Mr. Waldo Vincent was in from Big Butter creek, Saturday.

Mr. Wm. Howard and wife were in the city from Butter creek, Tuesday.

B. F. Swaggart was up from his mule ranch, north of Lexington, Saturday.

Saturday Dec 24th is the closing day for the Upton Piano contest, at Minor & Co's.

Jack Hynd, an extensive sheep-raiser of the Cecil district, was in Heppner, Saturday.

Frank McCabe and wife were in from their ranch in Macdonald canyon last Saturday.

Mrs. A. J. Hicks and family departed Saturday morning for their new home at Coburg.

Dr. Geo. G. Gaunt, of Hardman, was in Heppner on Monday, and registered at the Palace.

Rev. H. S. Shangle, of Milton, held quarterly conference at the M. E. church, South, last Sunday.

Glen and Alva Jones came up from Corvallis Saturday to be with the home folks during the holidays.

Mrs. W. B. Ewing and Mrs. Nash, of Cecil, were doing Christmas shopping in Heppner, Tuesday.

Mrs. George Perry and daughter, Miss May, are each quite sick with the measles at their home in north Heppner.

Christmas entertainment at the Christian church Saturday evening. Don't forget. Program short and sweet.

Late reports from Hot Lake are to the effect that L. W. Hill, of Heppner, is improving slightly and is hopeful of good results.

D. E. Gilman left yesterday morning on a business trip to Spokane and Canada. He will be absent for about twenty days.

Mrs. Donaldson and daughter, of California, representatives of the Crescent Manufacturing Co., are canvassing Heppner this week.

Who'll be the lucky one? Minor & Co. will close their Piano contest Saturday evening Dec 24th. Be sure your name is on every ticket.

After attending church last Sunday morning, F. W. Turner and wife and Miss Winnifred Winnard took dinner with the "devil"—of this sheet.

L. W. Briggs won most of the Rhode Island Red prizes at the recent meeting of the Umatilla—Morrow County Poultry Association at Pendleton.

Miss Artie Morgan and her brother Will left the first of the week for Los Angeles, Cal. and will probably spend the remainder of the winter there.

Oscar Schafer, the Monument stockman, was over this week. Stock are doing fine in his section and conditions so far this winter could not be much better.

George Noble returned Friday evening from Hot Lake Sanatorium, at which place he had been taking treatment. He feels considerably improved in health.

Ralph and Albert Adkins, sons of J. J. Adkins of this city, returned home Saturday evening from Colorado, where they have been for some months past.

Don't forget "Ye Old Towne Quartette," at the Christian church next Monday evening. It is on the Lyceum course and should be liberally patronized.

Powell, who so delighted our citizens with his trombone solos at the U. of O. glee club entertainment was a former Heppner boy, his parents having resided here in his early youth.

Mrs. John Paul, a relative of Wm. Paul of Monument, arrived in Heppner on Friday from Winchester, Idaho, and left on Saturday for Monument, where she will locate.

Mr. Wm. A. Dalziel, of La Grande deputy commissioner and factory inspector, was in Heppner on an official visit Friday, and made inspection of the different mills, shops and all places using machinery.

Mr. Ed Huston was in from Eight Mile on Friday looking up a little Christmas. He says the people out his way are planning for a tree and suitable exercises at Liberty school house on Saturday evening.

Mr. W. O. Minor, president of the Bank of Heppner, returned Saturday evening from Chicago, where he attended the meeting of the International Stock Show and exhibited a bunch of his celebrated Shorthorns.

Brice Howell has been suffering with a felon on his finger for the past two weeks, during which time he made a trip to Portland; but is now at his post as express messenger on the Heppner branch of the O. R. & N.

Supt. S. E. Notson went to Portland Monday morning to attend the meeting of the State Teachers' Association, as well as the convention of county school superintendents to follow. He was accompanied by his son Lee.

Among the recent arrivals in the city are J. C. Bass and family of Gray's Harbor, Wash. They are in search of a small tract of land on which to make a home. Home builders are just what is needed in Morrow county at this time.

The little five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones is very sick with pneumonia, and his life was despaired of for several days this week. We are glad to report that the boy is now some better and his recovery is looked for.

John Olden was in from the Rhea Creek farm, Saturday. John has finished up his new house on the creek in good style, and is now anxiously looking forward to the time when he can induce some one to become mistress of the same. There is no doubt room enough there for two.

The city council at a special meeting last Monday evening had up for consideration, and passed to its second reading the proposed new liquor license ordinance. Under its provisions the number of saloons is limited to five, with a license fee of $800. It will come up for final action the first Monday in January 1911.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt Jones and daughter, Venice, left last Saturday morning for Portland. Mr. Jones will continue in the employ of Ray Fairchild, and expects to buy cattle in Idaho and Montana for the Portland butcher, and his family will be located in Portland in the meantime, and may perhaps take up permanent residence there.

Mr. Melvin Hansen, of St. Paul, Minn., is the new stenographer in Forester Chidsey's office, he having arrived and taken up his duties in the local office on Friday last. Mr. Hansen was formerly stenographer in the St. Paul office of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, is a man well equipped for his work, and is a valuable adjunct to the office force of the Forest Service of this district.

Announcement.
I have secured Dr. Martha S. Arledge, D. O., of Chattanooga, Tenn., to be associated with me in my practice here and trust that she will have the same kind consideration and success which she had while with me here last year.

The work on the hospital building will be pushed with all speed, and as soon as completed we will open the same to the public and until that time we will care for patients with the very best arrangements that it is possible for us to make. J. P. CONDER, M. D.

Doug is Proud.

D. C. Gardane of Heppner, is the proudest man at the big poultry show in the armory building on Court street. His exhibit of Barred Plymouth Rocks carried off high honors in their class and the president of the association will journey back to Heppner with the beautiful silver cup given by the First National bank of this city tucked under his arm.

The victory is valued all the more highly because of the fact that it was won in the warmest kind of competition. P. O. Elliot of this city was runner up in nearly every instance, though M. H. Rice of Milton was a strong contender.—E. O.

A Simple Safeguard for Mothers

Mrs. D. Gilkeson, 326 Ingles Ave., Youngstown, Ohio, gained wisdom by experience. "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation. Since then I always keep a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. Accept no substitutes. Sold by all druggists.

C. H. Sprout has received the check of $1,250 from the Spokane Apple Show which his car of Spitzsburga won, and it is on exhibition in Laraway's window. This includes the sweepstakes prize of $1,000 and the first Spitzsburga prize of $250. The silver cup which was awarded at Chicago for the same car will be brought home by Secretary Skinner.—Hood River Glacier.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup, bringing dread to the household. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it at the first sign of danger. It contains no opiates. Sold by all druggists.

Glasses properly fitted at P. O. Borg's.
