Read the ad. of the Pacific Lodging House in this city. The proprietor, Mr. Shinn is doing everything possible to make the Pacific attractive and homelike.

County Surveyor Heath came in from Hardman, Saturday evening. Mr. Heath says there are a large number of timber lookers now on the lands soon to be restored to entry.

Earl Conser, of Ashland, returned to his home Tuesday. Mr. Conser owns a wheat ranch in the Lexington wheat belt and was up looking after the harvesting of his wheat crop.

At the M. E. church, "This End of God's Telephone," for five minutes to boys and girls next Sunday at 11 a. m. and the sermon following will look up to "The Throne." The holy communion will be administered after the morning sermon. The evening will be spent with Paul. Welcome.

T. J. Matlock and son, Doc, are in town from Heppner. This is Mr. Matlock's first visit to this part of Grant county since 1900, and he notes many improvements throughout the county. Morrow county farmers, he says, are now harvesting a very large crop of grain and hay.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

F. M. Courter, of Eight Mile, was in the city, Friday. Mr. Courter states that Theodore Anderson has just finished threshing a field of 100 acres of wheat that averaged 42½ bushels to the acre. The wheat is known as the forty fold variety and is a new kind for the Eight Mile country. The wheat was harvested with a combine.

Emmet Cochran, the Monument sheepman, was in the city on business last Friday. Mr. Cochran was very unfairly dealt with in the matter of grazing privileges on the forest reserve, and was forced to rent range for his sheep from private owners. The treatment accorded Mr. Cochran is only a sample of the kind quite a number of our stockmen have had to endure at the hands of the supervisors.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

S. W. Spencer came in from Sumpter, Wednesday. Mr. Spencer is running 7800 head of sheep in the Sumpter district and also a band of 2400 head at Olive Lake. The sheep with the exception of one band are on rented range and are in good condition and doing well. The forest reserve ranges are a little short owing to the fact that a large amount of territory in the watersheds is withdrawn from grazing. This seems to be the only complaint coming from the regulations of the forest service.

Mike Marshal was up from his ranch Saturday.

Curt Rhea was in from the ranch Tuesday.

D. Matlock came over from Pendleton, Tuesday.

The case of James Reid vs. School District No. 59 was tried yesterday in Justice Williams court. Mr. Reid who operates a saw mill claimed a balance of $36 on material furnished for building school house and fence. The directors, Mat Hughes, Allen McFerrer and Albert Matteson claimed that they had overpaid the bill which resulted in Mr. Reid suing the district. A number of witnesses were examined and the case was taken under advisement by Judge Williams. Redfield & Van Vactor appeared for the defendants and C. Woodson appeared for the plaintiff.
