Frank Anderson was a visitor to Heppner over Sunday. Crop prospects are splendid with Frank and his neighbors.

No better meals served in Heppner than at the O. K. restaurant. Times are close. We serve meals at 25 cents.

H. L. Hagey, a prosperous farmer of Dundee, Ore., has been in Heppner several days this week looking over the realty situation.

Judge D. R. Parker, of Condon, will be in Heppner on February 27 to pass judgment on the local option cases and to hear arguments on the Kelly case.

The Ross Squirrel Poison—guaranteed only 25 cents per can at Slocum Drug Co. The Squirrel Poison that kills.

Gilbert Coats of Eight Mile made us a pleasant call on Wednesday and put oil on our wheels. Like all other farmers of his section, he is very optimistic as to the crop outlook and expects an abundant harvest.

Arch Cox reports that his "royal family" of thoroughbreds, consisting of ten ewes are setting the pace for the sheep men this season. Nine of them have produced twin lambs, while one had triplets, making 21 in all. Of the latter, one has died but all the rest are flourishing. 200 per cent is a pretty fair increase, and if this is to be an index to what the sheepmen of the county are to get, there will surely be a big vote for Taft in Morrow county this fall.

The Rebekahs will give a Rag-amuffin party at Odd Fellows hall on Saturday evening Feb. 24. The Rebekahs, their husbands and sweethearts are invited. All coming in good clothes will be fined 50 cents.

"Hark hark, the dogs do bark, The beggars are coming to town Some in rags and some in jags And some in velvet gowns.

Come before supper, wear your oldest clothes, bring plenty of pennies and don't go home until you have too.

C. W. Standish and wife, of Brownsville, came up from Lexington, Sunday, and visited at the home of Dr. M. A. Leach and wife until Wednesday morning. They have been spending a couple of weeks in this county with relatives and will visit Pendleton and Walla Walla before returning home. Mrs. Standish is a sister of Dr. Leach.

The Young Ladies Missionary Circle of the Christian church met at the home of Miss Clara Reed on Tuesday evening. After an interesting program the young ladies were delightfully entertained by Miss Clara and a most pleasant evening was spent. A delicate luncheon was served.

We are in receipt of a letter from Forest Grove, Oregon, announcing the marriage of John R. Olden, of Morrow county and Miss Lottie Gifford, of Forest Grove, last Sunday at high noon, in the parlors of the Washington Hotel at Hillsboro. A full account of the wedding will be given next week.

Jefferson Evans was up from his farm east of Lexington on Saturday and says there is nothing that could happen to prevent a good yield of grain in his locality this season. The best outlook for years and Mr. Evans knows what he is talking about.

Peter Brenner was in from Eight Mile Monday. He reports the best crop prospects in his section that he has seen since a resident of the county and he has lived here for the past 25 years.

Petitions are being circulated for Judge Lowell in the four Heppner precincts and should be completed by the end of the week and ready to file with the Secretary of State.

Jeff French returned on Monday evening from Battle Ground, Wash., where he had been to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Roscoe Day.

C. W. Valentine has taken charge of his place again below town and moved his family down there this week.

Gathering Friends

A LITTLE girl can always get somebody to play with by using the Bell Telephone. It is just as useful to her as it is to her elders.

There is no need to be lonesome with a telephone in the house, because you can at least talk with your friends, even though they are far away.

Bell Service is universal.
