

The Heppner Gazette

Established March 30, 1883.
ISSUED THURSDAY MORNING.

Fred Warnock

Entered at the Postoffice at Heppner Oregon, as second-class matter.

THURSDAY... September 10 1906.

The State fair is over. It was a good meeting even if it did rain.

A Modern Miracle—A man has actually succeeded in robbing the Portland gas company.

The Prineville Review says that there are hardly a dozen timber claims left for entry in Crook county at the present time.

The holders of claims not preferred against the estate of the late Senator Mitchell will only get 37 cents on the dollar.

The Dalles Optimist man says he has printed seven hundred million hop tickets. The statement certainly shows the presence of hop. Not in the way of tickets, but a dream.

The Louisville Courier Journal, one of Bryan's staunchest supporters, is making a lot of faces over swallowing the government ownership pill. It is a big one to take at one gulp.

Heppner Blackman, the rising young cartoonist and sketch artist has been recognized by the New York World and some of his work is now appearing in the paper. He is a Heppner boy and his many friends here will be pleased to learn of his success. The fact that such a paper as the World is accepting his work when he is just making a start and is unknown means something.

The Pendleton Tribune calls attention to the unusual lack of talk about the election of a United States senator at the meeting of the legislature next winter. Come to think about it, the people are not talking about who will be the next senators, but then, why should they. The matter was settled last June. Mr. Bourne and Mr. Mulkey will be elected on the first ballot. The Oregon lawmakers will be out of a job before the 40 days limit. This sounds pretty good for the director's law.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers, of Parker's Mill, were in the city Monday. Mr. Ayers informs the Gazette that the mill is running to its fullest capacity and still the demand is greater than can be supplied.

George Swaggart has a force of men engaged in tearing out the old building on Main street formerly used as a bowling alley. Mr. Swaggart contemplates putting in a brick building where the old building now stands. The new building will be leased by Mor Dan a Chinese restaurant keeper.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Minor have returned from the State fair. Mr. Minor went to the fair for the purpose of looking over the stock exhibits with a view to buying sheep for the improvement of the herds of the Penland Land & Livestock company. Mr. Minor was looking for Lincoln sheep and purchased about all the best of this breed that was offered for sale. Mr. Minor's purchase consisted of 100 head of Lincoln ewes, 40 ewe Lincoln lambs and 10 Lincoln bucks at an average price of $14 per head. Mr. Minor also engaged from the principal breeders of Western Oregon all of the Lincoln lambs of next year's drop at $12.50 per head. The company also has an order for a carload of Lincoln ram lambs from Canada which have been engaged at $16 per head.

Elinda Wright, the little grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Borg, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Heppner Sanitarium, is slowly improving.

Death of Rev. Frank Adkins.

Rev. Frank C. Adkins died at the family home near this city last Friday evening very suddenly.

Mr. Adkins was in Heppner on the day prior to his death and seemed to be in good spirits and was enjoying his usual health. He was a man well known in Heppner and in fact all over Morrow county, and the news of his sudden and unexpected death was a great shock to the community.

Rev. Adkins' attainments were admirable in many ways. His daily life has been such as to command universal respect from his fellow men. Honest, upright, sincere and true to every conviction, he has left an example that will be a lasting monument for good.

For several years his health has not been good and for this reason he left the work of the ministry to go to the farm in the hopes of regaining his health.

Frank C. Adkins was born near Kirksville, Mo., December 25, 1857. In 1865, with his parents he crossed the plains to Oregon, the family settling in the Willamette valley near Eugene. In 1868, he came to what is now Morrow county where he has resided every since with the exception of some time when he was engaged in ministerial work in the state of Washington.

On August 27, 1868, on Rhea creek, in this county, he was married to Miss Mattie Dennis. His wife survives him with seven children, five boys and two girls, none of whom are married.

He was converted in 1886 and entered the ministry with the M. E. church South, in 1889, having been a faithful and earnest worker ever since.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Baie at the M. E. church South, Sunday forenoon and the remains were buried in the Heppner cemetery.

The funeral was one of the largest ever held in Heppner.

Albert Wright is Dead.

Albert Wright, aged 81 years, 8 months and four days, died in this city, Sunday evening, September 16.

Albert Wright, better known as Father Wright, was one of Morrow county's highly honored pioneer citizens.

A consistent and respected christian, he practiced what he believed, leaving an example above reproach. Mr. Wright's history presents a long and useful life.

Albert Wright was born in Yates, New York, January 12, 1825. When 12 years of age removed with his parents to Michigan, and eighteen months later moved to a farm in Indiana. Here he followed farming until 1852 when he sold out and being influenced with the western fever started across the plains to the Pacific Coast. Spending the first winter in Iowa, with the resolute and determined spirit of the pioneer, in the following spring he again started for Oregon, first stopping in Clackamas county. He resided in Clackamas county until 1872, when he came to what is now Morrow county, settling on Rhea creek. Several years ago he sold out his interests and came to Heppner.

Mr. Wright was married in Indiana, on October 30, 1846, to Miss Julia Faling. He leaves the following children: Mrs. Mary E. David, deceased; Mrs. Julia Bisbee, of Heppner; Silas A. Wright, of Rhea creek; George E. Wright, of Lone Rock; Anson E. Wright, of Hardman; and Mrs. Frank Gilliam, of Heppner.

The funeral occurred Tuesday and a large number of people witnessed the last sad rites.

Mrs. Carrie M. West.

Mrs. Carrie M. West, aged 39 years, died at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilliam in this city Sunday evening, September 16.

Mrs. West is a sister of Mayor Frank Gilliam, of this city. She has been suffering with heart trouble for several years and came to Heppner from her home in East Portland, a short time ago in the hopes of getting relief by the change of climate. She gradually grew worse until the end came Sunday evening.

The remains were shipped to East Portland for burial.

For Sale—Some of the finest geese in Eastern Oregon. Inquire of J. H. Bezan.

Miss Margaret Elise Bartholomew and Thomas Hall West, were married at the First Christian church in Portland, Monday evening, September 3.

T. J. Matlock will commence in a few days cutting the third crop of alfalfa on his ranch on Hinton creek. Mr. Matlock thinks that the third cutting will go about two tons to the acre.

The Heppner ice plant has been forced to shut down on account of the scarcity of fuel. Coal is very hard to get and wood is about as scarce.

Hon. Henry Blackman returned Tuesday evening from Boise, Idaho, where he had been attending the irrigation meeting. Mr. Blackman speaks very highly of the meeting and thinks that the results will be productive of much good. He states that the enterprising state of Idaho is honey-combed with irrigating ditches and that the people generally are very enthusiastic over irrigation matters. Mr. Blackman also visited the State fair at Salem and says that the exhibits were very fine and that the fair was a great success notwithstanding the fact that the weather was bad.

Card of Thanks.

We, the family and loved ones of Rev. F. C. Adkins, wish thus publicly to express our sincere gratitude to the many friends for their most thoughtful kindness on the death of our departed loved one.

Mrs. F. C. Adkins and family.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs, made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.
