

B. CHANCEY, Publisher, Union, Or.

PACIFIC COAST.

A Minister Convicted of Smuggling Opium.

CHIPMAN APPOINTED CHIEF.

The Anti-Sunday Saloon People at Tacoma Succeeded in Obtaining a Conviction.

There is a slack in the salmon catch in the Columbia.

Spokane has voted to issue $1,200,000 for public improvements.

The Northern Pacific will build coal bunkers at Tacoma that will cost $30,000.

Freightmen think the total potato shipments from Southern California will reach 18,000 carloads.

The disaffected Indians on the Banning reservation have chosen William Williams, a full-blooded Indian, as chief.

A Sacramento firm has got the contract for the new public building at the State Capital. It will be of limestone. The bid was $115,000.

General Chipman's appointment to be Chief of the Horticultural Department at the Chicago Fair gives great satisfaction all over Northern California.

The World's Fair Committee of the San Diego County Chamber of Commerce has adopted definite plans for a grand exhibit of growing citrus and deciduous fruit trees at Chicago.

The Portland Distillery and Cattle Feeding Company is building a distillery a few miles east of Portland on the line of the Union Pacific. It will have a capacity of 1,000 bushels of grain a day.

The anti-Sunday saloon people at Tacoma have succeeded in obtaining a conviction, and saloons and gambling houses will hereafter be closed on Sundays. The saloon people have appealed the case.

The Bradstreet mercantile agency reported twenty-two failures in the Pacific Coast States and Territories for the past week, as compared with ten for the previous week and nine for the corresponding week of 1890.

Four new wells are now being drilled in the Newhall oil fields in Los Angeles county, and several more will soon be commenced. The product of the Newhall section is now 900 barrels a day, and is steadily increasing.

The Los Angeles City Council has passed a sweeping retrenchment ordinance, abolishing several offices and reducing the salaries of many others. The total annual saving by this ordinance is estimated at about $45,000.

An unusually large amount of wild oats is growing in Southern Oregon this year, owing to the late, wet spring. In consequence the grain crop will not be as large as at first expected, while the yield of hay will be correspondingly heavier.

Elder Gerrard, a Presbyterian divine, who was detected at Port Townsend in smuggling opium in a flower-pot containing a large geranium, has been convicted of the offense by the United States Court. The flower-pot held nineteen cans of prepared opium.

The banks of Los Angeles pay on an average taxes on about $500 worth of property, and the City Assessor is determined that they shall pay something like a fair proportion of the law's exactions, and has prepared a series of questions to be asked the cashiers.

The Sunset Irrigation district has voted $2,000,000 of bonds for the construction of canals by which to lead water to lands on the west side of the San Joaquin river. It is calculated that the canal will open up to cultivation 400,000 acres of land, which now is nearly valueless.

The Oregon Board of Charities has been in session during the past week. Rev. Cline, Messrs. Cohen and Strang have been investigating the prison, and Rev. White, Dr. Holt and Carle went through the asylum, and reported verbally. It is understood that both visits were satisfactory.

Two members of the Death Valley scientist expedition report having seen the trail of a man and horse, who seemed to be lost. The man was evidently seeking water, and as one point left the trail within a few hundred yards of what he sought. There is no doubt that death overtook the man.

It is said at Tacoma that the Northern Pacific Railroad Company now owns the Seattle and Northern railway, extending from Hamilton on the Skagit river through Sedro to Anacortes, a distance of about thirty-eight miles, the most productive farming districts in the State, and at Hamilton the road strikes the rich Skagit river mining district.

S. J. Fleming, the Methodist minister who was sentenced at Los Angeles to three years at hard labor for a criminal assault, and who is confined in the county jail awaiting the ruling on the motion admitting him to bail pending the decision of his appeal to the Supreme Court, has become a raving maniac, having a succession of violent fits. Doctors say his case is dangerous and that the suspense is killing him. It is generally considered that the sentence passed upon Fleming was severe.

Within a month California's much-talked-of naval reserve will be established. At the last session of the Legislature a bill was passed creating a naval reserve, an auxiliary to the National Guard. It has been ascertained that Adjutant-General Allen had received a reply to a letter written to the naval authorities for information concerning the plans for its creation. It has been decided to have a battalion of four companies. Each company will number about eighty men, so that the total strength on the reserve will be 320 men.

Assistant Secretary Nettleton Directs the Return of a Pauper Immigrant.

