E. G. ADAMS, Editor & Proprietor.

On Sunday we went up to Vancouver with our family on the Lucea Mason. It had looked so much like rain there was not so big a crowd, as there otherwise would have been. The air was very cool, and blew directly down the river. We got at Vancouver at 12 M., and in the first place called at Dr. Wall's where we took dinner. There eldest son is attending a Medical College in San Francisco. We called at Captain Hakes' and admired the beautiful maples in front of their residence. The interior of their house was fitted up in fine style. We called at Mr. C. W. Slocum's. Mrs. Slocum had returned from Kalama, and was at home. We went out and admired their fine carriages and horses. Mr. Slocum's residence is one of the finest in Vancouver. We called on Thurston Daniels at his beautiful home, also at Mr. Jaggys's where we met the first time, Rev. Mr. Banks. Byron Daniels and his bride were there.

In Vancouver we met for the first time Dr. Sparling, the Register of the Land Office. He resembles in manners. Genl. Hamilton of Portland, and has the same courtly, gentlemanly and at the | kind of a road. same time independent offhand way.

Mr. Benzer and daughter Mrs. Pollock were on board, also a Mrs. Bozarth, one of the John sisters.

The picnic of the Band of Hope was very fine. It was in a grove on the top of Church Hill. The table was loaded with the most delicious viands. Basket after basket came from the splendid housewives of St. Helen and vicinity. The table was beautiful to behold. Mrs. Edmonds and Mrs. Moore furnished some finely ornamented cake. Mrs. Edmonds was not present, but sent very liberally, and so did many others. There was music and speaking in the church One of the best speakers was Johnny out of their quarry on this side of Milton Fero. A number joined the Band of Creek. They will work in the quarry Hope.
