Mr. J. Bryant and grand-daughter, Miss Hendrix, of Pullman, Wash., have been in the city for several days past on a visit to relatives. Mr. Bryant is a brother of Mrs. D. B. Hiltz of this city. They took their departure for home Tuesday morning.

The coroner of Yuba county, Cal., fined a corpse $50 for carrying concealed weapons, confiscated the pistol from the deceased's pocket, and took for fees the remaining $25 of the $75 found on the remains. Bardsley might have learned a little by going west.

Pendleton is doing a whole lot of bragging about her pretty women. She cannot begin to beat Baker City and Walla Walla isn't in it at all, says the Blade. The only way to settle this vexed question is to get up a beauty contest.—E. O. Phaw! neither of your towns could hold a candle to the side of Union.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the State Agricultural college. This is one of the leading educational institutions on the northwest coast and is being well patronized. Those wishing to secure a first-class and thorough education at a reasonable figure should give the agricultural college a trial.

That sheep of Newt McClanahan's reached New's place in the fall of 1872, on July 5, a stray. A few days ago he sold to Heiler, the wool buyer here, $79.00 worth of wool and left at home 16 fleeces. In 1890 he killed 9 head, in 1891 10 head, and has on hand 35 fine mutton sheep for which he offered $3.00 per head. He has in all about 210 head what he terms stock sheep. He claims if he had taken proper care his herd would now be 300 head. Here is a thought for the young stock raiser just starting out in life.—Baker Blade.

We acknowledge receipt of the Souvenir of Centralia, Wash., published by Simpson, Baunister & Co. of the Daily News. It is a very fine edition and would be a credit to any city on the coast. It will be the means of advertising the town in which it is published, which seems to be filled with progressive and wide-awake people who are not afraid to advertise their business and town, and who show their good judgment in assisting their home paper in getting out an edition of this kind instead of patronizing some outside paper.

It is reported that the alfalfa crop in Eagle valley is almost a total loss on account of the recent rains. The hay was mowed all cut and in the shock when the rain came on, and now it is rotting in the field. The second crop is growing rapidly and the farmers are compelled to haul away the first crop and dump it any place in order to get it out of the way to give room for the growing crop which is now sprouting through the shocks. This will be a severe loss to the farmers of Eagle valley. The hay crop in other sections is not damaged so much, not being so far advanced. Haying has now commenced in this valley, and with favorable weather most of the crop will be saved.

The First Step. Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning, you are taking the first step into nervous prostration. You need a nerve tonic and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system to its normal, healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great nerve tonic and alterative. Your appetite returns, good digestion is restored, and the liver and kidneys resume healthy action. Try a bottle. Price 50c. at Brown's drug store.

Footprints of the World's History. It is a relief to pick up a new book that is at once thrilling, romantic, wholesome, pure and true. Such a work is "Footprints of the World's History," the latest and greatest work of the two celebrated historians, John Clark Ridpath and Wm. S. Bryan. These distinguished gentlemen, having won laurels by independent writings, have co-operated on this work and produced a "gem of the purest ray serene." It is not a dry, uninteresting statement of plain facts, but rather each of the most important events in history has been taken up and described by a master of language, who holds the reader entranced as he winds his way along the path of history, following carefully in the footprints of progress.

We are delighted with this superb volume. Perfect in thought, superb in style, and magnificent in execution. The bindings are sumptuous, as are also the many illustrations and colored plates. The publishers have rightly concluded that such a gem should have a rich setting.

It is a valuable addition to literature. It is a book for the old as well as the young; as well as the grave. Everybody will read it with equal eagerness and profit. It is sold only through agents, and the publishers' advertisement appears in another column.

Presbyterian Church. Preaching every Sabbath at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.; Sabbath school at 10 a. m.; Christian Endeavor Society, Tuesday at 7 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend. We urge parents to bring their children to church that they may be nurtured in morality and piety. W. J. HROUSE, Pastor.

