REGULAR TRAINS

Table with 3 columns: Leave, Arrive, Station. Includes routes to Marshfield, Coquille City, and Myrtle Point.

LOCAL ITEMS.

The masquerade ball Christmas night is all the talk. Rev. Mr. Thornton will preach again on the 4th Sunday of this month in this place.

The people at Libby intend to have a Christmas tree at the school-house on the evening of the 24th.

Why suffer with dyspepsia, biliousness or any disease of the liver when you can be cured by Simmons Liver Regulator?

Miss Leana Blumenrother left yesterday for Bandon, after a visit of several days as the guest of Miss Lucy Nichols.

Saturday evening, December 22d, the Methodist Sunday-school will give a program consisting of songs, recitations, etc., at the church.

The Methodist Sunday-school will give Christmas exercises at that church on the evening of December 22d. The public is invited.

FOR SALE—The undersigned offers a span of good mares, 6 and 8 yrs. old, wagon and harness, for sale. For terms, enquire at the postoffice, of A. G. AIKEN.

Thanks to our friend, J. P. Stemler, of Dora, for files of The Arkansas Farmer, published at Little Rock, Ark. It is Populist in politics and a lively paper.

Nathan Tolbert, of Dillard, is a recent arrival in this locality, and he is living above town, near Willie Disher's, for the present. He is looking for a small ranch.

"When your heart is bad and your head is bad, and you are bad clean through, what is needed?" asked a Sunday-school teacher of her class. "I know—Ayer's Sarsaparilla," spoke up a little girl, whose mother had recently been restored to health by that medicine.

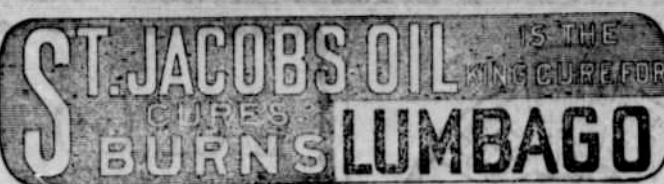

Rev. O. G. Quimby, Baptist, will preach at the M. E. church in this place on Sunday, December 16th, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The evening sermon will be his farewell address, as he will leave for the Umpqua valley in a day or so thereafter, thence to eastern Oregon.

The Christmas eve entertainment and "fish-pond," to be conducted by the band, is for all and free. It is expected to furnish presents for every child, to which end the band solicits contributions. Parents and friends having presents to be distributed, are requested to deliver them at Masonic hall on Monday, 24th inst., to the committee, and give necessary instructions.

At the last regular meeting of Gen. Lytle Post, No. 27, G. A. R., held last Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: John Morris, post commander; Joe Waltermeyer, senior vice; Ed Nichols, junior vice; Jonathan Quick, chaplain; W. Sinclair, quartermaster; G. R. Wickham, officer of the day; G. W. Norton, officer of the guard. Ed Nichols was chosen delegate to the state encampment and S. W. Harrington alternate.

Judge Schroeder will celebrate Christmas eve with a family reunion, which will number about seventy persons in all, including those added by marriage. Grandpa and Grandma Schroeder will be the central figures of the joyous occasion, and undoubtedly it will be a happy meeting to all as it will rank among the very rare family reunions of anything like so large a number of persons in this section of Oregon. These pioneers in this valley and coast country hold the esteem and respect of all, and congratulations of many will attend them on this festive reunion.

The debate at the Academy last Saturday night was an attraction and claimed to be the most interesting yet had. The subject was: Resolved, That the creamery industry is more lucrative to Coos county than the fishery industry. The affirmative side consisted of John Leek, Ben Lawrence, Oliver Sanford and Mr. Airey; and on the negative, C. H. Bunch, Geo. Miller, Ed Robinson and Prof. Bunch. The society appointed the following officers: R. W. Airey, president; Chas. Roberts, vice president; Irma Lukens, secretary and treasurer; F. S. Bunch, censor and critic; John Leek, marshal.

The steamer Bandorille will be here by Friday or Saturday. Mrs. Capt. and Mrs. Caddie Lockwood were up yesterday.

Mr. Wilkins took a photograph of the Leneve building yesterday. Miss Lizzie Buzan came up from Bandon yesterday and will remain at home.

The "breakers' loud roar" has been the music of old ocean for several days past. The schooner Antelope finished loading at Lyons' mill Saturday, and departed down the river Sunday morning for San Francisco.

