MR. HENEY.

It is exceedingly unfortunate that Mr. Heney has permitted himself directly or by implication to charge Senator Fulton with reprehensible and possibly criminal conduct before "the proper time comes." It would be no less unfortunate had Mr. Heney's vague, mysterious, shadowy insinuations been directed upon the most humble and obscure citizen. No public prosecutor has any right, leave or license to proceed in any such manner. It is in violation of all sense of right and justice. More than this. It contributes to impede, possibly to make impossible the administration of justice. For this reason alone it is not only unfortunate but most reprehensible that any public prosecutor should resort to such conduct.

We do not know and do not seek to know in advance of "the proper time" what evidence Mr. Heney has to implicate Mr. Fulton in wrong doing. He may have sufficient to send the senator to prison, but the public is not a trial jury, not even a grand jury for the indictment and trial of a citizen.

No man's case should be prejudged, prejudiced in public opinion. A prosecuting attorney who is really intent upon administering the laws in the interest of justice will sedulously avoid doing, saying or intimating anything that may fairly be ascribed to his own vanity, personal animosity or to any motive other than the unbiased desire to bring wrong doers to book and mete justice unto them. Mr. Heney should know, as every man in like position should, that the people do not desire innuendos, bluff, braggadocio, but the stern, unrelenting execution of their laws against all offenders.

Whatever evidence he has against Senator Fulton should have been held in abeyance until the proper time came when, in the pursuit of justice, it might legally and properly have been given to the public. He must now make his vague charges good. Failure to do this will be fatal to his future usefulness as a public prosecutor and should be followed by his withdrawal from his present office.

"Some men were born great; some achieve greatness; some have greatness thrust upon them" and some mistake notoriety for greatness. Oregonians will classify Mr. Heney presently.

DISORGANIZING FORCES.

What is the character of the forces now at work disorganizing the political parties of the country? When we say parties we have in mind but the two great parties which exist in the country—the democratic and republican parties.

A close examination shows that these disorganizing forces may be grouped and placed in one of two classes. To the first class we may assign all those forces which have their inception within the party itself. These are the result of restless ambition of party leaders, mistakes in party policies and the espousal of untried and false principles. They are the growth and outcome of conditions originating within the party. Being largely the result of imperfect, human judgment they are incidental to all parties and not unfrequently and for extended periods greatly impair the efficiency of the party. Sometimes, indeed, these forces destroy a party, but ordinarily they are mastered where they originated—within the party.

To the other class we may assign all those forces which have their origin outside of the party. These are the forces which cannot possibly dare not form a party distinctively their own. Their only hope of success lies in their ability to creep, unnoticed, unrecognized into the camp of an organized party, gain control of its organization and machinery, and use these to work out their purposes.

A party thus seized upon is forced away from all its basic principles, has all its best history sullied and all its time-honored traditions set at naught. All the elements which heretofore have been denied the support of the party are now become its controlling force. The founders of the party would now recognize nothing of the party but its honored, historic name.

Let honest, patriotic democrats judge for themselves whether this is the condition of their party. Speaking to republicans we would warn them that these extraneous forces are working to gain control of their party. They care nothing for republican principles and policies. The traditions, history and achievements of the party are nothing to the representatives of these forces. They seek to gain control of the party only to advance their own purposes. Our constitutions, our laws, our customs, the very foundations of our social structure must be cast aside and something they have planned must be substituted in place thereof.

Already some of the representatives of these forces, masquerading as republicans, have sneaked into the party camp. Republicans must deny them influence and power. Failing in this we shall see the party honeycombed with all the mischievous, un-American isms now so rampant in the country.

The patriotic men of either party should regard with deep suspicion any attempt to prostitute the party to destructive, base, un-American purposes.

Be patient, be patient! It may be that Mr. Bourne and Attorney General Bonaparte can persuade the President to fit the office to Mr. Schuebel.

Additional Local.

