

Interact Club donates socks to SOS

Siuslaw Interact Club member Jaden Haley and Rotarian Liz Farm presented Siuslaw Outreach Services (SOS) with more than 200 pairs of new socks.

With co-chair Amelia Spires and 30 high school volunteers, they were able to fill a number of large boxes with brand new socks for all ages.

Haley explained that their group had placed sock collection boxes at Banner Bank, the Florence Events Center and Siuslaw High School.

Interact is sponsored by the Florence Rotary Club, which had already provided numerous donations to SOS during the holiday season.

"This is a wonderful donation for us, and the value is really quite high," said SOS Executive Director David Wiegand. "We have so many low income or homeless persons visit who are in need of socks, especially during the cold wet winter months. It seems like we have never had enough before today. We are so impressed by the generosity of these students."

License renewals due tomorrow

Florence Business licenses are valid through the end of the calendar year from the date of issuance. In November of every year, the City Recorder's office issues business license renewals for each permanent business.

These business license renewals are due tomorrow, Dec. 31.

All renewals received on or before Thursday, Dec. 31, will be allocated a $10 business license credit toward their 2017 business license renewal.