An interesting communication from a prominent, respected, and cultured citizen appears today in our "Union Labor Column." Read it.

The schooner Lizzie Prien took a load of over 160,000 feet of extra fine lumber from Morris Bro's mill this trip, a large proportion of which was fine matched flooring.

Mrs. Harkness and Mrs. Scott made a visit to Perkins' and other friends on the lower river yesterday, before leaving for California. They return today.

Another large shipment of blankets, robes and other woollen manufactures from the Bandon mills were shipped by rail from this station yesterday to San Francisco.

For rheumatism I have found nothing equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm—J. W. Young, West Liberty, W. Va. The prompt relief it affords is alone worth many times the cost, 50 cents. Its continued use will effect a permanent cure. For sale by S. L. Leneve, druggist.

The W. R. C. met last Wednesday afternoon and elected the following officers: Mrs. George Wickham, president; Mrs. D. P. Strang, senior vice; Miss Lucy Nichols, junior vice; Mrs. H. H. Nichols, chaplain; Miss Birdie Elliott, conductress; Mrs. Della Wickham, treasurer; Mrs. Sheppard, guard.

Mrs. Ione Scott was given a delightful farewell hop at Masonic hall last Saturday night, by her host of young friends in this place, prior to her departure for residence in California. The attendance was large and the pleasures of the evening were complete. All regret to lose her, and society circles will miss her very much.

Lawson Lawhorn, living near Fairview, came near losing his comfortable home by fire Wednesday evening, 28th ult. While at supper, Mrs. L. had passed out of a bedroom into the diningroom, where she left a lamp for a moment, expecting to return. Suddenly a flash of light startled them, and entering the room a blaze was spreading up the wall near where the lamp sat. With some good fighting the fire was subdued in a brief time and the home saved. As to the origin of the fire, whether the lamp exploded, or the wallpaper caught from the lamp, our informant could not tell us. The damage resulting was small.

At Roseburg, in circuit court last week, up to Thursday, the case against G. S. Brown, for the murder of Alfred Kincaid at Oakland last summer, had progressed to the extent of entering a plea of not guilty. The grand jury returned a bill of murder in the first degree. Thursday morning Attorney Crawford moved for a continuance, and the motion was being argued. The man W. F. Beckman, who killed his wife and her son, Robert Ring, at Oak creek last September, has also been indicted for murder in the first degree. LATER—Since writing the above, we learn that on Friday the court denied the motion for a continuance of the Brown case and ordered a jury empaneled. Of eight jurors examined only one had as yet been accepted.

Const Mail: Judge Dyer returned from San Francisco whether he went to confer with parties in regard to the land deal on the Coquille. The prospect is flattering that the deal will be consummated. The eastern syndicate has deposited 15 per cent of the purchase price in bank, to be paid if the abstracts show a good title to the property involved. Mr. Hacker is busy making abstracts which are sent on for inspection as fast as made, and it is not likely there will be any failure of title.

Notice of Dairy Convention

To Be Held at Coquille City, Beginning at 11 O'clock A. M., on Friday, December 14, 1894.

To Every Dairyman in the Coquille Valley, Who Owns or Milks Cows—Greeting: Believing that great good can be accomplished for the dairy interests of the whole Coquille valley, by a united effort and action on the part of the dairymen of the whole valley in general, the undersigned and many others issue this call for the above convention, or meeting, for the purpose of discussing and taking definite action on the best plan of co-operation.

As it is now well understood that the concentration of a very large milk supply at one point, and under one management, owned or controlled wholly by dairymen, means a saving of much expense now wasted by a division of said milk supply, and an addition of many cents per pound on every pound of butter-fat we produce, it is expected that it will be necessary to continue in session during the day and evening, and if need be a short session the following forenoon, and it is desired that as many as can should prepare papers on the subject of the "Best Plan of Co-operation," to be read at said meeting, and it is expected that a full attendance of cow owners all over the valley, from the head of the Coquille river to its mouth, and all the tributaries, will be in attendance and help make it exclusively a meeting of dairymen and dairy interests, and that each one will consider it their meeting and come prepared to represent their best interests in the dairy line by voice and vote. Signed by—

R. D. Sanford, R. M. Hayter, J. J. Lamb, E. Henckendorff, W. H. Waddington, S. L. Lafferty, J. P. Clauson, Matt Kerrigan, Thos. Devereux, A. R. Moomaw, S. J. Miller, August Carl, Wm Paxon, Geo W Wimer, sr, W C Bullard, Samuel Shuck, C A Bullard, A J Wood.

