Republican Platform.

ADOPTED IN THE STATE CONVENTION, ALBANY, SEPT. 11, 1873.

1. That we look with pride and satisfaction upon the peaceful and prosperous condition of our country as the natural result of the application of the principles controlling the Repubcation of the principles controlling the kepub-lican party to the administration of National affairs; and that we reaffirm the principles of the party as heretofore enunciated in its Con-ventions, and declare that their practical en-forcement is essential to the welfare of the country, and the maintenance of the rights and liberties of the

2. That the Chief Executive of the Nation has our unabated and unqualified confidence, in his integrity, ability, and enlightened patriotism, in the administration of the duties of his high office.

his high office.

3. That we point the discordant and chaotic political elements which oppose the Republican party to-day, to the grand advances made by our Government in its political standing, financial credit, commercial importance, and the material development of the resources of the whole country, as the direct, natural and inevitable result of the enlightened policy and principles of the Republican party.

4. That we denounce the recent Act of Congress known as the Back Pay Bill, and the voting for, or receiving increased pay for services already rendered.

already rendered. 5. That we denounce all Credit Mobilier transactions, whatever their form, and we heartily approve of the action of the late Congress in exposing and punishing official correction.

6. That we favor retrenchment and reform and rigid economy in the expenditure of the public money, in the State and National administration, and the reduction of taxation as rapidly as consistent with good government and the maintenance of the public credit.

7. That we cordially welcome to our shores the oppressed of all countries, and remembering that our adopted fellow citizens have always proved loyal to the flag of the Republic, we demand for them the fullest protection of the laws, and faver increased facilities for nativation of the laws. uralization; but we condomn the coolie trade, and all forms of involuntary servitude, and affirm that the safety and perpetuity of free institutions demand more stringent laws to Nevent such traffic.

8. That the interests of this State demand, and its commercial relations with the other states of the Union, both present and prospective, will warrant, aliberal expenditure on the commercial comment in the imtive, will warrant, a liberal expenditure on the part of our National Government in the improvement of our harbors and river channels, and it is true policy of our people that they should be so represented in Congress as shall the most effectually accomplish this result.

9. That the true economy of the management of the public lands of the United States, as well as the settlement of our vast domain and the

as the settlement of our vast domain and the development of its resources, demand liberal grants of public land to aid in the construction of railroads and other public works, with such limitations and restrictions as will secure their ultimate sale to actual settlers.

ultimate sale to actual settlers.

10. That we are in favor of Congressional grants of the Public lands to aid in the construction of a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to some point of junction with the Central or Union Pacific Railroads in Salt Lake valley; of a railroad from the Rogue River valley to a junction with the Central Pacific in the Humboldt valley, and the extension of the Oregon and California Railroad to connect with the California and Oregon railroad, the completion California and Oregon railroad, the completion of the Oregon Central Railroad [to Astoria]; to aid in the building a capal and locks around the Cascades and Dalles of the Columbia river -and that we are in favor of an appropriation Congress for the survey and examination

11. That the interests of commerce demand the constrction of a breakwater at Port Orford in this State, and an appropriation by Congress thereof for that purpose,

12. That the protection of the commerce of the Columbia river demands the placing of a steam revenue cutter, with all necessary appliances, at the mouth of said river.

11. That the producing commercial and in-

13. That the producing, commercial and in-diastrial interests of the country should have the best and cheapest modes of transportation possible: and while capital invested in such means of transit should have a reasonable re-maneration, these interests should be fully pro-tected, and the facilities for transportation should be adjusted, so far as possible, to the wants of every part of the State, with no un-just discrimination as to any section, person or class; and that as capital and labor are insep-arably connected, and mutually dependant, the resources of the State will be best developed, and tee best interests of all classes promoted, 14. That the producing, commercial and inand tee best interests of all classes promoted, by mutual concessions and accommodations bet seen the producer and the carrier.

14. That we are opposed to the setting apart of the Willowa valley for an Indian reserva-tion, and the candidate of this convention is hereby pledged to use his influence to secure to white settlers the lands in said valley; that the Modec murderers of citizens on Lost river and Tule lake, in November last, should at once be delivered to the civil authorities of this State, so that they may be dealt with according to law; that we are in favor of a humane peace posicy towards peaceable Indians, but that full and complete protection should at all times he given to settlers on our frontier. at all times be given to settlers on our frontier, against the depradations of hostile and refrac-