A. D. Limbocker went to Portland the last of the week for a visit with relatives.

Miss Sue Fisher, a former OAC girl, and Ralph A. Weaver of Ontario, Oregon, were married recently, according to information received in this city.

The immigration to Oregon and Washington this year ought to be double that of last. In no other two states has every character of crop yielded so enormously and commanded such a high price. People in older communities are disposed to move, and the Pacific Northwest should get more than its proportion of new citizens, but to accomplish this all the commercial bodies must work in harmony and individuals must participate through private correspondence which is the strongest influence of all.

Gray Shires For America.

It is interesting to notice that gray draft horses are much more likely to attract American and Canadian buyers than those of any other color, and as the Shire breed has produced some famous animals of this color there are naturally young descendants coming on, and one wonders whether it would not be a good stroke of business for a few breeders of Shires with gray mares to mate them with stallions of like hue in order to produce the favorite color for the States and Canada, says the London Live Stock Journal. It is certain that a smart wearing class of Shire would be a match for the Percherons on the western wheat farms, where a combination of weight and activity is needed. That there is a demand for gray stallions, upstanding, smart and with flat, flinty bone, which will stand the idleness of a Canadian winter, is certain, and unquestionably British horse breeders have the material for producing them. It is well known that Lincolnshire Lad II, 1365, was a gray, and he left quite a number of descendants of that color when he died at a good old age. Iron Chancellor's dam was by him, and this horse probably sired more grays than those of any other color.

Why Beef is High.

Beef is dear to the meat consumers of the United States because the taste for the flesh of young cows "has been cultivated to a point which among the well to do classes has reached a stage not far below the proverbial luxury of the ancient Romans." This is said to be the testimony of Ernest G. Ritzman, a specialist in beef production in the department of agriculture. "Specialization in breeding is necessary to produce that excellence in flavor, grain and quality essential to please the palate of the modern epicure."

SAYS IT IS FACT.

Graham & Wells Confirm Guarantee on Hyomei, Cure for Catarrh.

The question having been raised as to whether or not Graham & Wells will refund the money if a Hyomei outfit does not do all that is claimed for it in curing catarrh, they want to state positively that this guarantee is an absolute fact.

A guarantee like this is the best proof that can be offered as to the curative powers of Hyomei in all catarrhal troubles. You do not risk a cent in testing its healing virtues, Graham & Wells take all the risk.

If you have catarrh, try this wonderful medicated air of Hyomei. It does not drug or derange the stomach, but is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, so that its medication reaches the most remote air cells in the nose, throat and lungs, where any catarrhal germ may be lurking. It quickly destroys them, heals and soothes the irritated mucous membrane and vitalizes the tissues so that catarrh is no longer possible. You can lose nothing by giving Hyomei a trial, nothing but the catarrh and that is good riddance.

The price of the complete outfit is but $1.00; nothing if it fails to cure. Get an outfit from Graham & Wells today and begin its use at once.

WORSE THAN ONIONS.

Bad Breath From Indigestion Cannot be Overcome With Perfumes.

All of us suffer from bad breath—sometimes our own, but oftener that of our friends.

Nine-tenths of this bad breath comes from some stomach trouble, and cannot be overcome by breath perfumes or any other palliative measures.

If you occasionally have a bad breath; if there is heart burn, flatulence and acid goings of undigested food; if the stomach burns or smart; if there is sleeplessness, nervousness, headaches or any other of the many symptoms of indigestion, use Mi-o-na stomach tablets and get well.

Mi-o-na is not a mere digestive nor a physic but a tonic remedy that strengthens the muscles of the stomach and bowels so that the flow of gastric juices is increased and the food is digested naturally and does not stay in the stomach to ferment and poison the breath.

Graham & Wells have seen so many cures made by Mi-o-na stomach tablets that they give a guarantee with every 50-cent box that the money will be refunded if the remedy fails to give satisfaction. They take the whole risk, and a box of Mi-o-na will not cost you a penny unless it cures you.
