

THE ENTERPRISE.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, JAN. 28, 1876.

NOTICE.—No certificates of publication will be given until our fees are paid. We shall make no deviation from this rule in future.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.—The union meetings held at the Baptist church have for several weeks attracted large audiences; and, especially during the last week, the house has been filled to its utmost capacity. Able speakers of this place and from Portland have discoursed on the "way of life" to eager listeners, and many like the publisher of old, are enquiring: "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" On Thursday night of last week, a Dr. Howard and Mr. Shambro, an ex-soldier keeper, were here. The General possesses a clear, rich voice and pleasant delivery, and by his earnestness in the good work, verifies the truth of Fighting Joe Hooker's remark that "Gen. Howard is better qualified to lead a prayer meeting than an army," however well qualified he may be for the latter. Mr. Shambro is emphatically a reformed man; from keeping a saloon in Portland a few months ago, he has become an active member of the church, and an earnest and effective worker in his Master's vineyard. Listening to his earnestness, and seeing the reformation of a man, many moved to tears, and said to Agrippa to the apostle Paul: "Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian." Much of this religious work in Portland is owing to the labors of the Young Men's Christian Association, and the question is asked by many: "why should not we have such a society here?" Certainly we have no lack of young men who might be reformed and saved by such an institution.

NEW BOOKS.—A lot of new books have just been received at the Public Library. They were purchased of J. K. Gill & Co. of Portland, and selected by Mrs. J. De Vere Johnson. Among them we notice the following: Shakespeare, Herbert Spencer's Psychology, World Before Deluge, 4 vols., 8 vo. novels, 2 vols., British Enslavement, by DeBott, Jane Eyre, Wuthering Heights, 3 vols., Irving, Children Alibi, What Shall We Do Tonight, Geological Story, Habits of Good Society, On the Heights, Bronson's Election, Mind and Body, House of Seven Gables, 4 vols., Life of Captain John A. Smead's Last Journeys, 2 vols., Brice-Meade's, and a full set of the Waverley Novels.

BADLY BURNED.—The other day Mrs. Chas. Bolds was engaged in removing a "Christmas Tree," and undertook to crawl into the fire-place, but found it larger than she supposed, and the result of the consequences as the fire began to catch in the dry branches, she opened the door and started out with the burning brush, just as she reached the open air she slipped, falling directly into the flame which caught in her clothing and continued to burn, and before it could be extinguished. It was very fortunate that she escaped with her life.

LETTER LIST.—Letters remaining in the Postoffice at Oregon City, January 28, 1876: Bridget, Barney, Cutting, Chas., Jr.; Feaster, Mrs. Marietta P.; Green, J. G.; Gammon, Robt.; Haugen, Miss B. E.; Higgins, Mrs. S.; Katzman, Adam; Kortes, Henry; Lewis, Ross; L. J. Marston, Tip; Man, Jas.; Moffatt, Mrs. Victoria; Nicholas, A.; Potter, Oscar; Pende, Isaac; Porter, Mrs. E. J.; Smith, Geo. THE MARKETS.—Legal tenders, buying 87½ selling, 88½. Wheat in Oregon City has declined to 90 cents per bushel. Corn is worth 50 cents per bushel; butter 35 to 37 cents per pound; eggs 20 cents per dozen; chickens, spring, $3.00 per dozen; grown, $3.00; dried apples, 30 to 35 cents per bushel; plums, dried, 12 to 15 cents per bushel; prunes, 50 to 55 cents per bushel; bacon, sides, 12 to 15 cents per pound; ham, 15 to 20 cents per pound; wool is worth 22 cents per pound.

A MISTAKE.—The engineer of the Fannie Patton informs us that the City of Salem did not beat the Fannie in an up-river race last week. The City of Salem left the Portland twenty minutes ahead of the Fannie Patton but was soon overtaken, and would have been passed, had not the former "cocked sides" with the Fannie. As the latter had to stop at Independence of course the City of Salem shot ahead and arrived first at Albany.