The President has recognized Vladimir Artzimevitch as Consul of Russia at San Francisco, and J. O'Connor, Consul of Belgium, at Portland for Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

Commissioner Carter of the general land office has issued an order directing the survey of Forts Sisseton and Maginnis (abandoned military reservations) for the purpose of throwing the land open to settlement.

Secretary Proctor has prepared a statement showing the desertions from the army are less now than at any time since the war closed. The desertions for May are less than half what they were for several years past, and the ratio of the decrease is constantly increasing.

Secretary Foster has received a dispatch from General Grosvenor, Chairman of the Immigration Commission to visit Europe, stating that, fearing the assaults upon him or misrepresentations will impair, if not destroy, his usefulness in the commission, he tenders his resignation. He cannot afford to hold office to the injury of the party. It is understood that Secretary Foster will appoint General Grosvenor to another position of equal responsibility.

Assistant Secretary Nettleton has directed the return to Regan, Bavaria, of John Brame, a pauper immigrant, who arrived in this country on the steamer Elder January 15. It is shown that Brame was not apprehended on his arrival, but made his way to Milwaukee, Wis., where he became a public charge. It is further shown that Brame was a public charge in the city of Regan for five years prior to his departure for this country, and that his passage was paid by the local authorities at Regan.

Acting Secretary Wharton and the Chinese Minister held a lengthy interview regarding the case of Blair, appointed Minister to the Celestial Empire soon after the adjournment of the last Congress. After the interview Wharton said the Chinese government had not receded from its position regarding Blair and would prefer some one else should be appointed United States Minister to that country. "It is clearly evident," continued Wharton, "the Chinese do not want Mr. Blair, and the United States cannot force a Minister upon a friendly power in the face of unmistakable opposition."

Secretary Foster has telegraphed Captain Hooper, commanding the revenue steamer Corwin, at San Francisco to proceed with all possible dispatch to the Pribiloff Islands with copies of the President's proclamation for distribution to interested parties, commanders of all United States and British war or revenue vessels, and then proceed to enforce the provisions of the proclamation. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Soley said that the United States men-of-war Thetis, Alert and Mohican would sail immediately for the sealing waters to prevent the further catching of seals this season as agreed upon by the United States and Great Britain.

CABLEGRAMS.

Chinese Government Will Give Satisfaction to the Powers

Baring Bros. liquidators report a balance of $8,750,000.

The Irish land purchase bill has passed to the third reading in the British House of Commons.

The Chinese government has decided to give satisfaction to the powers affected by the riots at Wuhu.

Cold weather has put back the Egyptian cotton crop, and the appearance of locusts causes uneasiness.

There is danger of a financial crisis in Morocco. The price of slave girls has fallen from £24 to £12 each.

The Chinese Emperor's edict orders beheading of all persons implicated in the recent riots and massacres.

The religious conferences of various denominations in England are memorializing the Prince of Wales to abstain from further gambling.

The Upper House of the Prussian Diet has passed a bill restoring to the Roman Catholic dioceses the funds seized at the time of the kulturkampf.

Mrs. Grimwood, the heroine of the Manipur massacre in India, is to receive from Queen Victoria the Victoria Cross in addition to the Red Cross.

Goddard Clarke, the jurymen who questioned the Prince of Wales so sharply, is a Fellow of the Royal Statistical Society. He is likewise a fellow of infinite audacity.

The London Speaker predicts very great prosperity in the United States because of its large crops. It predicts inconceivably large exports of gold from Europe to America in the autumn.

British land values keep declining. The splendid Dunalastair estates in Perthshire have just been sold for £130,000, £135,000 having been paid for them in 1885 and very costly improvements having been added since.

There is an unconfirmed rumor in London that Lord Brooke, son of the Earl of Warwick, has filed a petition for divorce from the Prince of Wales being charged as co-respondent.

The last census of Ireland shows that the Roman Catholics number 3,549,745, a decrease of 411,146 during the last decade. The Protestant Episcopalians number 630,830, a decrease of 38,744; the Presbyterians 446,087, a decrease of 24,047, and the Methodists 55,235, an increase of 6,396.

The game of baccarat was not the first game of cards that has brought disaster to the fortunes of the Gordon-Cumming family. The present Baronet's grand-mother had a weakness for what that led her to play for stakes as high as $5,000 a point. In one night during a run of ill luck she is said to have lost thirty-two points, and her husband was compelled to part with a large property to settle the debt.