The steamer Bandorille was advertised in the Portland papers to sail this (Tuesday) evening for Coquille. She was to receive freight at her usual wharf, foot of Couch street. She is billed to San Francisco from this river. Miss Carrie Dement of the upper river has been visiting the Wilkins girls and other friends in this place the past few days.

Dissolution Notice. NOTICE is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between M. Hayter and C. M. and Robert Doyle to fill a certain contract prior to July last, the said contract having been completed, the partnership is dissolved by expiration of said contract, and the undersigned will not be responsible for any obligations that may be contracted by either of the above-named parties since July 30, 1894. M. HAYTER. Nov. 30, 1894.

NOTICE is hereby given, that about December 1st, of 1894, will be prepared to furnish a good article of fresh milk at your door at popular prices, and 20 per cent will be deducted from those wishing to take their milk at any barn at milking hours. A continuous supply will be maintained if possible, in reason, and a share of the public patronage is respectfully solicited. R. D. SANFORD. Coquille City, Or., Nov. 6.

The river is up, half banks full. The steamers Antelope and Myrl have a big trade.

The steamer Dispatch laid off a few days, but is running again, and contemplates a round trip each day from Bandon to Myrtle Point.

The dairymen's convention will be held in this city Friday, and from indications a good attendance is promised.

H. A. Jones returned from the bay last week with his family, who had come over from Eugene via Drain. Of course his cap of happiness is full.

FOR SALE.—A tract of 160 acres of fine timber land, near Fishtrap, Apply at this office.

The horse raisers of eastern Oregon who have been seeing electricity and the science knocking the value out of horseflesh right and left, will now begin to take a more cheerful view of the scientific discoveries. The new preventive and cure for diphtheria requires an antitoxin serum made out of the blood of horses or cows. It requires six months work to put a horse's blood into shape to extract this serum, and one horse is only capable of producing 150 doses of the stuff. New York city has been asked to make a $40,000 appropriation to secure serum for the city hospitals. This is only a starter.

Astorian: Parties just up from that part of the coast report that a large rock in front of an immense cave about a quarter of a mile south of Hekata Head, is swarming with sealions. They are big fellows, and are more numerous than ever known before.

Postmaster Scriver, of Boundary City, Wash., was arrested Thursday by the postal authorities for irregularities in connection with missing registry packages.

Elocutionary Entertainment.

Prof. J. W. E. Allen, graduate of Ciprico Elocutionary Institute of Minneapolis, Minn., gave a most recherche and pleasing entertainment at Masonic hall last night, consisting of dramatic recitations from Shakespeare and other celebrated authors. The evening was inlensed and the audience small, but the entertainment was of a high order, edifying and pleasing, being much enjoyed by those who had the honor to hear so able an elocutionist and intelligent a gentleman as Mr. Allen. The following constituted the program of the evening: "Cassius against Caesar," act 3 from Julius Caesar, Shakespeare; mandolin and guitar rendition by Misses Lizzie Buzan and Pearl Baxter; recitation, "Rienzi to the Romans"—Mitford; recitation, "Bernardo del Carpio"—Hemans; recitation, "Seven Ages of Man"—Shakespeare; recitation, Catiline's Defiance"—Croly; recitation, "Marmion and Douglas"—Scott; recitation, "The Lutanio;" violin and guitar selection, H. A. Jones and Miss Lizzie Buzan; recitation, "Wolsley's Fall"—Shakespeare; recitation, "Lay of the Madman." It will be observed that these selections are all of the highest order, and the impersonations require a master in dramatization, and Mr. Allen filled the requirements not less completely than many of the famous dramatists.

West Oregonian: There is considerable dissatisfaction among our business men as to the manner in which they have been treated by Goodall, Perkins & Co. on the through freight rats between this place and San Francisco. It seems that Messrs. Goodall, Perkins & Co. entered into a contract to ship goods from San Francisco to Myrtle Point at a rate of about $4 per ton, that they still claim to hold to the contract, but somehow or other when the goods arrive our merchants have to pay all the way from $6 to $15 per ton. Just whose fault it is seems to be a mystery.

N. Lorenz will now occupy the new store room next door to the postoffice.
