

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

Miss Beulah Barker is spending the holidays at Echo.

You can get the heater you need at Case's Furniture Store.

Thomas Brennan is spending the holiday week in Portland.

Phill Cohn pays highest cash price for hides, pelts and furs.

Ellis Minor departed for Portland Saturday to spend the holidays.

We keep all kinds of fruits and lunch goods. Hendricson & Gurdane.

Johnny Stevenson is over from Condon spending the Christmas holidays.

House for sale or rent with one acre ground. Inquire 1st National Bank.

Velox, Azo, Solio and Bromide papers and post cards, all sizes. Patterson & Son.

The Range of quality and economy, "The Crescent." Sold by the Case Furniture Co.

Arlt Brock and wife are in the city spending the holidays with the family of F. M. Gentry.

Lawrence Shutt came up from Salem on Saturday to spend the holidays with the home folks.

The Morrow Warehouse Milling Company wants your hides, pelts and furs, and will pay cash for all they are worth.

Ivan Severance came up from Corvallis Thursday evening to spend the holidays with his parents at Hardman.

Our large line of carpet samples will enable you to buy the best carpets at home; shown at Case's Furniture Store.

The dance given by the High school orchestra on Christmas night was largely attended and a good time is reported.

Miss Mabel Fuller, 7th and 8th grade teacher in the Heppner school, departed for Portland on Tuesday to spend the week.

Liggett's and Fenway's candy; all kinds, all sizes, all prices. Fresh stock every week. Patterson & Son. The REXALL Store.

E. S. Duran was up from Lexington on Friday and disposed of about 200 pounds of pecans sent him by his father who resides in Texas.

Mrs. Nell Redfield spent Christmas at the home of her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Cameron, returning to Pendleton Tuesday morning.

Loy Turner is spending the Christmas vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Turner. He came up from Corvallis last Friday evening.

We have a few fine Christmas boxes of candy left at a reduced price. Please come in and examine them, we know you will buy one. The Palm.

SALESMAN WANTED—To look after our interest in Morrow and adjacent counties. Salary or commission. Address The Victor Oil Company, Cleveland, O.

Miss Ruth Forbes Brown, who has been attending school at Forest Grove, is spending the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brown.

We want 250 coyote, 100 lynx and 100 mink skins within the next 90 days and will pay you all value for them. Morrow Warehouse Milling Company.

Miss Elza Love, a teacher in the Hood River school, is spending vacation week at the home of J. F. Lucas and wife in Heppner. She will return to her work on Monday.

I have purchased the jewelry business of Arthur Smith and am prepared to do all kinds of watch and jewelry repairing, also plain and fancy engraving. I solicit your patronage. C. R. Johnson.

A happy Christmas was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Farnsworth in Heppner. All the members of the family were present with the exception of Frank P. and wife who reside in the Okanogan country in Northern Washington and could not come on account of duties which detained them there. Those present to enjoy the festivities of the season were: Mrs. Lattie Young, of Hot Lake; Wm. Beymer and wife, of Monument; Ed. Farnsworth and wife, of Rhea's Siding; Carl Farnsworth and wife, of Monument; and L. E. Bisbee and wife, of Heppner.

W. P. Dutton and wife entertained the following guests for Christmas at their home in Heppner: Mrs. Homer Hallock, and her two daughters, Mrs. James Welch and Miss Alma Hallock, and two sons, Blaine and Joe Hallock, Will H. Dutton and wife and young son. The guests arrived from Portland Saturday evening and returned Tuesday morning. A sumptuous Christmas dinner at 4 p. m. on Monday was a fitting climax to the pleasures of this family reunion.

The skating rink opened up on Tuesday evening, and a picture show will also be run in connection therewith. That horrible old music box was also started, and is shouting forth intermittent snatches of worn out airs much to the delight (?) of a suffering populace. There should be some relief from this even if it has to be "McNamaraized."

The New Year should mark the beginning of much work in Morrow County. Commercial clubs and booster organizations should do some effective work. Let the Commercial Club of Heppner start the ball rolling by selecting a good secretary, and then keep everlastingly at it. There are good things in store for us if we go after them.

The firm of Beach & Allyn, of Lexington, are sending out some nice calendars to their friends and patrons, accompanied by New Year's greetings. These people have worked up a nice trade in their line and are men deserving of the success with which they are meeting.

Wallace W. Smead will continue in charge of the Heppner post-office, having been named for that place by President Taft. Wallace has held the job for two terms and this is his third appointment. He is receiving the congratulations of his friends.

From reports snow is beginning to pile up in the mountains and there should be an abundance of reserve moisture stored up in the timber belt during the next few weeks. On the foot-hills and lowlands, however, there is need of much more precipitation.

Services at the Christian Church this week will be as follows: Thursday evening at 7:30, prayer meeting. Sunday forenoon, Bible school and communion; evening, Christian Endeavor and sermon. All invited.

William Hendricson and wife, of Colfax, Wash., and Mrs. Grant Forman and daughter Vernita, of Albany, arrived in Heppner Saturday for a visit at the home of O. P. Hendricson and wife during the week.