The Chinese government has issued a stringent decree against immoral literature. It is ordered that "all government officials who allow immoral books to be published within their respective jurisdictions shall be discharged. Every private person publishing such a book shall receive 100 blows, and shall be banished from his place of residence to a distance of 3,000 li. The seller of an obscene book shall get 100 blows. Within thirty days of the issue of this law all obscene books of the Empire shall be destroyed, beginning with those now in print."

A New Explosive to be Tested by Experts.

REV. SAM SMALL DROPPED.

An Attempt to Amend the Compulsory Education Bill of Illinois Has Failed.

The Odd Fellows are to build a $100,000 temple at Chicago.

The anti-trust law in Iowa proves to be inadequate to accomplish the purpose desired.

Ordnance experts are to test a new explosive manufactured in Virginia and called Americanite.

Milwaukee liquor dealers are to build a distillery of their own, so as to be free from whisky-trust exactions.

H. C. Bile of Los Angeles has been engaged as Professor of Greek at Blackburn University, located at Carlinville, Ill.

Bank Examiner Drew at Philadelphia has been suspended pending a complete investigation of the matters now under inquiry.

Amour, Morris and Swift are to establish stock yards at Tolleston, Ind., where their packing houses are to be established.

The World's Fair Association of Commercial Travelers has been formed at Chicago. Foreign drummers will be asked to join.

The appropriation for completing the work of the last census is running low, and an army of clerks will be dismissed, delaying the work.

The whole audience at the Princeton commencement cheered Dr. McCosh as he entered the church where the exercises were being held.

One of the railway tunnels under the Hudson, connecting New York city with the Jersey shore at Hoboken, will be finished in about six months.

Comptroller of the Currency Lacey has made his report relative to the downfall of the Keystone Bank of Philadelphia. It contains about 9,000 words.

Crowds are still calling upon the priest physician, Rev. Father Mollinger, at Pittsburg. No cures of a miraculous nature have been reported lately.

It is now announced that the Kentucky log cabin in which Abraham Lincoln's parents were married has been secured for exhibition at the World's Fair.

Idlers and criminals are, it is said, sent to Canada from England, and from there they come across the border into the United States in violation of the immigration laws.

The International Typographical Union in convention at Boston has refused to admit women compositors into local unions on an equal footing, wages, etc., with men.

The Indians in the Lower Brush reservation in South Dakota are much opposed to their removal. The agency is to be removed to a point nearly opposite the Crow Creek agency.

The attempt to amend the compulsory education bill of Illinois has failed. Before the Legislature adjourned a bill was passed granting women the right of suffrage in school elections.

D. C. Knight, a former Director of the Nicaragua canal, charges the Nicaragua Canal Construction Company with gross extravagance. Counsel for the company declares the charges false.

The strike of ore handlers at Ashtabula, O., threatens to become serious, and the calling out of the militia to protect those who are desirous of returning to work is being considered.

The total gross exchanges of the principal cities of the United States and Canada for the past week were $990,241,300; decrease, 20.1 per cent. as compared with the same week last year.

The following officers of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas have been elected: President, H. C. Cross; Vice-President, J. Waldo; Treasurer, J. F. Neville; Chairman of the Board of Directors, Joel F. Freeman.

The Colorado Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Denver has dropped from membership in the church Rev. Sam Small because of his trouble in connection with the Methodist University at Ogden, Utah.

The graduating class of sixty-five cadets at the Military Academy received their commissions as Second Lieutenants at the hands of Secretary of War Proctor, who delivered an address full of good advice to young soldiers.

Dr. Henry A. Todd, associate in Romance Languages at the John Hopkins University, has accepted the Professorship of Romance Languages in the Stanford University. He was graduated at Princeton in 1876 with honor.

The Conference Committee of the Illinois Legislature has agreed on an appropriation of $800,000 for the Illinois exhibit at the World's Fair. The Senate has adopted the report, and the House will undoubtedly do so.

The full bench of the Massachusetts Supreme Court has decided that an adopted child has all the rights to property on the death of the adopting parents that it would have if it were born to such parents in lawful wedlock.

In order to determine exact longitude of Montreal and other points the observatory at the McGill University sent by way of the Canadian Pacific Telegraph and the Commercial Cable 120 signals to Greenwich observatory. The average time of transmission over the round circuit of 8,000 miles was 1.05 seconds, the whole number ranging between 1 and 1.1 seconds.

