Wrestling from 1B

wrestlers battled all day against some returning state champions from Elmira and big schools from Willamette and Springfield.

"They earned definitely their titles."

Elmira, the returning state 4A champion team, won the team title with 267 points, followed by Philomath (164), Springfield (131), Siuslaw (113), Amity (85), Reedsport (65.5), Riddle (65), Junction City (64), Brookings (56.5), Newport (56), Gold Beach (55.5), Siletz (55), Creswell (49), Waldport (34), Willamette (24.5), Cottage Grove (3) and Taft (0).

Saturday, the Vikings will compete at the Sutherlin Classic, beginning at 9 a.m., where they will face off against Oakland, Douglas, Camas Valley, Cascade Christian, Glide and host Sutherlin.

The Vikings will have one more meet, the Cottage Grove Invitational, Feb. 6-7, before the 4A Special District 3 Regionals at Marshfield High School Feb. 20-21 for a chance to advance to state.