A. L. Ayers and wife returned on Tuesday evening from a visit of four weeks with relatives in Portland. A little too much rain down that way for comfort, and they are glad to come home where it never rains.

A. W. Goodman who has been in charge of the clothing department at Minor & Co's, for the past three years, has resigned his position and departed for Portland in quest of another position.

Frank Stevenson returned the last of the week from Grant county after an absence of a few weeks. He was engaged in putting in some concrete work for J. H. McHaley.

Go to Gilliam & Bisbee's for Community Silver guaranteed for fifty years.

If you are looking for the best thing in heaters, don't overlook the "Oakwood" at the Furniture Store.

For a first class smoke, try Hendricson & Gurdane. They have a complete stock of the very best.

An A. J. Jordan carving set will make a nice Xmas present. The only place to get it is at Gilliam & Bisbee's.

Deputy Clerk Mallory and Deputy Sheriff Rasmus departed for Portland on Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with their home folks.

Harry Cummings is home from a trip to Hermiston and Stanfield. He is contemplating moving his nursery business to the vicinity of Hermiston.

We sell Kodaks and Kodak supplies for less than you can buy them elsewhere. Buy of us and save time and money. Patterson & Son, the REXALL Store.

Appropriate Christmas entertainments by the various Sunday schools of the city were held on Saturday evening and many youngsters made happy by the visit of Santa Claus.

Prof. Hoffman, of the High School departed Saturday morning for a visit with friends at Astoria and Portland and to attend the meeting of the state teachers' association.

Joseph J. Hughes came up from The Dalles on Friday and spent Christmas with his parents. He expects to be located permanently at The Dalles after the first of the year as round-house helper.

On and after January 1st, 1912, the Heppner post-office will close at 6:30 of evenings. All mail for the Hardman-Monument stage line should be in the office by this hour. W. W. Smead, P. M.

W. H. Dutton reports that he calls on Chris Borchers and Pap Simons frequently at the Odd Fellows Home in Portland, and says they are both doing fine. Pap recently made a visit to the home of his son, Bert and also to friends at Salem, and is well contented with his surroundings. They are greatly cheered by visits from Heppner friends.

Heppner, Oregon,
Dec. 28, 1911

Customers & Friends:

We wish to thank you for the many favors of the past, and that the future may have an abundance of happiness and prosperity in store for you is our sincerest wish. Yours truly,
MINOR & CO.

GOODS THAT HAVE QUALITY

FAMOUS

$1.50 The Box Hole Proof Hosiery $2.00 The Box

For Men, Women and Children

Guaranteed to wear Six Months or new Hose FREE.

For Sale by SAM HUGHES

Heppner, Oregon, December 19, 1911.

THE Management of the Palace Hotel will give a Country Dance on January the First, Nineteen Hundred and Twelve. This will include supper, all absolutely FREE. Everybody in Eastern Oregon is hereby cordially invited to attend. The best of order will be maintained and nothing left undone to make it one of the most enjoyable occasions ever held in Morrow County. If you dance, or believe in fun this means you. The best of music will be secured. Floor management under direction of Orve Rasmus, A. Rood, Jr., Ed Currin and John Kenny. Dancing will begin at Eight-thirty sharp. MADDOCK & COMPANY.

Business Change.

I have disposed of my interest in the jewelry business to Mr. C. R. Johnson who will continue at the old stand. I consider the residents of Heppner and vicinity are favored in having Mr. Johnson locate here, as he is up-to-date at watchmaking, jewelry engraving, etc. I return my grateful thanks to those who have been my patrons, especially to the many who have remained constant during the past 28 years. Those indebted to me will please settle at their earliest convenience. ARTHUR SMITH.

Karl L. Beach and wife were up from Lexington Tuesday. Mr. Beach has about entirely recovered from his long illness and is again able to take up his business affairs. A serious spell of typhoid, followed by other complications, put him off duty for several months.

A fashion note says that belts, gloves and neckties of rattlesnake skin will be worn a good deal by women this winter. We knew the poor rattlesnake would come to it sooner or later. It was about the only varmint left that women did not wear. Think of a woman going arrayed in a silk-worm dress, seal skin shoes, whalebone stays, kid gloves, horse hide belt, tortoise shell comb, fish scale trimmings, stuffed canary birds, clam shell buttons, Spitz dog muff, camel hair underwear, mink tail callarette, alligator hide purse and now a rattlesnake necktie. Solomon in all his glory wasn't such a manager as one of these—and yet we love them no matter what they wear.—Ex.

You make no mistake when you buy a Crescent Range. They are guaranteed. Sold by the Case Furniture Co.

Notice To Stockholders.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Galloway Telephone Company will be held at the office of the Slocum Drug Company in Heppner, Oregon, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., on Saturday, December 30, 1911, for the purpose of electing officers and the transacting of such other business as may be called to the attention of the meeting. D. O. JUSTUS, President.

Dated at Heppner, Oregon, this 7th day of December, 1911.

For Sale.

A few thoroughbred Ancona cockrels at $3.00 and $5.00 each. J. A. Waters, Ione Ore.

Insure your house with the Oregon Fire Relief of McMinnville—the old reliable company. GEO. CURRIN, Local Agent.