of tactics, and that was the double-quick. [Shouts.] He treated you with every sort of insolence and disrespect [laughter], and the bravest of you didn't dare to say a word. [Great laughter.] You could face the death storm of Donelson and Vicksburg, and give back blow for blow, but when he clawed your whiskors, and pulled your hair, and twisted your nose, you had to take it. [Roars.] When the thunders of war were sounding in your ears, yon set your faces toward the batteries, and advanced with steady tread, but when he turned on the terrors of his war-whoop [laughter], you advanced in the other direction, and ward the batteries, and Bovance ward the batteries, and Bovance on the steady tread, but when he turned on the steady tread, but when he turned on the terrors of his war-whoop [laughter], you advanced in the other direction, and mighty glad of the chance, too. When he called for soothing syrup, did you venture to throw out any side remarks about certain services being unbecoming an officer and a gentleman? [Boisterous laughter.] No. You got up and got.