President Patton in his closing address at Princeton announced the following gifts: $430,000, including the Commencement Hall, from Mrs. Charles Alexander to the college; $10,000 from Professor Osborne for a new athletic clubhouse; $10,000 from a woman of New York; $10,000 from Spencer Trask of New York for a course of lectures on general subjects during the year and $50,000 for a college infirmary. The college received $100,000 also from the Fayerweather estate.

The Infant King of Spain is a Restless and Precocious Little Creature.

Count D'Abraz, the French Consul at New York, has a neat little salary of $11,000 a year.

President Eliot, of Harvard, has a powerful bass voice that is noticeable in congregational singing.

Sim Reeves, the noted English tenor, who has just retired from the stage, was quite well-known as a singer over half a century ago.

Miss Hattie Blaine has gone to England. She has had letters from home assuring her that her father is in no respect seriously ill.

Senator Vilas owns 2,200 acres of land in Wood county, Wisconsin, 900 acres of which will be planted with cranberries. He may yet come to be known as the Cranberry Statesman.

Charles Dudley Warner is described, in what is perhaps meant to be a complimentary way, by a Western newspaper as "Our American flash-light photographer of social fads."

General Lew Wallace, of "Ben Hur" fame, says that he is not a candidate for the republican gubernatorial nomination in Indiana, and that he would not have it were it offered to him on a silver salver.

Herbert Spencer is not so greatly absorbed in abstract philosophy but that he can take an interest in the humane and concrete. He has joined the British Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

The $1,000 which Miss Juch was to receive for singing at the Indianapolis May festival was attached on the suit of a Montana bank last week. When the fair songstress received the news she observed, "How horrid!"

Professor Eurt Green Wilder, of Cornell university, wants to annihilate all intercollegiate sports. It is evident that the athletic side of college life was developed after the professor had his innings as an undergraduate.

The infant king of Spain is a restless and precocious little creature. He has already, though only 5 years old, outgrown his toys and yearns for live horses instead of tin ones. He speaks English quite correctly and is learning French.

The assertion that bright Irishman, T. P. O'Connor, that hereditary royalty in England is now passing through the severest ordeal it has been subjected to for generations, has some truth in it; yet it is well to remember that English royalty is a hard nut to crack.

Selectman Lounsbury, of Seymour, Conn., one of the officials in the United States Pin Company, is going to build a sidewalk of pins. He has at the pin company's shop some twenty barrels of old and imperfect pins, the accumulations of years, and these he will now utilize.

Ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed is staying at a quiet boarding house in Paris. At the request of Minister Reed, M. Floquet put his private gallery in the Chamber of Deputies at the disposal of the ex-speaker, who is seen there frequently, following debates with close attention.

The foreign ministers to Pekin who saw the emperor at the recent royal audience, carried away an agreeable impression of the Oriental sovereign. He was simply attired in silk and bore no scepter or other emblem of authority. Instead of a crown he wore a plain Chinese felt hat surmounted by a button of crimson silk. He appeared mild and somewhat melancholy, and his pale face wore an expression of great refinement and dignity.

The Russian Grand Duke Sergius is said to be profoundly devout in manners. If he happens upon an image of a sainted deity he will prostrate himself before it. If there are relics of some old ecclesiastic or by-gone generations, he will not be happy till he kisses them. If there is a shrine where pilgrims gather, there he must also worship. And the lady (almost an English princess, since the granddaughter of the queen) to whom he is married has had to learn to accommodate herself to his tastes.

CRIME AND CRIMINALS.

Geronimo, the Most Desperate Outlaw in the Southwest, Killed.

Bob Clark, a mulatto, under arrest at Bristol, Tenn., for ravishing Mrs. John Warren, was taken from jail by a mob and hanged.

Harley McCoy, convicted of shooting Inspector of Police Hawley, in Denver, last January, was sentenced at Greeley, Col., to the penitentiary for life.

Julio Merzbacher, the Spanish-American agent of the New York Life Insurance Company, is said to be a defaulter for anywhere between $300,000 and $500,000.

An Italian murderer of Camden, N. J., pleaded guilty to murder, his counsel saying that after the New Orleans lynching his client preferred to thus avoid a jury trial.

