Rychard, Homer McFarland and Geo. Concher. It is the intention to furnish music for all public occasions, including speakings, balls, etc. As the campaign is near at hand, the boys should have plenty to do the coming summer.

ERRORS CORRECTED.—In last Thursday's issue, in reporting the result of the democratic central committee meeting, an error was made in regard to the number of delegates, as apportioned for the county convention. THE HORSE THIEVES.—Geo. Harrington returned from the river Friday where he had been in quest of the thieves who took the horses from Geo. Swaggart's ranch last week. The gray horse of Nels Christenson's got away from the fellows, it now being certain that there were two of them, about the time they were saddling, preparatory to leaving the ranch. Both then rode the stallion to Castle Rock, where he was turned loose, the men crossing over to the Washington side in a boat which belonged to Mr. Teeters. This gentleman found his boat some miles below Castle Rock, and took away the oars, preventing them using it further. Although the culprits were not in sight, it is supposed that they were hidden in the hills, awaiting the shades of night to proceed further. It is presumed that they came back to the boat and finding it oarless, struck out on foot. It is pretty certain that Mr. Swaggart's stallion is on the range in Northern Morrow, and will be recovered at an early date. However, Mr. Christenson mourns the loss of a saddle, which is not likely to be found.

The same can be bought at the mill at prices ranging from $8 to $25 per thousand. He has a general assortment on hand at present, and is sure to satisfy customers.