The Ball Game.

Quite an interesting game of base ball was played in this city last Sunday between the Island City nine and the home team. Our boys proved too much for the visitors and at the close of the game the score stood 15 to 10. Some very good playing was done on both sides and the game went off very peaceably. Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen were present to witness the contest. Following is the score by innings: Union 21 1 5 4 0 2 0 4-15 Island City 1 1 0 1 3 0 0 4-10

The Union nine was composed of the following boys—Wilson, I. F.; Driver, C.; Haynes, 1st b.; Ellis, S. S.; Levy, P.; Rilze, C. F.; Warren, 3 b.; Martin, R. F.; Davis, 2 b. Island City—Whitehead, C.; Jones, P.; Garrety, 2 b.; Smith, 1st b.; Bidwell, S. S.; Gibbs, 3 b.; Huchins, R. F.; W. Caviness, C. F.; L. Caviness, I. F.

A return game will probably be played at Island City Sunday, if our boys do not conclude to go to the Cove where they have to play a return game with that club also, having been beaten here the first game. Some of our boys take a great deal of interest in base ball now and we hope to see them make a record, as the game Sunday is the first they have won in a number of years.

State Directory—Caution.

Business men may save themselves a good deal of mortification if they will be on their guard against any cheap directory scheme that demands pay in advance. That fake has been worked in the east and is always a disappointment. Either the book never comes, or is so incomplete as to be worse than none. R. L. Polk & Co. of Portland, Oregon, have been publishing biennially, since 1884, their well known Oregon, Washington & Idaho Gazetteer and Business Directory. It is a standard publication of rare merit and should receive hearty support. It is issued at $5.00, a price that insures a thoroughly accurate book, and the publishers exhibit their confidence in their work by not asking "pay in advance." People are further warned not to believe in the falsehoods of canvassers for bogus publications, who say Polk & Co. have retired from the field. They now have their next Oregon, Washington and Idaho book in active preparation, and will be here long after these piratical schemes are dead and forgotten.

Our Advantages.

We notice that many other towns are boasting of their advantages as health resorts and of the number of visitors thronging to them. This is all right, as "blow your own horn" is a good motto, and by so doing many a town is built up. Now while we do not claim that Union is the best built and liveliest town in the state, we think we can say without the fear of successful contradiction that it is the peer of any other of its size in these respects, and is pronounced by all who visit it in every way worthy the appellation "Queen City" of Eastern Oregon. With its pure cold water, dry bracing atmosphere, commodious hotels, refined and hospitable people, and many other attractions, it needs only to be visited to be acknowledged one of the best places to spend the summer, or winter either, in the entire Northwest. For health, pleasure, and solid comfort come to Union.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale at Brown's drug store.

DANGEROUS PURGATIVES.

A City Policeman's Experience. Mineral pills and drastic purgatives so irritate the mucous coatings of the stomach and bowels, that they often leave the system in worse condition than before. In fact their cathartic action is due to their irritation. The danger attending their steady use is apparent. The new laxative principle in Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla gets its cathartic action by increasing the mucous secretions and gently stimulating the stomach. It is purely vegetable, does not lose its effect, is effective and absolutely safe to be taken occasionally or continuously by the most delicate persons.

Gus Videns, the well known police officer of No. 123 Howard St., San Francisco, writes: "After my own experience I firmly believe that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla will cure the most obstinate cases of constipation. Although cured I am still taking it, and never had my system so thoroughly regulated. By increasing or diminishing the dose one has absolute command over himself with this valuable remedy."

School Meeting.

A school meeting of this district was held at the school house Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of voting on the proposition of empowering the board of directors thereof to increase the amount of indebtedness in order to erect the addition and repair the present building. It was found necessary to do this in order to raise the required amount. At a previous meeting the directors were empowered to bond the district in the sum of $15,000, of which amount they could only incur an indebtedness to the district of two-thirds—or $10,000. The contract price of the addition nearly covers this amount, and would not leave sufficient to make the proposed improvement on the old building, which will amount to $1300, hence the necessity of increasing the amount of bonds to $17,000. The proposition was carried by a vote of 19 to 6. T. H. Crawford was elected director to fill the unexpired term of J. W. Kennedy resigned.

