

ROSEBURG REVIEW.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1885.

STATE FAIR.

The second day was a continuation of the favorable weather of the first and the arrival of people, the completion of entries and appointment of judges. Every thing is now under full head way and the managers seem happy.

Those in charge of exhibits are rapidly completing their arrangements, and by their courtesy are shown through each department and made to see the brightest side of every thing.

Last week we mentioned the floral and cereal exhibits. The art department is tastefully arranged, and represented by Abell of Portland with a large collection of photographs and views, and many nice paintings by Salem local talent.

Fancy work is displayed, but all your correspondent can say in regard to it is that it looked very nice, and beautiful. The Oregon memorial stone for the Washington monument is here under charge of its manufacturer Mr. F. Wood of Allany. Mr. Wood is now enroute to Washington with this stone, and will himself place it in the space reserved for it.

Among other exhibits is a fine display oil manufactured by G. W. Gray and Sons of Salem.

The machinery hall is rather bare. Portland dealers in machinery engaged all the available space and then made an agreement not to place any on exhibition. They were no doubt working in the interest of Portland, but we fail to see wherein they will derive any benefit.

A very credible display of buggies was made by C. W. Bowie and Scriber and Poble of Salem. And the fruit dryer of H. S. Jory and Son is certainly the best, and most convenient we have ever seen.

Among the stock little attention seems to have been paid to draught horses, we regret. The cattle exhibit was fine. Mr. Jas Richards had no competitors in the Durham stock.

The Aberdeen and Jersey cattle attracted considerable attention, and the best of each stock was ornamented with blue and red ribbons.

The poultry of S. W. Graves, of Seio, was probably the finest displayed in an Oregon fair. There were all sizes from the large, strutting turkey gobblers down to chickens not much bigger than the Review Editor's fat.

On Wednesday at 10 A. M. Col. T. S. Lang of The Dalles delivered the annual address, which was an excellent production. In the afternoon the weather clouded up and most of the afternoon and night it rained very hard. It was indeed amusing to see the ladies in lawn dresses without wraps facing the rain and driving wind, trying to protect their feathers in preference to anything else.

Thursday morning the sun again made its appearance dispelling the clouds and the remainder of the week was fair and pleasant.

At 10 A. M. Friday the parade of premium horses and cattle took place and attracted considerable comment. The band contest advertised for Wednesday did not take place. But one regularly organized band entered, the H. A. C. Band of Salem. When it was known that no other band would enter, a new band was organized in Salem under the name of Hail Columbia Band, to contest and carry off second money, but the Board of Directors ruled them out of the contest.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Wm. Galloway of Yamhill. Vice Presidents C. P. Barkhart of Linn, and A. Laulling of Clackamas. The member from Douglas is Jas. Richards.

Taken altogether we think this one of the most successful State fairs Oregon has ever had, and demonstrates the wisdom of our Legislature in having the State give assistance.

Saratoga, Sept. 25.—The chairman called the democratic convention to order. At noon the committee on resolutions announced themselves ready to present their report. Before the report was read the chairman asked unanimous consent for the presentation of a special resolution. It was granted, and Gen. Roger A. Prior, who was on the platform, was recognized by the chair. He said: "I have the honor to submit the following resolutions for acceptance by this convention."

Resolved, That with profound sorrow the democracy of the state of New York lament the death of that inflexible patriot and invincible soldier, Ulysses S. Grant (Applause) of whose illustrious career they recognize the fitting crown and consummation in his dying invocation of peace and good will between the heroes he led and the heroes he conquered. (Applause).

The resolution was unanimously adopted, every delegate rising to his feet.

Gov. David B. Hill was re-nominated for Governor.

Evolution Set Back.

That the modern theory of evolution is not the true hypothesis by which to account for the differentiation of the lower protoplasmic life into the higher order of sentient being, is evidenced by no less a personage than Sir William Thompson one of the greatest living Physicists of the age. This is what he said in a recent address:—"That man could be thus evolved out of the inferior animals he looked upon as the wildest dream of materialism—a pure assumption, which offended alike by its folly and its arrogance."

ENGLISH SETTLEMENT NEWS.

Crops rather high this season. Frost has visited us a few times. Miss Louisa Rice is paying this settlement a visit.

Mr. Vauce Baffington has taken a drove of horses to Washington Territory.

Mr. Charles Hall and wife, of Oakland, paid this place a short visit last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morian and Mrs. Dodge is paying this place a short visit. Come again.

The Sunday school is prospering, under the management of Mr. Wm. Gossett, the superintendent.

Quite a number of young folks will attend school in Oakland this winter, under the management of Prof. Russell.

Mr. Harry Whitaker, of Eastern Oregon, returned home taking some fine horses, Mr. Thos. Harvey helping him drive them.

Miss Mary Harness has returned from Rice settlement where she has been visiting friends and relatives. Her return makes some of our young men very happy.

Mr. Geo. Hall and Jas. Medley with Master Robert have returned from the fair. We did not expect to see Mr. Medley back again, however we were pleasantly surprised.

Mr. Lane is very busy at work on his new saw mill on Halls creek, and will soon have it in running order. This will be a great convenience for the farmers near, and serves to be liberally patronized. JACK.

Elk Head Loin.

