

The Week's News

Local and Personal Happenings in and About the City.

J. P. Rhea, was up from Ione, Friday.

W. O. Minor returned from Portland, Friday.

A Walker, of Ione, was a Heppner visitor Friday.

Emil Scharff, of Monument was in the city Sunday.

Bins Bros. new feed barn is nearing completion.

Alfred Ayers was a passenger for Portland, Saturday.

Andrew Reaney, of Lexington, was a Heppner visitor Monday.

Semi-Weekly Portland Journal and Heppner Gazette only $1.75 per year.

Dr. Higgs, Eyes, Ear, Nose and Throat. Glasses properly fitted.

Wells & Warnock will handle your real estate and charge only the usual commission.

List your lands with Wells & Warnock. We sell only on a straight commission.

E. J. Brown, representing the Pacific Paper Company, was doing business in Heppner Saturday.

Dr. F. B. Kistner was a passenger for Portland, Saturday where he will take in the fair for a week.

Editor D. E. Baxter, of the Spray Courier was in the city Friday on his way home from Portland.

Mrs. H. W. Peterson, of Portland came up Saturday to visit a few days with her sister Mrs. Otis Welch.

The patriotic citizens of Hardman report a big time at their Fourth of July celebration. There was a large attendance.

Several fishing parties of Heppner people went out to the mountains Saturday evening most of them returning Monday.

Miss Leona Friend, of Council, Idaho, a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rhea, of this city is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rhea.

C. A. Minor, of the Penland Livestock and Land Company reports that grass is better in the mountains now than it has been for a number of years at this time of year.

Mrs. Sarah Brown and her sister Mrs. Mary Barton have returned from a visit to Nebraska, Missouri and Kansas. Mrs. Emma Bird, from Iowa, a sister, returned with them and will make her future home in Morrow county.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Heppner last Friday, E. L. Freeland was appointed to the position of assistant cashier. Mr. Freeland is a thoroughly competent man and justly deserves the promotion in one of the strongest country banks in the Northwest.

Warrants were sworn out in Justice Rea's court on Monday 19th by Road Supervisor H. J. Scott, for the arrest of J. H. McHaley, Dave Hill and Chas. Bedsaul, for obstructing public highway by driving a band of sheep on the road between Little and Big Wall creek, and damaging the road by rolling rocks and debris into the road. The case was tried by jury on Thursday, June 20. The jury brought in a verdict of acquittal against McHaley and Bedsaul, and finding Hill, the camp tender, guilty, also recommended that the fine be not over $20. He was fined $19 and costs—paying the fine. H. F. Blahm, Oscar Schafer and James Burnsides were witnesses.—Monument Enterprise.

This is ideal harvest weather. Mrs. Fred Warnock is on the sick list.

Attorney C. E. Redfield returned from Pendleton Tuesday.

marshal Rasmus has returned from Portland.

Several cases of mumps are reported in the city.

W. R. Irwin was a passenger for Portland, Tuesday.

Commissioner Henry Blackman came up from Portland yesterday evening.

Barefoot sandals and white canvas oxfords and hose at the Cash Shoe Store.

The haying season is about over. In some places the crop was a little light.

Al Binns went to Portland this morning having been drawn as a juror on the Williamson trial.

Dan Stalter left this morning for San Francisco, on business connected with the Mayflower mines.

Regular services will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday by the pastor. The morning subject: "A mischievous Error."

Dan Stalter president and general manager of the Heppner Mining Company came in from the Mayflower mines Monday. Mr. Stalter is greatly enthused over the prospects of the mines and says that everything is now in fine working order. He is on his way to San Francisco on business connected with the mines.

Mrs. James Hart gave a very pleasant party last Thursday evening in honor of her cousin Miss Lena Waters, of Palouse, Wash. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. James Hart, Misses Lena Waters, Leala Campbell, Vallejo McAtee, Hazel Carr, Eva Morrison, Lena Long, Leah Minor, Edith Marlatt, Alma Marlatt, Lorena Meadows, Willa Herren, Vivian Cox, Cleopatra Scrivener, Alta Kirk, Ella Ayers and Leda Hayes. Messrs. Guy Boyer, Clint Gilliam, Leo Blackman, Elsie Sutton, Carl Rhea, Olin Hayes, Fred Behrens, Johnnie Roberts, Ralph Thompson, Cleve Walton, Lester Meadows, Prewitt Cox, Edgar Ayers, Ray Johnston, Mr. Lugles.