The Mosquito.

Pretty little dappled beauty, Oh, how prettily you sing. How I love to hear your ditty As you float on gauzy wing.

How sweet the rest your song affords me—Tired? Yes. How sound I sleep—How you fear you will disturb me While you your kindly vigils keep.

Oh, how gently you alighted On my nose or on my cheek; Then in ecstasy delighted To imbibe—that's what you seek.

In my sleep I try to hit you And to crush your body fair. Did I? No, I did not get you; You elude each blow with care.

Again you sing your little sonnet While approaching close my ear; So tenderly you light upon it, Light upon it without fear.

Oh! you blasted little tory! For you praise no more I'll write. To your sing your little story Only for a chance to bite.

Yet your life's a seeming duty. Helping make this world complete By commingling things of beauty With the motives of deceit.

—H. C. EMERY.

I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted. I am now nearly ninety years old, came to Oregon in 1842 in the employ of the Hudson Bay Company, and since I began using the OREGON KIDNEY TEA I enjoy good health. DAVID MUNROE.

Miss Durbin's Greatest Success.

In the Reading to be given Friday in Union, Miss Durbin will give "Mother and Child"—a selection with which she won the gold medal in a recent contest. This selection embraces the different styles of elocution—showing the power of the human voice. Miss Durbin cut and arranged the piece from Victor Hugo's novel—"Notre Dame de Paris."

Alliance Meeting.

At the county alliance meeting held in this city yesterday the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President, C. D. Huffman, La Grande; vice-president, T. A. Marvin, Summerville; Secretary, W. A. Cates, Telocast; treasurer, Mrs. E. R. Parker, Medical Springs; steward, Clark Oliver; lecturer, R. H. Boyles; chaplain, John Bowman; doorkeeper, H. L. Daugherty; assistant doorkeeper, Mrs. W. D. Emole; business committee, Dunham Wright, Medical Springs; W. H. Huffman, Union, and H. O. Gorham, North Powder.

Reply to "A Few Questions."

EDITOR OREGON SCOUT— Will you give me leave to reply to "A Few Questions" emanating from the mind of one "Porus," of Summerville. He seems to make objections to a communication of mine found in the Chronicle. He quotes a paragraph from it which I must needs reiterate as essential to the discussion. Thus: "Science and philosophy demonstrate that the atmosphere receives its moisture and rain-clouds from the earth and seas, under proper conditions of heat and cold. And yet it is not, and never has been, capable of holding and sustaining moisture or water enough to precipitate to the earth and cover the whole mass to the top of the mountains of Ararat." Then "Porus" asks, "What does science teach in regard to the formation of the earth?" Then yankee like answers his own question by saying: "Does it not teach that the earth was once all covered with water?" Then "Porus" cites me to the 104th Psalm to show

COVE CULLINGS.

Cove, Oregon, July 15, 1891.

Why don't the Baptists finish their church?

All report a very enjoyable time while out in the mountains.

Wm. Russell has gone to work in the shop with F. Mitchell. Bill is a first-class horse shoer.

Miss Annie Smith and mother are the guests of Miss Mollie Hendershott. They expect to remain some time.

Mr. Henry Lynch has taken his band of sheep out on the Minam range. He has some 2000 head now.

Arthur Warnick, the proprietor of the Excelsior tannery, is going to move to the Cove. He will run the factory on a new basis.

Miss Grace Welch, mother, and friend, Miss Jennie Brisbin, of Pendleton, were visiting friends in Cove this week. All were pleased to see Miss Grace's smiling face.

Mr. E. P. McDaniel has taken his departure for somewhere, we cannot imagine where. His old clothes were received by express last night, but no information as regards his whereabouts.

