

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Wheat 78c. Oats 33c.

Corvallis Gazette and Weekly Oregonian $2.50 per year.

Mrs. Casper Duret, of Corvallis, was an Albany visitor on Monday.

Mrs. W. R. Hansell is very ill at her home in this city.

Largest stock and lowest prices on school suits at Kline's

M. P. Fruit, of the Brick Stable was a business visitor in Albany on Monday.

A new residence is going up near the old carriage factory, it belongs to C. A. Troxel.

Get your school books and school supplies at Graham & Wells.

T. H. Wellsher's residence is receiving a new roof and other repairs.

Millinery opening at Mrs. J. Mason's, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 8 and 9.

Full line of high grade groceries, crockery, etc., at P. M. Zierolfs'.

From a three weeks' stay in the hop yards of Independence, J. W. Webber is back to town to stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter are visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Blakeslee.

Best meals in the city to be found at City Restaurant.

Mr. Taylor is the name of the new landlord of the Philomath Hotel, long may he live and may prosperity attend him.

Stephen Pitman is erecting a new barn just west of Ira Bodine's feed warehouse and H. Broadbent is doing the work.

Weekly Oregonian and Twice a week GAZETTE one year $2.50

The family of Reuben Patti are to arrive from Salem today and will move into the house formerly occupied by E. W. Piaster. Mr. Patti is Carl Hodes' new baker.

Big boys, little boys any kind of boys suits at very low prices at Kline's.

A dislocated elbow joint is the affliction Baker Mundy is nursing this week, the result of a fall from one of the small bridges on the College campus last Saturday.

Opening at Miss Johnson's Friday and Saturday, September 30 and October 1.

W. H. Seits of Alsea, says he has made his last trip to Corvallis for the year. Before starting for home Thursday he made this office a pleasant call and renewed his subscription.

Fishing tackle, hunters' supplies and sporting goods at Hodes' Pioneer Gun Store.

During the thunder storm Friday night of last week, the lightning struck a tree on the old Palmer place, about four miles southwest of Albany on the Corvallis road, and killed seven fine hogs.

Lamps, bedroom lamps, student's lamps, glass lamps of all kinds, at Zierolfs'.

A quiet wedding took place at the Evangelical church, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. H. A. Deck uniting in marriage Frank Taylor and Miss Genevieve Cline, both of this city. They will reside in South Benton.

Fishing tackle, hunters' supplies and sporting goods at Hodes' Pioneer Gun Store.

Mrs. Martha Porter, who underwent an operation for the removal of a cancer of the breast, is improving rapidly and will soon be able to return to her home near Philomath. Mrs. Porter is 67 years of age and of remarkable vitality.

See those elegant parlor sets and library tables at Hollenberg & Cady's.

D. J. Fry, a manufacturing druggist of Salem passed through the city yesterday, on his way to Lincoln county, where he will load a car with chittim bark. He is a considerable buyer of cascara, and uses large quantities in his manufactures.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Robinson were the recipients of a surprise Tuesday evening by a number of their friends. A very enjoyable time was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson leave Saturday for an extended visit in Illinois, Iowa and other states where they have many relatives. They intend staying six or seven months, but we predict before that time they will be wending their way homeward.

School days will soon be here. For extra good suits for boys and Hamilton Brown Security school shoes for boys and girls see NOLAN & CALLAHAN.

School suits at Kline's.

Miss Louise Oleman has accepted a position in the Commercial restaurant.

Mrs. Putarcu Lewis and children are now residing in Fall City.

Take penmanship in the night school.

Mrs. Hill who has held a position in the Commercial restaurant left Wednesday for her home in Stayton.

Fairmount precinct has lost its register. It has probably been misplaced but at present nobody seems to know where it is.

Shorthand is taught at the night school.

Miss Etta Fuller will leave today for Wells Station, where she will soon enter upon her duties as teacher of the school at that place.

After spending the summer on their ranch at Waldport, Mr. and Mrs. Oren and son returned home and will remain until February.

Study bookkeeping in the night school.

Miss Laura Beckwith is expected to arrive tomorrow from Minneapolis, Minn. She will make her home with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Clark.

You can prepare for paying positions by entering the night school.

An eight-foot cougar was killed recently by Messrs Ludeman and Bowman near Euclid, not far from Waldport. The huge cat was treed by a dog belonging to one of the gentlemen and shot.

A few cords of wool wanted on subscriptions at this office.

The continued summer drought has made fall seeding much easier than usual, the ground not having packed. The recent rains have had little effect on plowing. In parts of Benton the fall seeding is under headway and will almost be finished before the rains set in.

Crockery! Crockery! Crockery! Balls' Mason fruit jars, stone jars, all kinds of jars from 1 to 20 gallons, at Zierolfs'.

