South Jetty Road reopens after storm closure

South Jetty Road, south of Florence, has been reopened following a storm-related closure on Dec. 10, according to the local Forest Service.

The road, which partially washed out and became impassable during last week's storm, has been repaired and is now safe for travel.

Accident causes power outage north of Florence

JACK DAVIS/SUSLAW NEWS

A two-car accident on Highway 101, just north of Heceta Junction, caused a power outage Friday evening. No one was injured, but one of the cars crashed into a power pole, causing a loss of power to residents north of Florence. Power was restored approximately 90 minutes later.

Pam Hickson, recruitment specialist for Three Rivers Casino Resort and the Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians, sets up at a recent Job Fair in Lane County.

The fair's aim is to bring both together to form a resource network in the community with the hope of creating an annual job fair event. Currently, the following businesses are set to participate: Banner Bank, Berkshire Hathaway, the Florence Chamber of Commerce, City of Florence, Driftwood Shores, Lane Community College, Oregon Pacific Bank, PeaceHealth Peace Harbor Medical Center, Safeway, Siuslaw Valley Fire District, Siuslaw News, Siuslaw Public Library, Siuslaw School District, Spruce Point Assisted Living, Three Rivers Casino Resort, and Worksource Lane (employment department).

For any business or individual interested in participating, the fair will be an ideal opportunity to reach out to interested applicants and talk with them in person before the peak busy season.

For more information or to sign up to participate, contact Pam Hickson at 541-902-6504.
