

Local Notes.

C. E. Bisbee came over from Spray on the 1st.

The masquerade ball on New Year's night was well attended and netted the Club a handsome sum of money.

Go to H. Howard for your car pet and rug weaving. Prompt attention to orders and satisfaction guaranteed.

The recital given by Miss Ethel Martin, of Milton, last Monday evening was very successful and certainly merited praise.

F. C. Marquardson is in Spokane to meet the representative of Eastern wholesalers to buy new goods for his big department store.

Today there are six prisoners in the county jail. This is the largest number of prisoners confined in the jail for a number of years. The number will be reduced today. Deputy sheriff Gus Mallory, assisted by Wm. McRoberts, will take the three hobo burglars who plead guilty to breaking into the Lexington depot, to the penitentiary. Their names are Howard, Heiser, and Moore. They have been in jail since November 5. They will also take young Hale to the reform school. This will leave McCaslin and Doherty, both held for murder.

Miss Ethel G. Reid was an incoming passenger Monday evening from Lebanon, where she is teaching school this winter.

F. C. Marquardson will leave tomorrow for Spokane, where he will select a stock of spring goods for his department store.

Lawrence Shutt is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Shutt. Lawrence attends the school for the blind at Salem.

The marriage of Mr. Fred Fleet and Miss Margaret Winnard occurred Wednesday at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Winnard, of Black Horse, Rev. Porter officiating. Both are popular young Heppner people.

Owing to poor health C. O. Huelat has sold the Cash Shoe Store and will seek for health in a different climate. The Gazette regrets to see the loss in Heppner of such business men as C. O. Huelat. Taking charge of business that was anything but prosperous. Mr. Huelat's ability and enterprise soon made a difference that could not help but be noticed. The final result was a neat, modern store doing a large and profitable business. Mr. Huelat is not only liberal and progressive in business, but is public spirited and enthusiastic in every enterprise for the public good.

E. E. Beaman and Robt. Gaynor are now in charge of the Cash Shoe Store, "The Sign of the Boot," having purchased the business from C. O. Huelat. The new firm will undoubtedly enjoy a good business with this popular and well established store. Mr. Beaman is an old resident of Heppner and has always been very successful in business. As a shoe man, Mr. Gaynor is a specialist. For the past three years he has been connected with the Cash Shoe Store, and his ability and untiring energy has been a great help in the success of the business. Mr. Gaynor has been brought up in the shoe business. He can sell shoes and he can make shoes and understands every detail of the business in pleasing the public. It is not necessary to state that Heppner will continue to have a first class shoe store.

There was some fine singing at the Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday, morning and evening. We have some splendid talent and there will be special music every Sunday. The choir is growing and we are anticipating better music all along. The subject for next Sunday morning and evening is "Our Prosperity and material growth as a Nation and the dangers threatening us." All are cordially invited to attend. Chas. H. Porter.

MINOR'S

Annual Pre-Inventory Sale.

In two weeks we will take our Annual Invoice. In going thru' our stock after the unprecedented Holiday rush, we find many broken lines of seasonable goods. Also a few lines of strictly cold weather merchandise, that owing to the continued mildweather, we find ourselves too heavily stocked.

Years ago we discovered the fact that it was not only easier but better business to invoice cash than merchandise. Consequently, for the next two weeks we are going to give our customers some long-to-be-remembered values in these lines.

Ladies, Misses, and Children's Coats. Children's Wool Underwear. Silks and Dress Goods, Furs. Remnants of everything.
