WASHINGTON.

News of the Week From Our Regular Correspondent at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, June 19, 1891.
EDITOR OREGON SCOUT.—

Mr. Harrison has recognized the Labor organizations by appointing Mr.
H. J. Schulties, of the District of Columbia, who is prominently connected with the Federation of Labor, an additional member of the immigration commission provided for by the last congress, the duties of which will be to proceed to Europe for the purpose of investigating immigration. The appointment of Mr. Schulties may also be considered as a semi-official recognition of the people's party recently formed at Cincinnati, as he was by that convention named as one of the District of Columbia representatives on the national committee of the new party.

Ex-Congressman Grosvenor, of Ohio, who was originally appointed chairman of the immigration commission, and whose ill-considered criticism of foreign born American citizens raised such a row a few weeks ago, wired his resignation to Secretary Foster and it was promptly accepted. It was such a relief to Secretary Foster and Mr. Harrison that they rewarded him for sending it in by making him a special World's Fair commissioner, a position that pays precisely the same and which also includes an allowance for a trip to Europe. There are people malicious enough to say that Grosvenor would not have resigned if he had not been promised the other place beforehand.

Office seekers are always an unmitigated nuisance to those whom they suppose to be possessed of influence with the appointing powers, and a striking instance of how they make life a torture for the friends of an estimable old gentleman whose goodness of heart prevented his snubbing the whole tribe as they deserved to be instead of worrying himself sick in trying to get them appointments or promotions, as the case might be, has just come to light here. The persecuted old gentleman in this case is no less a personage than President Harrison's father-in-law, Rev. Dr. Scott, who has for some months been an honored inmate of the White House, but who has now gone on an indefinite visit to his son who resides away out on the Pacific coast. Dr. Scott is now in his eighty-third year, and it seems a shame that he should have to be sent across the continent to get him away from the persistent office-seekers, but there is little doubt that such is the fact.
He did not resent this persecution; on the contrary he seemed to like it, and his only worry was that the heads of departments would not make the appointments and promotions which he was constantly asking for and even insisting upon. It was only recently that President and Mrs. Harrison became aware of the number and persistency of Dr. Scott's calls upon the heads of the departments in behalf of some one who had convinced him by some plausible story that they were deserving of receiving an appointment, and it was extremely mortifying to them both. Persuasion failing to stop him, he was sent on this visit.

Verily the way of the political organ is a hard one. The backers of the National Democrat have become tired of throwing good money down a "rat" hole, and unless a purchaser for the paper can be found it will probably soon suspend.

There are lots of rumors, some of them highly sensational, as to why Secretary Foster did not attend the Ohio convention, after having announced his intention to do so, and what makes it look still queerer is that he did go to Ohio yesterday, the day after the convention had adjourned.
Important public business is given out as the cause of his not getting away in time to attend the convention, but somebody nobody believes that to have been the real cause.

Secretary Noble, who has returned to his duties, says he has no intention of retiring from the cabinet. He certainly ought to know.

It is now stated with much positive-ness that Gen. Kaum is to continue at the head of the pension office.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison left town yesterday with their grandchildren for their seaside cottage. Mr. Harrison will spend as much time with them as possible during the next two months.

Crop Weather, Bulletin No. 16.

The observer of the Oregon Weather Bureau, of Portland, Oregon, has issued the bulletin for the week ending Saturday, June 27, 1891, the same being based upon reports received from 147 correspondents, which is as follows:

WESTERN OREGON.

Weather.—The weather has continued cloudy and cool, and general showers have prevailed, especially in the fore part of the week. While the rainfall the present month has been unusually heavy, yet in June 1888 more rain fell at most stations. About one inch of rain fell the past week in the Willamette valley and about one-half an inch fell in Southern Oregon.

Crops.—The fall wheat has had wonderful growth and is reported very high. Wheat seven feet high is reported from Yamhill county. There has been no rust so far, though in places it is very heavy and has lodged somewhat. Spring wheat has a good stand and will yield remarkably well.
Warmth and sunshine are needed to ripen the wheat and to prevent rust and further lodging. Clover has been, to some extent, damaged. Hay is all ready to cut, but the wet weather has greatly retarded it. Strawberries and cherries have rotted considerably, owing to cool, wet weather. Hop growers hope that the wet weather will help kill the hop lice. The cool nights have prevented the flights of the codlin moth and they are less apparent than usual. Corn is doing well, but like all vegetation needs more sunshine and warmer weather. Western Oregon prospects were never better at this season of the year, than at present, for a most bountiful harvest.

EASTERN OREGON.

Weather.—The weather has continued cool and partly cloudy, and general rains have fallen, with snow on the higher elevations south of the Blue mountains. The total rainfall this month has been in excess, at most places, of any previous record.