A poor old gray horse has been impounded in the Abbott feed stable pending the arrival of its owner. He is about 12 years old, very large of frame and has long since parted company with robust health and good feed.

The finest individual water system in the city is owned by C. Stimson, who lives on College Hill. The windmill and the tank is a work of art and cannot be excelled, it was built by A. E. Bell. The water is forced into the tank from a well 50 feet or more from the base of the tower, by means of a very ingenious arrangement, Mr. Stimson's own invention. Water is carried with ample power to all parts of the house with splendid facilities for irrigating a wide area of garden ground.

Our Mt. Hood pictures have arrived and they are beauties. They will not last long so you must call at once at the GAZETTE and get one. They are free with every subscription or renewal.

An extra passenger train will be put on the C. & E. Sunday morning, the same to start from Corvallis at 6 a. m. for Albany and Detroit and to return in the evening at 5:55. This change is made to accommodate those who wish to make connection with the Albany local for Portland or points east of Albany. This is the same train that formerly started from Albany for Detroit at 7 a. m. and returned in the evening at 5 o'clock, and it will hereafter come on through to Corvallis and start from here one hour earlier than its regular time.

Business Chance.—Party with $8,000 to $10,000 desiring A1 real estate can have bargain if he does business right now. Call at Gazette office for particulars or address W. F. H. Corvallis, R. F. D. 3.

Capt. A. Fay, master of the steamer Toledo, trading into Yaquina Bay, is meeting with much encouragement in his attempt to establish closer business relations between this valley and Coos Bay points. He passed through the city last week, spent some time in Albany, and left on Monday for Portland. He expects to establish a regular line of steamers between Yaquina and the Southern Oregon Coast in the course of a few months. This is an enterprise that should be heartily encouraged by our people.

A beautiful facsimile of a hand painting of President Roosevelt or if you prefer, the same of Mt. Hood neatly mounted on different colors of mounting board, will be given free to everyone subscribing for the CORVALLIS GAZETTE or to anyone paying up back subscription or paying in advance. These pictures are going fast, come and get one.

Mrs. Crutcher returned to Portland, yesterday, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Chester Dolph.

Free penmanship, if you enter the Corvallis Business College this week for Shorthand or Bookkeeping courses.

The many friends of Ben Elgin, and especially the fair sex, are pleased to see him in Corvallis again. Ben now holds a position in the drug store of Dr. A. D. Morrison at Carlton.

The newly elected officers of the district Convention are Rev. Clark Bower, president; E. S. Hornaday, vice president; Rev. Handsaker, secretary and treasurer.

The city school board in its examination of the work done on the new school building refused to accept the job of plastering that has been done. For some reason or other the plaster has not hardened and crumbles easily when touched.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dunham, accompanied by Mrs. Angeline Biggs, will spend the week in Eugene attending the Methodist conference in session at that place. They left Wednesday morning, going with team.

J. M. Osburn came back to Corvallis, after an absence of several years. Since leaving here he has made several trips East. The past year he has spent in Gold Hill, Oregon. Mr. Osburn is much improved in health.

Thirty-five cents per bushel is the price paid for prunes in Benton county. Prune growers are picking the few on the trees and will realize something. Unless there is a demand for other dried fruits the driers in Benton will remain idle this year.

Elgin Van Blaricon, son of J. L. Blaricon, of Philomath, had the misfortune one day last week to dislocate his right arm at the elbow joint. He fell from the seat of a woodrack, his arm catching in the brake. A far more serious accident was narrowly averted.

The mayor of Philomath is moving to Corvallis. Having disposed of his business interests in Philomath, M. W. Burnap moved to this city, Monday with a view of placing his children in school, and probably engage in some kind of business.

Wm. Eunson a native of the Orkney Islands, but for many years a resident of Benton county has sold out his business interests here and as soon as arrangements can be made, will return to his home beyond the sea. He will spend some time in Washington before leaving.

"Jack and Bob" is the name of the new cleaning, pressing and dyeing parlors on south Main street one door south of Berry's bicycle shop. Jack and Bob are two young men from Portland, and are here to stay. A specialty is made of ladies' garments, special rates to students, all work guaranteed.

The last pool on chittim bark was sold Monday in Alsea at $5.31 per hundred pounds, a gentleman from Albany being the buyer. This will probably be the last of the large shipments this year. There are many small amounts scattered about but these will doubtless be turned over to local dealers. Thirty carloads of about twelve and a half tons each have been shipped from Corvallis for points East.

Rev. L. Booser, for several years pastor of the United Evangelical church in this city, has accepted a call to enter upon the work of organizing and building up Presbyterian churches at Piedmont and Arbor Lodge, near Portland. The First Presbyterian church has conducted mission Sunday Schools at these two places for the past ten years, and each has been well attended. It is thought he will soon build up good congregations at both these places.