CHINESE NEW YEAR.—On Tuesday last the week's festivities annually indulged in by our mongrel residents were commenced. Our Mayor wisely forbade them to fire their crackers after 10 o'clock P. M. The Woolen Mills had to acquiesce to the demands of these religiously inclined Celestials and grant them a holiday until Tuesday next, with which day the excitement culminates and ends.

THANKS.—The Oregon City Library Association are under obligations to Rev. L. Dillon for a contribution of valuable books. Mr. H. Y. Thompson and Senator Kelley also have the thanks of the society for public documents donated.

THE UNION SERVICES.—At the Baptist Church were conducted on Wednesday evening by Rev. Mr. Pierce of Portland, and on this (Thursday) Portland, General O. J. Howard will address the meeting. All are welcome.

Snow was three inches deep at Salem on the 22d inst.

On Saturday, the Columbia was so gorged with ice at Hood river as to prevent the passage of boats.

Rev. Mr. Peck has been lecturing the Salemites on ice. An appropriate subject this winter.

William Elijah, son of Mr. E. L. Bristow, of Salem, died on the 21st, aged about 17 years. He was the third child they have buried since the opening of the new year.

The Old Fellows' library at Salem boasts of 1,019 volumes.

Stage fare between Roseburg and Redding has been raised from 10 to 15 cents a mile.

The gophers have suffered severely this winter, being drowned out by the heavy rains. A Long Tomer says: "It does just go-pler 'em."

Yamhill county has caught the revival spirit.

W. W. Baker, publisher of the Stock Journal, of Portland, attempted to commit suicide last week by cutting his throat with an old jack-knife. We think this a bad example to set for the fraternity, but suppose delinquent subscribers wouldn't pay up.

Dr. John H. Haskell has the pleasure of being advertised as a professional "beater."

The O. S. N. Co. brought 11,180 tons of wheat and flour to the Portland market, from the upper Columbia, during the past year.

The freight house of the Westside Railroad, at St. Joe, burned down on last Friday night. Loss, $1,500.

The authorities of St. Joe are urged to take immediate measures for the improvement of the sanitary condition of that city.

The steamer Vancouver is laid up for repairs at Portland.

The Plait, at Shedd, has been shelved.

Marionettes want the Polkars to subscribe liberally for a bridge over to Salem.

Prof. Marsh, of Forest Grove, has started East on educational business.

POINT ELLIOT, W. T. Jan. 26.—It is reported from Snohomish City, this morning, that three boys—named Horace Lowe, Arthur Ball and Clayton Packard—were skating on the lake back of that city yesterday, when the ice broke and Horace Lowe and Arthur Ball were drowned. Clayton Packard narrowly escaped. The two bodies were found last night about 11 o'clock.

A Remedy that has made its Mark.

Success is the meed of excellence. The truth of this has never been more forcibly exemplified than by the triumphant career of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. No sooner did the people discover the genuine merits of that supreme invigorant and corrective than they hastened to stamp it with the seal of popularity. The press and medical profession speedily followed in the wake of the public, and emphatically endorsed it. Thus from the very outset the success of the Bitters as a remedy and preventive was established fact, and a degree of popularity which it often takes proprietary medicines years to attain, was achieved almost at a stride by the then new preparation. Since that time every successive year has witnessed fresh accessions to the favor with which the Bitters were early regarded, and the area of its popularity is no longer confined to the United States, but includes the British Provinces in North America and the West Indies, South America, Mexico, portions of Europe and Australia. That it is not only a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, urinary and uterine complaints, nervousness and debility, but also a preventive of those maladies to which air and water, impregnated with miasma, give birth, and where the Bitters have been long and constantly tested, it calls for no further corroboration than the fact that it has made its mark, cannot, we think, be regarded as doubtful, since there is probably no proprietary remedy more widely known, universally respected and emphatically endorsed than these Bitters.
