Petition for New Road.
A petition for a new road from Heppner to Lone Rock by way of Porcupine and Rood canyons, is being circulated and is being signed by many.

The proposed road would shorten the distance now being traveled between this city and Lone Rock, about 8 miles and would also eliminate several bad hills, which would be of great convenience and benefit to many people between here and Lone Rock.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA
He Didn't Bet.
"A man in my county," said a Kansas congressman, "was always anxious to bet on his game of checkers. One time he was about to play a game for $10 with a fellow called Three Fingers Jack. Suddenly one of his friends exclaimed:
"Don't bet, Charlie. Don't you know that fellow wore off two fingers playing checkers? That's why he's called Three Fingers Jack."
"That settled it. The bet was never made. A man who had worn off two fingers by brushing them up and down the checkerboard was too much for my friend."—Kansas City Journal.

A Bitter Disappointment.
"When I was in Paris," remarked the collector of curios, "I discovered in a bookstall a volume which I knew at first glance to be of extraordinary value. I could scarcely believe my good luck. Breathless, I inquired the price of the dealer. Just think of it! I could have had that treasure for a song!"
"Well, why didn't you get it?"
"Never could sing a note in my life," cried the collector, bursting into tears.—New York Times.

The Audience Moved.
He had been trying to start a revival fervor, but the audience was unresponsive. "O ye of flinty hearts," he cried, "will nothing move you?" "Pass the hot, boss," answered the gamins, "and we move immediately."—Florida Times-Union.

M. E. Church, South.

I am very much encouraged with the prospects of the revival services being held at the South Methodist church. Especially am I pleased with the hearty co-operation of the local pastors and members of the various churches. This is as it should be. The music is delighting every one, and gets better at every service. Mr. Rogers has already won all hearts to him by the use of the cornet and his musical voice. The services will be held at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m. through the week and the usual hours of service will be observed on Sunday. Rev. Davis, pastor of the Baptist church, preached a strong sermon on Wednesday night. The public is invited to all these services.

E. P. WARREN, Pastor.

Methodist Episcopal Church.

Services for Sunday, February 6. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Epworth League devotional meeting, 6 p. m. Preaching 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. by the pastor, Walter L. Airheart. Subject, morning sermon: "The Need and Value of a Creed." Evening sermon: "Evolution."
The morning sermon will be the first of a series of ten numbers entitled, "Essentials of the Christian Creed." The evening sermon will be the first of a series entitled, "Christ in the Light of Modern Thought."