Geronimo, the most desperate outlaw in the Southwest, was killed about thirty miles from Benson, Cochise county, A. T. A reward of $3,000 had been offered for him.

John Macmillan, a well-known lawyer and a member of the Paris council, is missing. He is said to be a defaulter to the extent of $7,000. He is supposed to have gone to the United States.

In Judge Trout's court at San Francisco Chin Chuan, convicted of manslaughter, was sentenced to San Quentin for ten years. He was one of a gang of highbinders which raided Taim Fox's house of ill-fame and killed the proprietor.

J. C. Emery, a butcher, was instantly killed in Philadelphia by a blow on the neck with a cleaver in the hands of another butcher. The killing was the result of a quarrel over a trivial matter. Emery leaves a family. The murderer was arrested.

Judge Murphy, of San Francisco, denied a motion for a new trial in the case of Hong Jing, convicted of the murder of Chu Wy. The jury having fixed the penalty at life imprisonment, the court pronounced a sentence in accordance with the verdict.

The fourth trial of L. A. Powell for the killing of Editor Smith at Redwood City, Cal., has begun, but it is not believed a verdict will be obtained. The interest in the trial, owing to the lapse of time since the crime was committed, has been much reduced.

Repeated Earthquakes Occur in Italy.

HONGKONG BURIAL GROUND.

Germany is Said to be Anxious to Withdraw From Samoa Altogether—Other News.

The Czar's royal yacht, the Polar Star, cost over $5,000,000.

It is expected the eruption of Vesuvius will assume vast proportions.

The influenza continues to rage in Hamburg, and is on the increase.

The repeated earthquakes in Italy are creating panics among the people.

The Czar receives from his Siberian gold mines about $18,000,000 annually.

The increase of the population of London in the last ten years is 395,863.

Over 100 miles of country has been devastated by fire in New Brunswick.

It is again reported that Parnell will marry Mrs. O'Shea at an early date.

Fishing off the Newfoundland coast is said to be remarkably good this season.

The total wheat crop of France this year will be but little more than half the average.

Pirates in the Black Sea fired upon and killed six Russian soldiers and two officers and then made their escape.

It is said the Queen has reprimanded the Prince of Wales and exacted a promise from him to never handle cards again.

Senapathy, commander-in-chief of the Manipuri forces, has been condemned to hang for the crime of rebellion against the British.

Earth tremors, sometimes of terrifying violence, continue in the Verona district, threatening the complete destruction of the towns.

A dispatch to the Edinburgh Journal states that a divorce suit to be instituted by Lord Brooke and naming the Prince of Wales as co-respondent is imminent.

Burial ground being very scarce in Hongkong colony, the government proposes to take up and burn Chinese unclaimed dead buried for five or six years.

The famous crater of Solfatara of Hozzoli near Naples is showing signs of renewed activity. This volcano was active long before Vesuvius, but for ages has been nearly extinct.

Germany is anxious for a pretext to withdraw from Samoa altogether. The Chief Justice there says his life is endangered by conspiracies, and he is generally made miserable.

The new Russian municipal reform bill completely sweeps the municipalities out of existence. Mayors will no longer have any power. The Governors will hereafter be State officials.

Admiral Vallon of the French navy says: "Our navy is still capable of beating the allied fleets of the dreadnought. If the British navy was against us, however, we could do nothing but retreat into port."

The natives of the Cameroons, West-Africa, are reported to have cruelly tortured the German prisoners before executing them, and that many prisoners committed suicide in order to escape torture.

The Journal of Paris announces that Liquidator Monchicourt, with Chrispoble, Governor of the Credit Foncier, has arranged so that the affairs of the Panama Company shall be taken over by a group of financial houses.

The harbor authorities of Southampton, England, the great mail port, have decided to adopt electric cranes for the unloading of vessels on account of the greater rapidity with which they will enable work to be performed.

M. Eiffel, the daring civil engineer who conceived the tower in Paris which bears his name, lives up on the Jungfrau in the Swiss Alps. He has just obtained permission to build a railroad up the mountain to his very dwelling.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt has just bought by cable a large tract of land at Neuilly, a suburb of Paris, for $2,000,000, all made during her recent American tour. It is said that she will build a veritable palace after she has finished her travels.

The London Spectator prints a somewhat gloomy article on the decline in the rate of London's growth, as shown by statistics just made public. The writer sees in this fact that the empire has passed the meridian of greatness.

