CALL FOR TEMPERANCE CONVENTIONS.
 EDITOR REVIEW: Enclosed you will find a call for Temperance conventions in which the people of your city are especially invited. Will you please publish it in the next issue of your paper and thus confer a favor upon the Temperance people? G. W. Miller.
 TO THE FRIENDS OF THE TEMPERANCE REFORM:
 Dating from the publication of the celebrated essay of Dr. Benjamin Rush, of Philadelphia, in 1785, the Temperance reform has been in progress one hundred years. To review the history of the movement during the past century and give it a new impetus for the new Temperance century, the various National Temperance organizations have recommended that the third week in September, from the 20th to the 27th be observed as Centennial Week, by holding meetings to discuss such historical papers, subjects and questions, as may be presented and to confer together as to the needs of the great reform.
 We, therefore, would earnestly recommend that this week be observed throughout Oregon by all organizations connected with the temperance work; that ministers of all denominations preach on the reform on Sunday September 20th, that all Sunday schools observe that day with appropriate exercises; and that temperance societies hold special meetings during the entire week, so far as practicable. We also especially recommend that there be held three district centennial conventions, and designate as the place for holding them, Albany for the Willamette valley, Roseburg for southern Oregon and LeGrand for eastern Oregon, September 23rd and 24th as the dates. These places and dates are suggested subject to the approval of the Local Committees on Arrangements.
 All churches, Sunday schools and temperance societies are cordially invited to send one or more delegates to the conventions in their respective districts.
 The representatives of the State or organizations joining in this call will act as a committee to confer with Local committees as to arrangements and programme.
 Let there be a good attendance at these conventions. Let us meet to hear what the last century of our work has to say to our successes and our failures; learn what work the new century brings to us, and gain new strength and courage for the new century.
 In behalf of the state organizations,

IN MEMORY OF ULYSSES S. GRANT.
 At a meeting held at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, August 3d, 1885, it was resolved to erect a monument to the memory of General U. S. Grant on the Fort Leavenworth Military Reservation. A committee of five gentlemen from each of the states of Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Texas, Arkansas, and all states and territories west of the Mississippi, including the Governor of each of these states, and five officers of the Regular Army stationed in the Department of the Missouri, was provided for. This committee is to have charge of the work of collecting funds, preparing plans and erecting the proposed monument, and was authorized to appoint all necessary sub-committees.
 The idea of erecting a monument to the memory of the distinguished soldier and statesman meets with hearty approval by all classes of citizens of the west. The erection of the national grounds at Fort Leavenworth is deemed peculiarly appropriate for such a purpose.
 The committee appointed appeals to the people of the states and territories west of the Mississippi for contributions in aid of the object in view, and it is suggested:
 First, that contributions be taken up for the "Grant Monument Fund" at all the memorial meetings held on the day of the funeral and transmitted to Capt. F. H. Hathaway, U. S. A., Fort Leavenworth, Kansas who has been selected as treasurer of the Monument Committee.
 Second, that the Post Commander, Adjutant and Quartermaster of every Grand Army Post in the territory named, be constituted a committee for the purpose of soliciting funds, which money, when collected, shall be transmitted to the Department Commander of the G. A. R. for the state in which it was collected, and by him transmitted to the Treasurer of the Monument Committee, Captain F. H. Hathaway, U. S. A., Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.
 Third, that citizens' committees be formed in every city, town and school district throughout the territory named who shall collect funds and forward the same to the Treasurer.
 Fourth, that the State and Territorial Superintendents throughout the country west of the Mississippi be earnestly requested to address all the schools within their jurisdiction, and request that on some day to be designated by the Superintendents, a collection be taken among the school children. The amounts thus raised to be forwarded to the State Superintendents and by them transmitted to the Treasurer.
 Fifth, that the active co-operation of all religious denominations be invoked, and that they be asked to make similar collections on a day to be fixed by the Bishops, or other presiding authorities.
 Sixth, the county, city, town and chartered corporations, business firms and industrial associations throughout the territory named be requested to raise a fund for the monument.
 Seventh, contributions to the Monument Fund will be received from the officers and soldiers of the Regular Army by post and company commanders, and by them transmitted to the Treasurer of the Monument Committee, Captain F. H. Hathaway, U. S. A., at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.
 It is proposed that, in all cases where a fund is raised by the special efforts of any body of citizens, civic, military or religious, as by the Grand Army, the school, any religious organization, the railroad employees, the Regular Army, etc., that the fact shall be specially acknowledged in a memorial stone bearing a suitable inscription, placed in the proposed monument.
 The undersigned, a Special Committee appointed to act until the General Monument Committee is formed, issue this address in order that the work of raising funds may be immediately commenced. The Committee representing the state of Kansas has already been named as follows: Governor John A. Martin; Colonel M. Stewart, Department Commander G. A. R.; State Superintendent J. H. Lowhead; Bishop W. X. Nide, of the M. E. Church, and S. F. Neely, Mayor of Leavenworth. The other State Committees will be announced as soon as possible.

