The Sentinel, an award-winning weekly newspaper and the voice of Oregon's South Willamette Valley for over a century, seeks the contributions of a journalist with a passion for community sports and events coverage. The ideal candidate will be as comfortable on the sidelines as at a City Council meeting and will excel at contributing high-quality stories, photographs and layout for digital as well as traditional news formats. There's always something happening in Cottage Grove, a quintessential timber town with access to many of Oregon's natural wonders, and we're looking for a reporter who's ready to be where the action is.

A four-year degree in journalism or a related field is preferred, but consideration will also be given to applicants with significant experience in a newsroom setting, particularly with a sports background. Necessary abilities include excellent writing and photography skills, professionalism and a talent for cultivating productive contacts across a wide variety of disciplines, from coaches, athletes and administrators to business and government leaders and public relations representatives. Experience with software such as Adobe InDesign and Photoshop is also ideal.

Those interested in applying for the position may send a cover letter, resume and no more than five clips to the Sentinel at cgnews@cgsentinel.com or by mail: 116 N. 6th St., Cottage Grove, OR 97424. Applications should be submitted no later than Monday, July 27 by 5 p.m.
