

Published by the Wallowa Chief Publishing Co., Wallowa, Idaho.

Entered as the postoffice at Wallowa, Idaho, as second-class matter.

SUBSCRIPTIONS LISTED

See page 12 for subscription rates and advertising information.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1920.

Russian Education.

The "intelligentsia" of Russia write the St. Maurice Star in "a letter to Russia" in which they are pleading for aid in their educational work.

They are concerned with the Russian children. They offer to spend ten to fifteen dollars a month for the education of Russian children.

Every one receives a general first class of knowledge. The average Russian boy starts with about English but at some Russian school.

Head Dress.

Take a girl's head, proper hair, and bring the lower halves to a point, thoroughly clean, and be sure to wash over night. Put in hair in plenty of water, and let it sit for ten minutes.

Real Estate Transfers

Week Ending December 31, 1919—Reported by Wallowa Law, Land & Abstract Co.

- List of real estate transfers including names like J. C. Hall to Crown Trust Co., J. C. Hall to Crown Trust Co., and others.

Information Concerning Eighth Grade Final Examinations.

- Information regarding exam dates: January 12-13, 1920; May 12-13, 1920; June 12-13, 1920.

- Administrators Notice: The County Court of the State of Oregon, for Wallowa County, has ordered the sale of the estate of Martha J. Brown, Deceased.

Administrators Notice: The County Court of the State of Oregon, for Wallowa County, has ordered the sale of the estate of Martha J. Brown, Deceased.

Public Land Sale: Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office at La Grande, Oregon, December 31, 1919.

Game Laws: Any person knowing of any violation of the game or fish laws of this state, or of persons not properly licensed, are requested to notify the Game Warden.

Their Cause For Thanks.

By Charlotte Carruthers.

Copyrighted, 1919, by the Associated Literary Press.

When Dick Waring suddenly entered every Linda Mills in whom he had just become engaged, Dick Henry Waring showed, evidently on the heels of the old, a most wonderful production.

"No more Dick Waring" said Linda Mills, and comfortable shreds of his byproduct and wraith a home of his own.

A year later Linda Waring was getting the final touches to her dinner table. It was Thanksgiving day, and Dick was home for the holiday.

The Scrap Book

By Charlotte Carruthers.

Copyrighted, 1919, by the Associated Literary Press.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.

The Scrap Book

By Charlotte Carruthers.

Copyrighted, 1919, by the Associated Literary Press.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.

The Scrap Book

By Charlotte Carruthers.

Copyrighted, 1919, by the Associated Literary Press.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.

"This is my lovely dress" pronounced Linda with a wistful glance toward the window.