There are now in Moscow 15,000 persons waiting to be transported to Siberia. Five thousand are convicts, the others are their wives or children who volunteered to follow them into exile. The number has accumulated since the new year.

Great distress is in the government of Odessa, owing to poor crops and the failure of the Volga to rise. In Simbirsk the winter crops are ruined altogether, and the peasants have no grain to sow for the summer. More than half the fields lie idle.

The latest election returns in the Netherlands show that out of 100 seats composing the Second Chamber the Liberals have secured 41, the Catholics 22 and the Protestant Orthodox 11. A second ballot is necessary for the remaining twenty-six seats.

The Arabs at Yemen (Arabia Felix) have revolted and attacked the imperial troops, forcing them to retreat. The troops lost several officers and 100 men. The Grand Council at Constantinople has decided to dispatch 10,000 troops from the Syrian garrisons.

The number of cattle in Australia is estimated at 8,000,000, an increase of more than 2,500,000 in the last fifteen years. Sheep have also increased from 52,000,000 to 90,000,000. The people of England view these figures with great satisfaction, inasmuch as they indicate an increased meat supply for the mother country.

The Bishops of Ireland, finding the cost of maintaining members in Parliament a heavy parochial drain, are working to secure a return to the Commons at the next general election of wealthy candidates who will form the nucleus of a new Catholic party, and it is stated the selection of these candidates has already been commenced.

It Closes Quiet in All Its Branches, Excepting Fruits.

Strawberries came in at their usual heavy rate. Cherries are more plentiful and cheaper. Gooseberries now being received are of a better quality and cheaper. There are plenty of oranges and lemons in the market, yet prices are advancing steadily. California peaches of very fair quality are in moderate supply. Eggs are scarce. Poultry is scarce and in good demand. There was but little doing in the grocery line.

Produce, Fruit, Etc.

WHEAT—Walla Walla, $1.50; Vahey, $1.60 per cental.

FLOUR—Quote: Standard, $5.25; Walla Walla, $5.00 per barrel.

OATS—Quote: 60¢@62¢c per bushel.

HAY—Quote: $16@17 per ton.

MILKSTUFFS—Quote: Bran, $21.00; Shorts, $25.00; Ground Barley, $33.00@34.00; Chop Feed, $25@26 per ton; Barley, $1.25@1.30 per cental.

BUTTER—Quote: Oregon fancy creamery, 25¢; fancy dairy, 22¢c; fair to good, 17¢@20¢; common, 14¢; California, 22¢@24¢ per pound.

CHEESE—Quote: Oregon, 13¢@15¢; California, 12¢ per pound.

EGGS—Quote: Oregon, 22¢@25¢ per dozen; Eastern, 22¢c.

POULTRY—Quote: Old Chickens, $6; young chickens, $3.50@5.00; Ducks, $7.00@8.00; Geese, nominal; $10 per dozen; Turkeys, 15¢ per pound.

VEGETABLES—Quote: Cabbage, $1.50 per cental; Cauliflower, $1.25 per dozen; Onions, 1 1/2¢@1 3/4¢ per sack; Beets, $1.50 per sack; Turnips, $1.75 per sack; Potatoes, 60¢@70¢ per cental; New Potatoes, 1 1/2¢ per pound; Tomatoes, $2.50 per box; Asparagus, 4¢@5¢ per pound; Oregon, 10¢@15¢ per pound; Lettuce, 12¢c per dozen; Green Peas, 5¢ per pound; String Beans, 8¢ per pound; Rhubarb, 4¢ per pound; Artichokes, 40¢ per dozen; Radishes, 10¢ per dozen bunches; young Onions, 10¢ per dozen bunches; Cucumbers, 7¢c per dozen; Carrots, $1.25 per sack.

FRUITS—Quote: Los Angeles Oranges, $2.25@2.50; Riverside, $2.00@2.25; Navels, $4.50@5.50 per box; Sicily Lemons, $7@7.50; California, $4.50@5 per box; Apples, $1.00@2.50 per box; Bananas, $2.00@2.50 per bunch; Pineapples, $5.00@8.00 per dozen; Strawberries, 5¢@6¢c per pound; Cherries, $1.00@1.25 per pound; Gooseberries, 4¢@5¢ per pound; Currants, 5¢ per pound; Apricots, $2.00@2.50 per box; Raspberries, 9¢ per pound; Peaches, $2.50 per pound.