LET LAWTON ANSWER.

The Times has published Mr. Bryan's answer to the charge, that he has encouraged Filipino resistance to American authority, and asks "if what Mr. Bryan says s not true, what is the truth?" No better answer can be given to the query of the Times and to Mr. Bryan, than the following extract from a letter written by General Lawton about two months before he was shot: we will pay you from one fourth to ene-half more for your iron than any junk dealer.