Sheriff E. M. Shutt left Saturday morning for Salem, taking with him Wesley Kyle, a 15 year-old boy who had been committed to the reform school by Judge Ayers. Young Kyle was brought to this county from the Orphan's home in Portland by Tom Davidson about one year ago. The boy was given a home and taken care of until about the 12th of last month when he ran away from the Davidson home taking a horse. He was located in the Monument country in Grant county where he was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Feugot and held until arrival of Sheriff Shutt who brought him to this city last Wednesday. He was given a hearing before Judge Ayers Friday and the wayward youth was committed to the Reform School. The boy had made several trades and disposed of the horse that he had taken, however, the stolen horse was found and recovered.

BORN.

HOWARD—In this city Wednesday, July 5, to Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Howard, a son weight 8 pounds.

WANTED — Man, under 35, from Heppner, to prepare for good position as Railway Mail Clerk. Experience in postoffice not necessary. Entrance salary $800 per annum. Gradual promotion. An exceptional opening. Examination soon. Address immediately, P. O. Box 1533, Denver, Colo.

THE FAIR STORE

THE FAIR STORE

ANNUAL JULY STOCK TAKING

SALE

Every ARTICLE REDUCED

FROM

Saturday July 1st. To Sat. July 15th

A BARGAIN EVENT

THAT YOU MUST NOT OVERLOOK

THE FAIR STORE

THE FAIR STORE

Lee Cantwell's automobile line between the depot and the Heppner Light and Water plant is now making regular trips on schedule time.

Miss Grace Van Vactor left Monday morning for Bay Center, Wash., where she goes to visit her grand parents. Her father S. E. Van Vactor accompanied her as far as Arlington.

According to the best information that can be obtained at this time the wheat crop of Morrow county this season will be about the same as last year or about 1,200,000 bushels.

Mrs. L. E. Cohn will sell at cost for the next 30 days her complete stock of millinery including all the new hat shapes just received from Portland. See the new polo turban shape. Mrs. Cohn always has the new styles first. Others copy. A new shipment of ribbon and valenciennes lace, plumes and flowers for your inspection.

E. L. Freeland, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Heppner left Saturday morning for Buffalo, New York, where he goes as a delegate to the Grand Lodge of Elks which meets on the 11th of July. Mr. Freeland will make an extended visit in the East and will be gone for some time.

David Sherman Oliver, a farmer of the Gooseberry country was arrested Friday upon complaint of his wife charged with wife beating. He was given a hearing before Justice Whiteis and was placed under $500 bonds. He claims that he can furnish bonds but has not been able to produce so far and is in the county jail. His trial will come up at the November term of circuit court.

The Cash Shoe Store

See Our Window Display Of Harvest Shoes and Gloves At Special Prices

We will help you to save your hard earned money by making close prices.

Ask for Our MOOSE SKIN unlined shoe the best value for $2.50 ever produced you can't rip em.

Men and Boys Work Shoes $1.25 to $3.50

Buckinham & Hecht's rivited Chrome Tan $3.50

All Buckskin & Horse hide Gloves REDUCED

We give you the best Sox for your Money

Repairing of all kinds promptly attended to

THE CASH SHOE STORE

Rooms at the Lewis & Clark Fair

S. A. Madge, J. O'B. Scobey and F. W. Stocking, of Olympia, Wash. and M. G. Royal of Salem, Oregon have secured the Hotel Palmer, of Portland, and put it under competent management for the Fair trade. It is a 65 room hotel situated on Alder street between Seventh and Eighth, just one block west of the Oregonian building, only one block from car line running directly to the fair grounds. For one dollar a day the very best accommodations can be secured. The above gentlemen are well known all over Washington and to a large extent in Oregon and their names give assurance that the guests of the hotel will be properly cared for. Take the Morrison Street car at the Union Depot and ask the conductor to let you off at Park street, then walk one block north to the hotel. Write at once for particulars and for reservation of a room. Address Hotel Palmer, 350 Alder street, Portland, Oregon.—From the Morning Olympia, Olympia, Washington.

The editorial page of the Weekly Oregonian gives a broad treatment to a wide range of subjects.