

THE COLUMBIAN. U. S. OFFICIAL PAPER. NEWS DROPS.

Rev. Mr. Sellwood will preach here on Sunday.

Capt. Lemont has some of those magnificent Cowlitz hams.

Mr. Arthur, not the President, has rented Capt. Lemont's ranch.

Mr. Frank Hoyt was married in Portland last week, to Mrs. Ruth Semple.

Capt. Pope reports a partial failure of crops particularly fruits and upland hay. The bottom hay will be plentiful.

The West Shore should be patronized by every one. It is a prime necessity of Oregon, not merely an ornament.

Mr. Watkins has bought the John Ayres' house on Honesty Hill, and will have it repaired, and a big addition made to it. Mr. Harris, of Columbia City is the master workman.

The Joseph Kellogg will make an excursion on Monday to the Klickitat Prairie on the headwaters of the Cowlitz. Capt. Habersham, a Government official will be on board. A splendid time is anticipated.

The Manzanillo makes trips every Monday and Friday to Astoria and every Wednesday to Clatskanie. This is a finely finished boat, and its Captain, officers and crew are very civil and obliging. It has a cosy cabin and nice furniture to match.

The Herald of Industry edited and published by Mrs. Stow in San Francisco, is a spunky, energetic exponent of a woman's rights, and we wish it success which every man must that respected his mother. Mrs. Stow has lots of grit and sand.

The Joseph Kellogg got in ahead of all other steamboats on July 4th to Vancouver. It is a magnificent boat and well officered. That old pioneer of steamboat Captains, Capt. Kellogg, was in command. Long may he wave. His history if written out would be one of the most interesting in the early history of Oregon.
