Attorney C. E. Redfield returned Saturday night from Portland and Salem.

Services in the Baptist church next Sunday both morning and evening conducted by Rev. Geo. R. Varney.

Harry Phillips, a former resident of this county, who now resides in the Okanogan country in Washington, is in the city.

The furniture for the new court house has been purchased. Commissioner E. C. Ashbaugh was in Portland last week and ordered the necessary desks, chairs, etc. for the different offices.

A. W. Lundell, agent for the Equitable Life, presented the GAZETTE force with some very neat calendars last week—in fact about the nicest we have seen this year. The Equitable does not do things by halves.

The residents residing in the vicinity of the new wagon road built by the Heppner Railroad & Coal company from the old Hamilton saw mill to the Ditch creek flats, are getting up a petition to be presented to the county court asking that this thoroughfare be made a regular county road. This is a good road over which will be a great amount of travel and should be a county road.

The ladies' basket ball team is practicing regularly twice a week—Tuesday's and Saturdays—in Roberts hall, and are improving rapidly. Last Saturday they served a fine lunch in the hall and invited several friends. Everything was purchased (?) at a great expense, (of time) and, we are informed, a very pleasant time was had. It is rumored that they did not eat all the lunch they had prepared.

Morrow Appointed.
Hon. J. W. Morrow, formerly of Heppner, was yesterday appointed State Land Agent by Governor Chamberlain. Mr. Morrow is a competent and able man and the appointment is a good one.

THE WOOL GROWERS

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION OF BRANCH ASSOCIATION.

Enthusiastic Meeting Well Attended by Representative Sheep Men.

Permanent organization of the Heppner Woolgrowers Association was effected in this city yesterday.

About 25 representative wool growers were in attendance at the Palace hotel behind closed doors.

The temporary officers were made permanent:
A. Andrews, president; F. P. Farnsworth, vice-president; D. O. Justus, secretary-treasurer.

The permanent officers with the addition of E. F. Day and J. C. Kirk were elected as an executive committee.

Constitution and by-laws submitted by the committee appointed at the time of temporary organization were adopted with the exception of one amendment which provides that all applicants for membership not being actual wool growers, can only be enrolled as members by a majority vote, and the applications must lay over for one meeting.

The object of this is to give people who are not actual sheep owners, but who are directly interested in the sheep and wool industry, a chance to become members in the association.

Much interest was taken in the meeting. J. H. Gwinn, secretary of the Oregon Woolgrowers' Association was present and offered valuable advice, the local organization being a branch of the state association.

Mr. Gwinn stated that this was one of the most enthusiastic meetings that he has attended.

About 65,000 sheep were represented at the meeting.

The Heppner Woolgrowers' Association is now a strong local organization with 60 members representing about 180,000 sheep. The membership fee is $3, and each member is assessed $2 per thousand sheep owned.

BORN.

HUMPHREY—In this city, to Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, a son.

BASEY—In this city, to Mr. and Mrs. Alton Basey, a 10 pound boy.

MARRIED.

ROYSE—CANNON—At the residence of J. F. Roysen in Hardman, Oregon, on December 24th, William O. Roysen and Mable R. Cannon were united in marriage, Judge Stanley officiating. After congratulations and the presentation of a large number of gifts, the guests were invited to the dining room where a steaming dinner was in waiting.

William Roysen is a partner in the general merchandise business of J. F. Roysen & Sons.
The bride is an estimable lady who has a large circle of friends and all join in wishing much happiness in the new home.

Jeff Hayes, of Lone Rock, met with quite a serious accident one day this week. Mr. Hayes was on horseback and was driving some cows out of his barn lot, when the horse that he was riding slipped and fell, throwing him to the ground and falling upon him. His left leg was fractured in two places below the knee. Dr. Kistner of this city was called and reduced the fracture.

Stockholders' Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the stockholders of the Morrow County Land and Trust Company will be held at the office of the Company in Heppner, on Saturday, March 14, 1903, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year.

R. F. HYNB, Secretary.
Heppner, Or., Jan. 15, 1903.

NOTES FROM IONE.

Ione Post.
D. W. Horner was down from Heppner Thursday.

Mrs. N. A. Leach went to Heppner Tuesday evening.

Miss Walbridge visited her parents in Heppner Sunday.

M. B. Galoway was in town Tuesday, taking views of the different business houses.

G. W. Ayers and G. J. Currin were down from Heppner Thursday to attend the funeral of N. O. Smead.

F. P. Farnsworth, who has been visiting in Pendleton, Walla Walla and other places, spent Tuesday evening in Ione, acting as installing officer in the K. of P. lodge.

G. W. Wells spent last Saturday in Ione, consummating some land deals. He disposed of a half section, 10 miles Northeast of here, to Chas. Sorber, receiving $1500 for same.

It would naturally be supposed that the wheat market would be very quiet as the season closes, but our warehouse men report plenty of it being hauled in and several sales are being made each week. Kerr, Gifford & Co. are receiving an average of from 300 to 400 sacks a day. On Monday Gus Walker bought of Geo. Ut 4800 bushels of wheat at 62 cents. This is probably the highest price that has been paid at this point this season.

A Restoration.

A restoration from the 'roids upward must take place to cure an obstinate cough. Scott's Emulsion begins way down at the bottom of an inflamed throat and when it finishes its work there is no inflammation left.

Rev. Geo. R. Varney, corresponding secretary Baptist state conference is here and preaching each evening in the Baptist church. Services begin at 7 o'clock. Rev. Varney is an able preacher and will doubtless have a good hearing.
