FOUR VIKS HEADED TO STATE MATS

By NED HICKSON

Siuslaw News

When the top wrestlers in the state take to the mats at Veterans Memorial Coliseum in Portland on Feb. 24 and 25, among the names being called out over the echoing loudspeakers will be four members of Siuslaw’s wrestling team.

Richard Huff, a junior seeded at No. 1 in the state 4A’s 113-pound bracket, along with seniors Kainan Lane (285 lbs.) and Nick Steinman (170 lbs.), and sophomore Riley Jennings (152 lbs.) will have the chance to compete for a Mapleton boys basketball team managed an upset win to secure a spot at the state tournament. Leading the upset was senior guard Hunter Simington, who had a career-high 32 points in the game, along with 6 rebounds, 3 assists, 4 steals and 2 blocked shots.

“Hunter realized it could be his last night playing high school basketball, and he delivered the best game of his career,” said Mapleton coach Will Crook. “More than that, it was the best performance of any Mapleton player in my three years coaching.”

BROOKINGS: 68

The Siuslaw girls basketball team will wrap up its season at home this Friday following a tough loss on the road at Brookings-Harbor last Friday.

For the Bruins (11-10, 3-5), it was a chance to help secure a post-season appearance, which they did with a decisive 68-25 win. For the Lady Viks, it was their seventh-straight loss during a hard-fought season. Against the Bruins, Siuslaw got 4 points each from Alyssa Richards, Madison Reynolds and Destinie Tatum.

Reynolds, along with Mia Collins, had 6 rebounds.

Tuesday, the Viks were on the road at Douglas (after press deadlines) and will finish the season at home Friday against North Bend, beginning at 6 p.m.
