POOR FARMER JOHN.

BY MRS. M. M. B. GOODWIN. Old Farmer John is sore perplexed— Nay, Farmer John is really vexed; He labors early, labors late Yet ever talks of adverse fate: For all his toilings scarce suffice.

The summers come, the summers go, The spring showers waste the winter's The while, from dawn till close of day, Receiving naught but frowns for pay; His good wife toils; and anxious care Has faded lips and cheeks and hair.

EDITOR AND PUBLISHER. Acres on acres stretch away Of woodland, corn, of wheat and hav: His cattle roamed o'er many a hill, His brooklet turns the groaning mill; Yet still be sighs, and groans for more,

And grumbles o'er that he is poor.

Claimed at his hands a father's care, He gave them labor without end, And strove their souls, like his, to bend Into the grove of thought; Gold to be earned, land to be bought.

Yes, Farmer John is growing poor! You feel it as you pass his door,

No book; no pictures on the wall; Carpetless rooms and dreary halls, Why think it strange such farmer's