Extract from Emile Zola's last novel: "Ratan" was falling in Paris. A man walked the street. He was hungry. He wanted something to eat. He wanted to eat. He wanted to eat. The rain poured over the bridge. The man looked over the bridge. He was hungry. The rain ceased. The man left the bridge. He could not take it with him. He could not take it with him. The pawn-shops were closed. The man stopped in front of a restaurant. Through the lace curtains he saw people eating. It seems that they had come there to eat. The man was hungry. The rain had ceased. The bridge still remained in its place. The curtain was partly drawn aside. He saw a soldier eating canned eel. He wanted some. Poor fool. His mouth watered. That was all it could do. How he wished it could bread as well as water. But it couldn't. People met him. His pinched face gave them the impression that he was drunk. He was not. He was hungry. He could find no work. He was too honest to beg, and not proud enough to steal. He was in a bad fix. The rain had ceased. The river roared. The man was hungry. His mouth watered. The soldier continued to eat pickled eel. Poor fool! - Ark. Traveler.

How to Get a Good Price for Fruit.
 A few years ago a farmer in Maine sold apples without knowing where they would go, but he placed in one of the barrels a letter requesting the one who opened the barrel to write him stating the time of opening and the condition of the fruit. Evidently he had bestowed thought and labor on those apples, in order to produce a superior quality. In three months he received the desired information from a London merchant, who afterward sent him large orders.
 Producers would find this plan a good one to open a market for their fruit. A first-class article is always in demand, and commands a better price. Often the purchaser will ask the merchant where such and such fruit came from, and the answer is, from San Francisco, Los Angeles, or Portland. Thus the wholesale dealer gets the credit, as well as the profit. Why not the producers receive both? A little thinking and planning will always reward the husbandman. - Ranch Field & Fireside.

 An increase of wages, amounting in some cases to twenty per cent, has been made in the iron mills of Ellis & Lessor at Pottstown, Pennsylvania.
 A telegram from New York to the Boston Advertiser says Mr. Billings scouted the report that he wanted Mr. Villard to be president of the Northern Pacific.
 French, a cattle king of Grant county and a son-in-law of the late Dr. Glenn, of California, shot and killed a squatter who was endeavoring to secure homestead rights within French's enclosure.
 President Cleveland keeps a scrap book of excerpts from the newspapers in order to be informed of all sorts of public opinion. It is one clerk's sole employment to collect and preserve these things.
 A reduction of one cent per pound in the freight rate on hops from the Pacific coast to eastern points has been made by all transcontinental roads. The old rate was three cents. The new rate goes into effect September 2.
 Helen Hunt Jackson, just dead, was an authoress whose style was particularly simple, direct, and clear, suggesting to an inexperienced reader that she wrote with easy rapidity, but her manuscript was always a mass of erasures and interlineation.
 Nevada is happy. John Mackay has shied his hat into the ring and says he wants the United States senatorship. Jas. Fair says he wants to keep it. Both are worth $25,000,000 and mean business. A vote at Carson next winter will be worth $15,000. - [Astorian].
 A decision was rendered at San Francisco by Superior Judge Maguire, against Joseph Bradeston, Esberg, Bachman & Co. et al, and in favor of Wilker Jones, in which millions of dollars are involved. Jones sued defendants, who were his former partners, for mismanaging and destroying the business and freezing him out.
 Final arrangements between England and Russia for the settlement of disputes arising from the Afghan frontier question are progressing satisfactorily. Lord Salisbury is carrying on negotiations from Chatelet, France. Baron de Staal, the Russian ambassador, is so constantly occupied that he is unable to leave his post for a short holiday.
 A gentleman who lately returned from a trip to the Gray's harbor region reports that two large saw-mills are in course of erection. Messrs. Hawthorne & Co., a company of Michigan lumber men, are putting up one mill, and a Chicago firm are engaged in building the other mill. Both, when complete, will have a capacity of from sixty to seventy-five thousand feet a day. - Standard.
 Coast Mail: The black sand business is booming at the mines near Randsburg. It is reported that a Boston company, with abundant capital, has purchased and is preparing to open and work the Eagle mine. The gold is there, the only difficulty being in saving it, which obstacle to wealth in that way it is confidently believed has been surmounted by some of the new processes for working black sand, which is now in high demand.
 One difficulty which our troops labor under in their pursuit of the Apaches has just been illustrated in the experience of Lieut. Davis. This officer was on a hot trail in Sonora, with his company of Indian scouts and two troops of the Fourth Cavalry, when the Indians unexpectedly halted and asked for a council. When Lieut. Davis refused this and urged them on half a dozen of them moved off to the hills and were fired upon by the cavalry, who killed three and caused the rest to surrender. If to the natural difficulties of pursuit is added treachery or indifference on the part of Indian allies, no wonder that success is hard to achieve. One consolation for Lieut. Davis's disappointment is found in the fact that Chato, the chief of scouts, was among those killed. He was a leader in previous outbreaks, and it was his camp that Gen. Crook captured in the Sierra Madre. With Chief Nana and Chitto dead and Geronimo wounded, the border already feels a little safer.

