Local and Personal Happenings in and About the City.

Don't overlook the Bain wagon at Gilliam & Bisbee's.

C. A. Rhea departed for Marshfield, Or., Wednesday morning.

W. G. Scott, the Lexington business man, was in Heppner, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Roberts were in the city from Toll Rock on Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers are down from Parker's mill this week. About 8 inches of snow fell at the mill last week, but it is gone now.

Various merchants of Heppner are beginning to display their holiday goods, and we are reminded that Christmas is near.

A limited number of bed room sets for sale at the Palace hotel.

Harvey Young, son of J. S. Young, is suffering a relapse of the measles and is a very sick boy, being under the care of a physician.

Miss Winnifred Winnard, one of the teachers in our school, was able to return to her duties in the school room Monday morning, after an illness of three weeks.

Highest cash price paid for hides pelts and furs. Phil Cohn.

H. V. Gates, president of Heppner Light & Water Co., came up Saturday evening from his home at Hillsboro. His stay was a short one, however, as he returned on Monday morning.

J. H. McHaley is at home after a couple of weeks sojourn over in Grant Co., looking after his ranch interests. He found it mighty hard travelling on account of the heavy roads.

M. S. Maxwell returned on Monday evening after an absence of six weeks, during which time he visited Portland and Southern Oregon points. He was accompanied by his father who has been on a visit to the old home in the East.

Measles are quite prevalent in town and as a consequence many pupils out of school. A thorough fumigation of the school building has been made and the steps taken to prevent the spread of the malady. It should be stamped out soon.

Geo. W. Warren and wife were in Heppner Saturday from their home near Gooseberry postoffice. George informs us that he has rented his ranch for a period of five years, and will leave Morrow county, to locate in the vicinity of Vancouver, Wash.

Mr. Wm. Bird, now of Portland, who has been in Alaska for the past eleven years, came in last week for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Emily Bird. Mother and son had not met for twenty six years. The mutual joy experienced by them can be more easily imagined than expressed.

A. J. Hicks, of the Times, will leave with his family on Saturday morning to take up his residence in the city of Coburg, Lane county. He leaves the Times in the hands of Mr. W. O. Thompson as manager and editor. Mr. T. is a very pleasant gentleman, and while we regret to lose such an enterprising citizen as Bro. Hicks, we are glad to bid Mr. Thompson a hearty welcome to Heppner.

Glasses properly fitted at P. O. Borg's.

Judge R. R. Butler is confined to his room this week with a case of the measles.—Condon Globe.

12,000 bushels of wheat recently changed hands in one deal at Adams. Balfour, Guthrie & Co. were the purchasers, and 73 cents per bushel the price paid.

A. W. Lundell of Ione, one time citizen of Heppner, paid our city a visit on last Monday. Mr. Lundell is now one of the successful wheat farmers of Morrow county.

John Jenkins, formerly a farmer of this vicinity, but now a resident of Seattle, is in Heppner this week looking after interests he has here. John is engaged in the work of putting down concrete, and claims to be prospering.

W. W. Bechdolt, of Hardman, was in town on Friday and Saturday and disposed of his crop of wheat. Owing to the drought, he was short on wheat this year, but hopes for better results the coming season.

Mr. T. R. Phillips of Portland, is in town selling real estate. Some prominent business men have seen the property he is selling and they consider it an excellent investment. The lots are about 22 minutes from the center of Portland, and sell from $60 to $90 each. Terms $10 cash, $4 per month, no interest. Mail a card to Mr. Phillips in care of the Palace Hotel, Heppner, if you would like to know more about it.

While on his way to Heppner from the Jim Rhea place last Saturday morning, Ben Buschke had a lively runaway experience. He was driving one of his trusty teams to the buggy, and while coming down the hill into Clark's Canyon, the horses took fright at something and began a run for it to the bottom. The tongue of the buggy dropped down, and this struck the ground in such manner as to deliver the buggy of its occupants, Mr. Buschke and his daughter, and they were dragged for some distance down the hill, when the tongue striking the bank at the side of the road piled the horses up and the race was over. Aside from being covered with mud, the Buschkes escaped injury. The buggy was left a wreck.

A Simple Safeguard for Mothers
Mrs. D. Gilkeson, 328 Ingles Ave., Youngstown, Ohio, gained wisdom by experience. "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation. Since then I always keep a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. Accept no substitutes. Sold by all druggists.

George McKay, of Waterman, passed through town the last of the week with 150 head of beef cattle which he was taking to Butter Creek for winter feeding. It is his intention to turn them off about the first of March. John Kirk accompanied him, and returned on Monday to the McKay ranch, where he is working.

A Woman's Great Idea is how to make herself attractive. But, without health, it is hard for her to be lovely in face, form or temper. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion, good health. Try them. 50c. at all druggists.

Announcement.

To our Friends and Customers:

We beg to announce that at a meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Heppner, Mr. Frank Gilliam was elected a member of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Gilliam is the senior member of the firm of Gilliam & Bisbee, hardware dealers, and has been prominently identified with the business interests of Heppner for many years.

By reason of Mr. Gilliam's reputation for integrity and business ability we are pleased to add his name to our board of directors.

Yours truly,
M. S. CORRIGALL,
President.

Four hundred thousand invitations to attend the Oregon Good Roads Convention in Portland Dec. 12, have been sent to representative citizens in every county in the state. The convention plans to put into definite shape the practical road building campaign to follow the passage of the recent amendment giving counties the right to bond themselves for highway improvements.

Dillard French, ranchman of Big Butter creek, was in town Saturday. Mr. French is wintering quite a large bunch of stock cattle, and is well pleased with the climatic conditions. It is his opinion that we will have an open winter, with plenty of feed on the hills, and a consequent hay saver. We hope he will prove a true prophet, as our stockmen and wool growers will certainly appreciate a saving of hay that will recompense them to a degree for the heavy expense of last season.

Santa Claus will be in Heppner the evening of the 24th, but his singers, Ye Olde Town Quartette, will not arrive until the evening of the 26th, owing to the fact that they failed to make connection at the North Pole. Ye Olde Towne Quartette will present the third number of the lyceum course. Everyone who has heard the first two numbers speaks in terms of highest praise of the talent. We feel warranted in giving the quartette the highest recommendation. They will please you with their singing. They will more than please you with their costume numbers. Their readings, solos, and crayon sketches will add variety to the program. Plan to hear Ye Olde Towne Quartette. A ticket to this entertainment would be a splendid Christmas present. The lyceum committee have secured high class talent, and they want you to enjoy these entertainments. Remember the 26th.