The contract for furnishing the school supplies for the current year has been awarded to C. A. Gerhard, for the third time, in the face of considerable competition. That Mr. Gerhard has the ability to carry out his contracts is proved by this continued award to his store. The little bookstore in the Occidental building is a scene of unusual activity during these days when the children are laying in their supplies for the new term.

Philomath had a fire Tuesday morning. A barn with its contents, valued at $500, not covered by insurance, belonging to G. A. Scott was totally destroyed. The fire was discovered about 3 o'clock in the morning and when discovered was under such headway as to be beyond control. A large quantity of hay, grain, a wagon and agricultural implements were among the things destroyed. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

Rev. Clark Bower, of Albany, was a visitor during the Convention.

Among the guests who were present during the convention this week were H. B. Henderson and daughter of Albany.

Among the prominent speakers here Monday and Tuesday attending the convention was Rev. Davis Errett, of Salem.

Rev. and Mrs. Green return today from Portland, where they have been attending the annual state convention of the Congregational church.

Rev. J. J. Evans, of Salem, state secretary of the Oregon Christian Convention was among those who attend the convention here this week.

If you desire information regarding employment of any kind, for either ladies or gentlemen, or boarding places for students, I will be at your service. Phone me at residence 251 Independent or 306 Bell, or at office 303 Independent.

J. W. LINGER.

Brady Burnett returned Thursday from a trip to Grants Pass and Glendale, where he was looking into a mining proposition in which cousin is interested. He reports Ed Phillips doing exceedingly well with an assaying office at Grants Pass.

The Corvallis Business College is now located in its new rooms in the First National Bank building. There will be both Day and Night classes. The evening classes will meet on Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week. The young people should take advantage of this opportunity to secure a good business education. The penmanship work should be taken by every young person in town. Prof. L. W. Karlen is certainly a fine penman. He expects to write cards again on the street Saturday.

DOCTOR SANBURN

The White Medicine Chief—The King of Cures.

I am now in your town introducing my wonderful arts of healing now before the public.

Don't fail to come and have your diseases told, and be cured if you wish. Remember, I tell your diseases without asking a question or a touch of the hand.

I have two arts of healing. I heal with Magnetic Power and with Roots, Herbs, Barks and Berries. Come one and all I will tell everybody their diseases.

Please bear in mind that I am the only man who manufactures these remedies this side of Paris, as there is where I learned these Arts of Healing, and shall, in the future put certain kinds of medicine in your drug stores for the benefit of the public.

My office and laboratory are at 1982 Hurst Street, University Park, Portland, Oregon.

Office in Corvallis, at Mrs. Clark's, southwest corner of Third and Adams St., one block west of R. M. Wade & Co.'s hardware store.

Will remain in Corvallis till October 10, and return every other month in the future.

Consultation Free at Any Time

Red Cedar Star Shingles at the sawmill at $1.60 per M. E. W. STRONG.

YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE TAKING

When you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is so simple and the bottle showing that it is pure and that the fine put in tasteless form and pure, no day, no

Kline's.

For fine Suits and Overcoats see the famous

Hart, Schaffner & Marx

Hand-tailored, ready-to-wear Suits and Overcoats, for sale only by

S. L. Kline.

Copyright 1904 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

HOTEL CORVALLIS

J. C. HAMMEL, Prop.

Leading hotel in Corvallis. Newly furnished with modern conveniences. Rates $1, $1.25, $2 per day.

HEADQUARTERS FOR COMMERCIAL MEN.

W. S. GARDNER, PHOTOGRAPHER.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED FIRST CLASS

STUDIO, 908 NINTH STREET NEAR COLLEGE WALK.

BLIND

THE JEWELER AND OPTICIAN

Consult E. W. S. Pratt

BLACKSMITHING.

WAGON MAKING, REPAIRING, WILD HORSES SHOD.

HATHAWAY BROS.

SOUTH MAIN STREET.

HOME SEEKERS

If you are looking for some real good Bargains in Stock, Grain, Fruit and Poultry Ranches, write for our special list, or come and see us. We will take pleasure in giving you reliable information; also showing you over the county.

AMBLER & WATTERS,

REAL ESTATE, LOANS, INSURANCE

VIRGIL E. WATTER, CORVALLIS HENRY AMBLER, PHILMATH

HOME SEEKERS

AMBLER & WATTERS,

REAL ESTATE, LOANS, INSURANCE

VIRGIL E. WATTER, CORVALLIS HENRY AMBLER, PHILMATH

This space reserved for

The Corvallis Saw Mill Co.

Watch for an important announcement.

The Gazette for Job Work.