STATE NEWS.
 There are over 130 quartz ledges located in the Pine creek mining district. Bartlett pears are being shipped by the carload to the Chicago markets from Salem and Portland for the first time.
 The fall meeting of the Baker county agricultural society will convene at Baker City Oct. 6th and continue five days.
 There are thirty five carpenters at work on the locks at Oregon City, pushing repairs with all possible dispatch.
 The exhibition car will be at the different county and state fairs until Oct. 20th when it will be taken to New Orleans.
 Prof. Le Count, geological instructor at the Berkeley University, of California, has been out on a geological survey to Crater Lake.
 Dr. Marchand, of Baker City, has made thirty different assays of quartz from new mines on Pine creek, and which run from $27 to $2460 gold per ton.
 Mrs. A. L. Humphrey who recently died in Eugene city, besides other charitable bequests left $2,500 to the Missionary society of the M. E. Church of New York.
 At the Empire Bar claim on Klamath river, they have struck it rich. Dr. Ream informs us that they have struck gravel that pays from $3 to $4 to the pan. - Union.
 About twenty-five miles from Baker City, the discovery has been made of a running coal spring, by A. A. Miller who has been for some time prospecting the mountains in search of precious metals.
 The St. Paul Press says: "Washington Territory wheat promises to be a feature in the markets of the East this season. The Northern Pacific is making preparations to bring the bulk of it to Duluth."
 Wm. McCormick claims to have invented a tug boat that will make the Columbia river from The Dalles down as free as the locks under the most favorable circumstances will have it in ten years from the present time.
 E. Turner, a farmer at Grant's Pass, has thirty acres of broom corn set this year. He sent a splendid specimen to the immigration, board, and he expects to dispose of the entire crop to the Portland broom factory.
 H. S. Jory, of Salem, will have a fruit dryer in operation at the Mechanics' fair for which preparations are being made. A flue will be built for the smokestack of the machine through the roof of machinery hall, and the art of fruit-drying will be fully explained. - Standard.
 Edward J. Dawne took his oath of office Aug. 21 as Judge of the Territory of Alaska, and will at once proceed to that country. His salary is $2,500 a year, and as there is but little temptation to spend money there, he will probably save $2,000 each year of his official existence.
 The O. & C. R. R. now lays claim to so much of the forfeited Astoria land grant as comes within the limit of its grant made in 1870. Receiver Koehler has obtained a temporary injunction restraining the register of the land office at Oregon City from allowing any homestead settlements being made until the matter is decided.
 The immigration to Oregon and Washington is by far the largest ever known at this season of the year. An average of sixty persons arrive in Portland daily over the railroads, and the arrivals by steamer aggregate at least 400 per week, besides the wagon trains arriving every day in the eastern and southern parts of the state.
 On August 15th, Jack Ward, formerly riding boss on the Oregon & California extension, was killed while working in tunnel No. 1 on the Cascade division of the Northern Pacific railroad, by the caving in of the eastern end of the tunnel. He is well known among railroad men, having been with J. B. Harris for several years.
 Among the more popular resorts in Southern Oregon, Crater lake takes the lead. This lake is represented as being above the headwaters of Rogue river, some eighty miles from Jacksonville by wagon. The lake is oval, six miles by three, with an island near the middle; the surface of the water is some 2000 feet below the surrounding country, and the report is that soundings 1800 feet do not touch bottom. The falls on Rogue river and the scenery in the vicinity are grand and game appears to abound.
 The arrival of C. D. Shackelford, the government's special agent, to examine into the Oregon swamp lands, will open up this question anew. The state will now appoint an agent to assist Mr. Shackelford in the investigation, and they will work jointly. The state's agent has not yet been appointed. The last legislature appointed a committee to investigate the status of the swamp land question, but the committee never reported, whether for want of time or otherwise was never disclosed to the august body. The report that was drafted by that committee's clerk, who received $5 per day for forty days out of the state funds, now sleeps quietly in a certain honorable gentleman's hands.
