THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Getting Ready for a Fresh Start.

Gwendolyn de Courtenay, the handsome society favorite, was nervously agitated. Even a blind baggage car could see that. She paced up and down in front of the large cheval glass in her room. Evidently she was greatly aggrieved over something. Finally her high strung nerves got churned up to such a pitch that she lost control over herself and began to clutch and tear wildly at her hair, pulling it out in large handfuls.

Your sympathetic nature is around and you cry: "The poor woman is temporarily insane. Why doesn't some one stop her before she does herself bodily injury? She must be in terrible mental agony to stand the pain of pulling her hair out by the roots."

But hush! Be not too lavish with your sympathy, friend. Up to now Gwendolyn has pulled off only fourteen pounds of puffs, three miles of interlocking switches and a few detachable curls. She has some distance to go yet before she touches the real, cross your heart hair. Gwendolyn is merely distracted because her maid cannot get her floating hirsute equipment on in becoming array. She is simply getting ready for a fresh start.—Puck.

REACHING THE SPOT

It Can Be Done, So Scores of Heppner Citizens Say.

To cure an aching back,
The pains of rheumatism,
The tired out feelings,
You must reach the spot—get at the cause.

In most cases 'tis the kidneys,
Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys.

Thos. Morgan, Heppner, Ore., says: "I feel it my duty to speak a good word in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered for several years from kidney complaint and rheumatism. The attacks were so severe that I was laid up for a week or ten days at a time. I finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at the Slocum Drug Co. This remedy went at once to the seat of the trouble and gave me great relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Rothschild's Play.

Baron Henri de Rothschild was once involved in an amusing incident in which a well known Parisian theatrical manager took part. The baron offered him a play, which he practically accepted without looking at. "Yes, my dear baron," he said, "of course I'll produce it, and I am very flattered you should have brought it to me first."

"Yes, but you must read it," insisted the baron, "for it may not suit you. I am not at all sure that it will. I will come again tomorrow, when you will have had time to look over it."

"All right, do," answered the manager.

Next day, when the baron presented himself, he was received with enthusiasm. "It's a masterpiece, my dear baron—a masterpiece. I shall be delighted to produce it, and as soon as possible. We'll have it next season."

On the manager's desk lay the roll of paper Baron de Rothschild had brought the previous day. He picked it up, unrolled it and showed it to the manager. All the pages were blank.

His Longest Engagement.

At the Army and Navy club in Washington one evening a group of officers, most of them young men, were swapping stories of various engagements during the war with Spain and the subsequent troubles in the Philippines.

Among the silent listeners was one grizzled veteran, a naval commander of national renown. It must have occurred to one of the young men that it was peculiarly ludicrous that officers should not long out of the academies should be holding forth with respect to their exploits while this old fellow sat silent in a corner. So, turning to the veteran, one of the young officers blithely asked:

"What was the longest engagement you ever participated in, admiral?"

"It lasted three years," said the old chap, without a suspicion of a smile, "and, worst of all, the young woman married another man."—Washington Star.

For Two Years.

"For two years after I was married I was ashamed to meet the preacher who united my wife and me in the holy bonds. You see, in my excited condition I made a blunder and gave him a five dollar bill instead of $20, which I intended to hand him. I suppose he thought I was a cheap skate, but I couldn't very well explain it without making myself ridiculous or causing him to suspect that I was lying about it."

"You say you felt that way for two years?"

"Yes. After that I began to be sorry I had given him anything!"—Philadelphia Record.

Bonner's Famous Advertisement.

When the New York Ledger was wavering on the brink of failure Robert Bonner, the proprietor, sent to the New York Herald a brief advertisement, to be set up in a single line. So grotesque was Mr. Bonner's handwriting that the advertising manager interpreted the directions as ordering that the copy be run in full page, with instructions he obeyed, though marveling greatly. The Herald came out the next morning with one whole page devoted to the crisp adjuration to read the Ledger's new story. The effect upon Mr. Bonner was almost fatal, first from chagrin at the thought of the possible bill, then from amazement as subscriptions began to pour in and finally from satisfaction as they continued to flood the office until the fortune of the publication was made. The novel though accidental device had struck the public's fancy. Mr. Bonner was hailed as the pioneer of a new and daring theory of exploitation, and the advertisement gained tenfold currency by being commented upon as a feature of the news.—Collier's.

Trumpeting Ancient German Chorals.

The most notable ornament of Rothenburg is the Rathaus, which no artist who visits the town fails to sketch. It is of a most imposing beauty, consisting of an older gothic building dating back to the middle of the thirteenth century, with an elaborate renaissance facade. It was from its darkling dungeons that many of the instruments of torture in the museum at Nuremberg came, for Rothenburg was not tender in its treatment of prisoners. The earlier building has a high square tower crowned with a bell cupola, where thrice a week the choir of St. Jakob's, a revered church lying within its shadow, painfully climbs, armed with trumpets and other musical instruments. The sweet Lutheran chorale is repeated four times as the musicians respectively face the four points of the compass, and the ceremony, so in keeping with the quaint, old time life of the town, is one of the visitor's unforgettable memories of Rothenburg.—Rothenburg (Bavaria) Letter to Vogue.
