirty odd head of cattle to the Umpqua from this river.

Uncle Johnny Criteser and a Mr. Laswell, of Fairview, were down Saturday on business with our notary public.

Mr. E. S. Spurgeon and lady have gone on a pleasure and business trip to Washington county, and will stay till fall.

Uncle J. M. Arrington and some other parties from Roseburg are surveying and segregating swampland in the vicinity of Beaver slough.

It is said that Siglin will disclaim his title of "Senator from Coos and Curry," and recognize that of "Senator from Coquille and Curry."

While fishing at North Bend last Wednesday, James Arrington caught a 7½-foot shark. He made use of an extra hook and a pistol before landing his fish.

Uncle Tom Willard has just sent off for publication the first book from this place. It will be illustrated, and its object will be the furtherance of carpentry.

It would be a good thing if all tea were possessed of the invigorating and nerve-stimulating properties that distinguish Mr. W. H. Carothers' "Mayflower Tea."

Mrs. Mollie Jenkins moved to Coaledo last week. Her husband has employment near that place, and she moved there, we are informed, just for the time being.

Mr. J. W. Bennett of the News left for Marshfield Saturday, accompanied with his wife and little daughter who have been visiting friends on the river the past week.

By the sin of omission, the names of Miss Alice Snyder and Clara Mullen did not appear in the school report last week. Both young ladies stand high on the list.

The people of the bay are talking of chartering a tug and coming around here on the Fourth. An immense crowd from the bay, is coming to celebrate at this place and Bandon.

Bud Cartwright, who was recently visiting his parents in this place, started home from Brownsville on Tuesday last, and is doubtless enjoying the sand storms of Idaho ere this.

Mr. Moulton got a lot of onions from San Francisco on Friday and they went quicker. It is singular that people do not raise onions, for they can be as successfully grown here as anywhere.

Messrs. Dean and Belien brought down a raft of piles last week from the former's place on North fork. The piles are to be used by J. A. Collier of this place in the construction of a wharf in the rear of the Robinson house.

Owing to the fact that Bandon and Coquille City are the only places, for all this great section of country, that are going to have a celebration on the Fourth of July, it behooves the people of both places to make preparations for a large crowd, as it is evident that without such an effort it will be impossible to entertain those who will attend.

Now that we are going to have a crowd here on the Fourth, would it not be well for our people to clear up the rubbish from the streets? There are places in town that are too dirty for any other use than a pig sty. Clean up and look decent when you expect strangers, if you will not do so at any other time. Some have started the ball to rolling, and we hope to see nice, clean streets before it stops.

Peter Cotton will run his swing here on the Fourth.

An Idaho man got mail contract on the Coos bay wagon road route.

Marshal Way, of Summer, was in town yesterday. He is going to Roseburg to assume the duties of operator.

Whitney & O'Connell are ready, and will move into their new quarters this week.

Two county commissioners of Curry county, says the Recorder, received 147 votes each, and are therefore tied.

Mr. John A. Gray, of Marshfield, will deliver the oration here on the coming Fourth of July. Those who have never heard him speak will avail themselves of a grand treat by hearing him, for he is the acknowledged peer of any speaker in the state.

We should like very much to be at this place on the coming Fourth of July to see our old friends, but have to spend the time at Bandon, according to previous arrangements. Our brother D. F. will represent the interests of the HERALD in our absence.

Patronize Fred Jarvis, the pioneer stage man. It is through the efforts of Mr. Jarvis that we have a good road, good and efficient mail and stage service between Coquille City and Coos bay, and it behooves all to give him their patronage. The route is elegantly equipped. See ad. if.

Dr. O. E. Smith, the well known dentist of Coos bay is on the river, and is prepared to do all kinds of dentistry. His reputation as a first class operator is too well established to need any comments from us. The people will do well to encourage his visits by liberal patronage.

The Curry County Post gives an account of Hank Wells holding a large black bear by the tail till it was killed by Raleigh Scott, and says it will explain further if we desire. With a slight change it would be reasonable—substitute Hume for Wells, Upton for Scott, and Sutton for the bear.

The new coasting steamer which was launched at the bay last week has been named "Coos Bay." She will make two trips per month to Coos bay, going up as far as the Sineslaw one trip and up to Portland on the next. Freight will be the same price from the bay and Portland. She will be rigged as a two masted schooner, and will go to San Francisco under sail and there receive her machinery.

It is desired that people leave their small boats elsewhere than at the steamer landings. It is often the case that a skiff is stove and that unavoidably. There are always places to be found where the steamers do not land, that can be utilized for landings. Wharves have generally been built for the accommodation of steamers, and it is not right to occupy them with craft that are constantly in the way. The steamer hands make this request, and we hope it will be heeded.

Everybody acknowledges that the HERALD has been of great benefit to the river in many ways. In this we think they are right, but it needs more support, that we can devote our whole time to it, and thus make it far more effective than it has been. If you have not subscribed, do so at your earliest convenience. This summer, it is our intention, to give a detailed description of the whole county; and to do this we shall depend upon the assistance of the people, to some extent.

On June 7th there was organized by Mr. Charles Olive, Deputy Grand Master, at this place, Beulah Chapter No. 6, Order of the Eastern Star, when the following named persons were installed as officers, for the ensuing year:

Happings Along the River.

[From our Traveling Correspondent.] Uncle John Kronenberg and lady passed down the river Friday en route for Port Orford. Mrs. K's health is not good.

The inspectors for steam boats are looked for on the river and at the bay, to inspect steamers whose papers have expired.

John Lewis and Frank Tension have converted the Arthur Lewis place into a dairy, with some 30 cows to start with—success to them.

Capt. Tom Floyd while pulling on a line one day last week slipped and fell, hurting his back so severely that he could scarcely turn himself in bed for a while. He is improving; meanwhile Capt. Parker is running the tug.

Parker's mill is shut down for repairs, and for cleaning up. Thomas Lewis is putting a new set of brasses on the wrist pin of the engine, having been troubled a great deal by its heating.

Freddy Mehl returned home from San Francisco per Amethyst, where he has been learning the coopers trade. The business would not justify him in staying away from home any longer.

Marshfield Items.

[From our Regular Correspondent.] The new steamer was launched on Saturday evening.

The Arcata arrived on Friday morning with a small list of passengers.

Donald McKay, an old resident of this county, is spending a few days on the bay.

A logging camp has been opened under direction of the new company in the vicinity of Empire City.

A. Nasburg was elected senior warden of the grand lodge F. & A. M. at Portland during its session last week.

The Lobree mill has changed hands and possession will be delivered next month. C. H. Merchant is the purchaser.

The Fourth of July will be duly celebrated at Empire City in the forenoon and by a grand ball at Marshfield at night.

The raft of piles is ready for sea and will go this week. The new tug Escort has the contract to tow the same to San Francisco. It consists of five sections.

A man named Kruger, familiarly known as "Old Sigel," hung himself on Friday night in his cabin, just below Empire City. He was a German; had been nearly 20 years in the U. S. army and was well educated. He said recently to friends that he was out of money and employment and he believed he would hang himself, but no one thought he seriously intended it. He was found Saturday morning hanging to a rafter of his cabin. Another victim of whisky.

Powder Magazine Explosion.

Denver, June 10.—The Giant Powder company's magazine, containing 10,000 lbs. tonite powder, located three and a half miles east of the city, exploded with terrible force this morning. A large number of plate fronts in the business portion of the city were wrecked. A new farm house, 300 yards distant, was completely demolished. The occupants escaped without injury. There is no clue to the cause of the explosion.