The game of ball last Sunday was won by the second nine, the score being 25 to 21. They, the second nine, would be pleased to accept a challenge from any of the country nines.

The dance Saturday evening was a success in every way. We are pleased to state that all of the Cove boys pay for their dancing, but Union boys are not so fortunate as to have money—at least some of the duds.

The fruit up in the Cove is extra good. Load after load of berries and cherries is being shipped to various parts of the country. We understand that 500 gallons of strawberries were taken out in one day.

The Excelsior tannery has changed hands, Mr. Arthur Warnick, of La Grande, now being sole proprietor. The business will continue as before, for he will have the best of tanners and produce a large quantity of leather.

The alliance picnic was postponed on account of the rain. They will try and repeat it after awhile. Some few came, and went to the alliance hall and enjoyed a social. Some very eloquent remarks were made by J. E. Hough, T. H. B. Green, Mr. Madison and others.

MEMORIAL.

Died.—At Dayton, Wash., July 7, 1891, Minnie, daughter of Geo. and Louisa Stewart, aged 4 years and 11 months.

Never more will Minnie's fingers Gently press the window pane, With the golden sunshine falling On her dimpled cheek again. Never will her blue eyes open To the playful light of day; She has left your home forever, For the home so far away.

Never more will Minnie's laughter Cheer you in your hours of pain, And when you have grown weary, You shall seek her smile in vain. Never more will lilies blossom, Pure and spotless by your side, As they blossomed when you were happy, Ere your darling you loved had died.

Never more will Minnie linger For your kiss of love so sweet, And the future ne'er will bring you The soft patter of her feet. There is not one chord of music On your lonely hearts today, While the violets are blooming O'er your darling gone away.

Never more will Minnie's fingers Press the dimpled cheek so fair. Never will the sunbeams quiver As they kiss your darling's hair. She was frail, your earthly treasure, Lent you for a summer hour, And in all her spotless beauty She is now an angel flower.

me 'hat the Bible and science do not disagree. I can see but very little in that Psalm that corroborates science, or analogizes a co-relation to science, but rather conflicts with the direct and known principles of science. The 5th verse reads: "Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains." A natural phenomenon which I presume "Porus" has beheld more than once, when a storm cloud loomed above a mountain and enveloped its top. The 7th verse reads: "At thy rebuke they fled: at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away." Another natural phenomenon, when by the concentrated forces of the electric batteries with their reverberating jars of thunder the air was forced to let go of its over-weighted load of water, which left the previous surcharged atmosphere once more in its normal condition. The 8th verse reads: "They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys into the place which thou hast founded for them." Now I will ask "Porus" one question. Does science teach that water runs up hills and mountains to seek its level? If science demonstrates that the earth was once covered with water, I will aver that it was at a time so far remote in past ages that there was neither mountains or animal life on the face of the earth, and that since that time, by the many convulsions of the elemental forces of nature, have the mountains been formed, by and with the vast upheavals that even at the present day are often rending the earth's outer crust. I will say but little more now, but will still hold to my first statement until "Porus" produces more positive proof than the old Psalmist David, whom I think had very little knowledge of the science of nature. I rest for the present, only asking who next? H. C. EMERY.

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. F. M. Shrout, Pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and an sound and well, gaining 25 lbs. in weight."

The Road to Wealth

Cannot be successfully treated without good health. To reach wealth or any elevated position in life requires the full necessities and operation of all the faculties kind nature has endowed us with. These conditions cannot exist unless the physical being is in perfect working order, and this is impossible when the liver and spleen are torpid, thus obstructing the secretions, causing indigestion and dyspepsia, with all of their accompanying horrors.

DR. HENLEY'S English Banelion Tonic exerts a specific influence over the liver, excites it to healthy action, resolves its chronic engorgements, and promotes the secretions; cures indigestion and constipation, sharpens the appetite, tones up the entire system, and makes life worth living.