Crops.—The rains have been most beneficial to the growing wheat, other cereals, corn, fruit and garden products, also to the hay and stock feed.
All vegetation has a brighter prospect for a good harvest than for many previous years. Summer fallow wheat will yield enormously. Spring and volunteer wheat will be good crops except in some few sections where it was burnt in May. Fruit is thriving and doing well, but needs warmer weather.
Oregon as a whole has been carefully estimated and conclusions made that the present prospects indicate at least one million more bushels of wheat this year than last.

Observer, U. S. Weather Bureau.

STARKY STRIKES.

STARKY, Oregon, June 25, 1891.
Still she rains.
Plenty of mud and grass.

Where is the man who predicted a dry summer?

The rye in this paradise of ours is in full bloom and the click of the mower will soon be heard in the land.

Mr. J. F. Alden, formerly of this place, but late of Hilgard, has become tired of sine blessedness and taken unto himself a wife. Frank, we wish you good luck with your chance in life's lottery as we still go plodding along in single harness.

Another special school meeting was called on last Saturday for the purpose of voting a tax to repair the school house and also purchase new desks for the same, as the old ones were not considered good enough. The meeting was called to order by chairman G. F. Dunn. After an eloquent debate both for and against, a vote was taken which ended in a defeat of the tax to the tune of 17 to 4. It was then decided to try and raise the necessary funds by subscription, this being the way in which the school house was built. We think it is the duty of everyone (old stags included) to be liberal in this undertaking. Although the majority of our citizens are taking a lively interest in our school, it is the wish of many that this will be the last meeting for 1891, as we have had three already.

FROM ANTELOPE.

Brief Personal Mention Epitome of the Happenings of the Past Week.

ANTELOPE, June 27, 1891.
Hurray for the Fourth of July!

Mr. Wm. Cusick has a fine garden this summer.
The Huffman boys, George and Marshall, are hauling hay to town where they find a ready market for it.
The late rains have soaked the ground so thoroughly that Mr. Wm.
Claus has been breaking sod the last week.

Mr. William Clark is confined to his bed badly injured by a tree falling on him while at work in the Johnson mountain.

The hills are commencing to take on their new coat of green. There will soon be splendid feed on the mountains.

Mr. Titus, of Raymo flat, is the happy father of a pair of twins, a boy and girl. Mother and babies all doing fine. Bully for him.

The school term is drawing to a close at Telocaset. I believe the people of that district are about to hire the teacher to continue on with the school, which speaks volumes for her ability as a teacher.

A bridge outfit, consisting of several cars, is side tracked at Telocaset.
They are employed there in taking down the old wind mill on the water tank. The Union Pacific will erect a new self-regulating mill and also an engine to pump water.

Mr. John W. Lee's new wind mill works to a charm and irrigates his garden nicely. He now has two men at work sinking a well on the mountain side in his pasture, and if successful in finding plenty of water, will erect another mill or lead the water down in pipes.

The white winter barley sown on the farms in Antelope last fall for the first time, as an experiment, did not winter kill. It now looks fine. This has been an unusually dry, cold, backward spring and fall sown grain did not grow as fast as in ordinary spring weather. I believe it is the grain for the dry warm lands of Antelope.

I see by the papers that the fruit canneries down in Webfoot cannot supply the trade in canned gooseberries. What a pity there is no fruit cannery at Union. But there will be some day. Hundreds of tons of the luscious fruit annually go to waste in Eastern Oregon for want of a cannery.
We can beat the world raising gooseberries. There is a fortune for the man that invents a machine for gathering gooseberries and another fortune for the man that establishes a fruit cannery in Union.

I noticed an item in the Republican last week advising correspondents to avoid all personal wrangles—"remember they are of no interest to the people generally"—which is very good advice. But great Caesar's ghost! It sounds strange to hear such advice from one of Union county's editors. It is a flagrant case of the pot calling the kettle black. How can the editors of the Union county newspapers blame their correspondents for engaging now and then in a personal wrangle—but perhaps they give their correspondents the credit of possessing more sense than themselves—when week after week their papers, to the soul affliction of a long suffering public, are filled with the personal wrangles of the editors. The last week or two the county papers have been quite decent, but it is only the calm that precedes a storm.
The public will be agreeably surprised and delighted if in less than thirty days the editors of the Union county papers are not inflicting their personal wrangles on the people—calling one another liars, and saying you don't write your leaders yourself, or that you peddled salt and soap once upon a time, and wear a No. 5 hat, and have another lie nailed, etc., to the great edification of the rising generation. Don't be hypocrites, ye editors.
Practice what you preach, and remember the people think that the editors should set the example and avoid all personal wrangles. Remember they are of no interest to the people generally. Give us the news and plenty of it, and give us a rest on the wrangle crase. Ta ta.
H.

Don't forget to call at Tax Scout office if you are in need of job printing of any kind.
