Was specially organized for the purpose of buying and subdividing large tracts of land, and has, during the past two years, bough and subdivided over 3200 acres of land into five to twenty acre tracts. The success of this undertaking is shown in the fact that out of 280 tracts of land placed in the market, 225 have been sold.

We claim that ten acres of choice land in fruit will yield a larger income than 16 acres in wheat in the Mississippi valley.

We also make valuable improvements in the way of roads, fences, etc. We can sell a small tract of land for the same price per acre as you would have to pay for a large farm. Send for pamphlet, maps and price list.

Word has reached here of the foulest murder that has been known in this section for many years. About four days ago a freighter whose name we could not learn, but who was fraighting for Pard Cummins, on the Okanogan, received his pay, amounting to $35.00, and that night camped about a half mile from Cummin's store. The next morning the freighter was found dead, horribly muticated and his heart street up on the end caught from the stove pipe. An eastern minister has a sign over the door of his re idence that reads: "Marrying done to order with neatness and dispatch; ceremony in three minutes; seven different languages." He is said to be doing a thriving business. If our ministers would inaugurate that system in this city, they might get up a matrimonial boom and ince their own pockets before the novelty of the affair wore off. Get in, gentlemen, and form a syndicate with the legal fraternity. The latter will be benefitted when the reaction takes place.

We cannot see that the usury law of Oregon is of any advantage to its citizens. How would those, who like it favor a similar limitation put on any other commodity. Money is a commodity, and if an individual has it, it is his own, the same as wheat, barley or any other article that belongs to him. Then why should the owner not have the right to do what he pleases with what belongs to him.
