

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

LIGHT—Corbie Darrel Light, 55, of Greenleaf, Ore., passed away Jan. 22, 2015, of an apparent heart attack while doing what he loved — working outdoors.

Corbie Light

Corbie was born in Salem, Ore., on Dec. 3, 1959, to Zella and Bernard Light.

He was an avid fisherman, worked at Fircrest Farms and was a painter.

He was always there to “Corbie rig” a stranded motorist or friend.

Corbie was preceded in death by his parents, Zella and Bernard Light; a brother, Kevin; and a sister, Sybil.

He is survived by twin sisters Valerie and Vickie Light and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service to celebrate Corbie’s life will be held this summer.

DUNHAM—Betty Jean Dunham, 87, of Florence, passed away Jan. 26, 2015.

Betty was born Aug. 3, 1927, in Charlotte, N.C., to Eldred and Mildred Nivens (Vanerburg) who preceded her in death along with her siblings.

Betty Dunham

Betty and her husband, Wayne, who preceded her in death in 2011, moved to Florence five years ago from Klamath Falls to live closer to their son Richard and daughter-in-law Pam, who preceded her in death, along with grandson John.

Betty loved being a homemaker and the country life.

She is survived by her son Richard and grandson John of Florence; her daughter Patricia Marley and husband Jim of Dublin, Ohio; and numerous grandchildren.

Betty and her husband, Wayne, will be inurned together at Eternal Hills Cemetery in Klamath Falls, Ore.

Burns’s Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of all arrangements.

Annual Lenten Renewal Weekend is Feb. 21-22

The 20th Annual Lenten Renewal Weekend will return to its beginnings this month with the New Life Lutheran Church congregation as hosts Feb. 21 and 22.

At the same church in 1995, five local churches began a tradition that had its roots in Africa, where founder Dr. A.J. Brauer met Brennan Manning, a Catholic priest doing missionary work.

Brauer persuaded Manning, an internationally known author, friar, priest, contemplative and speaker, to come to Florence to participate in that first weekend.

It was so successful that the five churches continued it the following year.

Over the next two decades, the Lenten Renewal has grown in stature and attracted ministers from all of the participating churches.

For many years, it continued at Florence Events Center.

For the past two years, the weekend was held at St. Mary, Our Lady of the Dunes Catholic Church.

At the Feb. 21 and 22 session, Stephen J. Patterson, a professor of religion and ethical studies at Willamette University, will officiate and explore the meaning of Lent and of Holy Week.

Saturday sessions will be at 10:30 a.m., 1 p.m. and 2:30 p.m.

On Sunday, a 10:30 a.m.

community worship service will be offered.

All sessions will be at New Life Lutheran, 2100 Spruce Street.

The community of Florence is invited.

Sponsoring churches are New Life Lutheran Church, St. Andrew Episcopal Church, Florence

United Methodist Church, Presbyterian Church of the Siuslaw and St. Mary, Our Lady of the Dunes Catholic Church.