Candy pullings are on the rage. Give that Oakland correspondent plenty of space, his articles on Public schools are good and has the right ring.

An ex-county official is credited with saying "that any body can go to Arizona or California that wants to, but he was going to Joe Garroutes. Why?

Bachelors are as scarce as hen teeth here while we can boast of plenty of pretty girls who are willing to do somebody's "washing and ironing," and be somebody's darling.

Mr. Wm. Belts of Perrydale still lingers in our mind and from his fragrant visits to a certain cottage on Stumpstreet we think he means to carry away with him one of the "shoe string belles."

Miss Ella Woodson one of the pupils of our public school will be an applicant for a teachers certificate. From our knowledge of her qualifications we have no hesitation in saying she will pass a creditable examination.

Mr. Lane has brought his bride home and thereby fulfilled our predictions made some time ago, although we hankered after a large slice of cake we were doomed to disappointment, but never the less we wish them "joy" and all the good things of this earth. May they never be balked or bogged in the fruitions of their fondest hopes. Who's next? XERXES.

Some good friend of Gov. Moody should tell him a little anecdote about Gen. Geo. B. McClallen. The people like a man who acts once in a while and it is the governors duty to settle whether he is going to appoint a senator or call an extra session, and do it at once. Nothing is ever made by delay and the Governor is but gathering larger clouds for a storm every day.

The people in our form of government have some rights and know them. They would count a $30,000 partisan senator an outrage and be justified in so doing.

A droll story about Charles Dickens states that the novelist was prevailed upon once to assist at a spiritualistic seance. When the opportunity was afforded, Mr. Dickens respectfully asked that the spirit of Lindley Murray, the classic grammarian, be in attendance. A ghastly manifestation did, sure enough, presently become visible in a corner of the apartment. "Are you Lindley Murray?" asked Mr. Dickens. A deep bass voice solemnly responded, "I are."

That was a good hit, says the Atlanta Constitution, made in the House of Representatives a day or two since. The Rev. Dr. Foston moved that $500 each be appropriated for life-sized portraits of the eminent Baptist, Rev. Jesse Mercer, and the equally eminent Methodist, the late Bishop Pierce. Mr. Arnheim, who is a devoted Jew, immediately arose and moved that $25 be appropriated to secure a cheap picture of Moses.

THE AMOUNT of petroleum obtained from California wells has been steadily increasing for the past five years. In 1879, 19,858 barrels were produced and in 1884 more than 100,000 barrels, thus quadrupling the yield in the space of five years. California now ranks third among the petroleum-producing states; New York is second; West Virginia, fourth.

SOUTHERN OREGON will receive a large immigration the coming year. A large share should be attracted to Douglas county. The Review will be pleased to receive articles bearing upon the important question of immigration, how to get it and how to retain it. Our country should be thoroughly advertised.

ON MONDAY next the State election in Ohio occurs. The campaign has been a short, active and spirited one and the chances are about even. Hooply the Democratic nominee for re-election has made some very able and patriotic speeches and will receive the united vote of the party.

When in the Wrong Channel.

The bile breaks previous injury. Headaches, constipation, pain in the liver and stomach jaundice, nausea ensue. A few doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will reform these evils and prevent further injury. It is a pleasant aperient, its action upon the bowels being unaccompanied by griping. The liver is both regulated and stimulated by it, and as it is very impoitic to disregard disorder of that organ, which through neglect may emanate in dangerous congestion and hepatic abscess, the Bitters should be resorted to at an early stage. Failure to do this renders a contest with the malady more protracted. Fever and ague, rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles, are remedied by this fine medicine, and the infirmities of age mitigated by it. It may be also used in convalescence with advantage, as it hastens the restoration of vigor.

S. F. Flood is duly authorized to transact all business concerning the ROSEBURG REVIEW. J. R. N. BELT.

NEW THIS WEEK.

Pipe Line on the Desert.

The English army is engaged in constructing a water pipe line from Suakin on the Red Sea, 260 miles across the desert to Berber on the river Nile. This is a long conduit. Its progress will be watched by cabinets and it will be discussed at presidencies around the world. But were the bottles of Castoria used last year placed end to end, they would form an inch and a half pipe line of health syrup 3,000 miles long, or extending from its reservoir in New York, to San Francisco. Yet the Contents of this Castoria line are sucked dry yearly and by children alone. Such an illustration helps to convey an idea of the popularity and the immense trade in this wonderful preparation which silently filters into so many homes. Mothers whose days are made wearisome by children out of sorts, and whose days are made wearisome by children out of sorts, and whose nights are angelic vigil over sick beds, have learned the value of a remedy which promptly brings health and rest. To them Castoria in the house is of equal importance to that of water to the soldier on the desert.

FOUNTAIN LAMP.

The top of the fountain is so constructed as to hold any small quantity of oil that might accidentally run over, thereby preventing damage to furniture, carpets, etc.

The brilliant and steady light! Produced by these lamps because of the perfect combustion, the main principle being double draft, the outer air tube giving abundant supply of oxygen, which is necessary to insure perfect combustion and thereby burning all odorous and poisonous matter which escapes in other lamps and the inner or "screener" at tubes steadying the flame and preventing its coming in contact with the chimney.
