

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON :

D. C. IRELAND EDITOR

FRIDAY.....MAY 12, 1876.

The Salem Statesman of the 6th inst. says: "A number of citizens on the Upper Willamette, upon learning that the steamer Alice is to be laid up, declare that if Capt. Bell and Doc McCully are not furnished with a boat, they, the people, will build one for them."

A Paris correspondent says the interchange of views at Berlin on Salonic affairs resulted in a collective demand on the part of the European powers for the execution of the murderers, the indemnification of the families of the victims, a solemn salute to the French and German flags by the Turkish authorities and guarantees against similar massacres.

L. M. Starr, owner of the splendid Puget Sound steamer North Pacific, is preparing to refit and repair her prior to the Fourth of July, and has opened negotiations with the Oregon Steam Navigation Company for the purchase or the charter of a steamer from here, to take the place of the North Pacific during the time repairs are being made. The Annie Stewart will probably be sold for this purpose, and will soon leave the Columbia river trade.

We observe by the Olympia papers that Rev. M. G. Mann, late of Clatsop, has recently married Miss Minnie C. Cooper, late of Portland, at Puyallup. Mr. Mann is the Superintendent of instructions, and has charge also of the other departments of industry on the Puyallup Indian reservation. The bride is spoken of as having made herself heretofore very useful in the Christian duties of her newly wedded husband.

The sublime part of the programme at the grand opening of the Centennial exposition on the 10th, consists in the fact that the particulars were read throughout the world, on the following day, with a minuteness of detail quite astonishing. The prayer by Bishop Simpson, which was stenographically reported followed by Whittiers hymn, the presentation speech by the President of the Board, President Grant's proclamation, etc., etc., was all sent to Oregon, in the Press Dispatches, and was published in the Oregonian yesterday.

A correspondent of the Oregonian, writing from Washington under date of April 27th says: "Enclosed is the bill granting an extension of time for the completion of the Northern Pacific railroad, it passed the Senate by a vote of 35 to 18; and yesterday the House committee on Pacific railroads unanimously agreed to recommend to the House that it should pass, and directed Gen. Lanur, of Mississippi, chairman, to report the bill to the House. This, it is considered, will secure its passage. As the bill becomes a law the company will proceed to complete the road. The means to secure this end, the officers of the company feel confident they can obtain. Senator Kelly was before the House committee at every meeting for the last three weeks urging its passage, and making unanswerable arguments in favor of the bill. Representative Lane also did good service in the House, and Senator Mitchell in the Senate."

The Salem Mercury thus disposes of the rumor that the O. S. N. Co., has bought U. B. Scott's Independent line of boats.

The rumor in circulation that Capt. U. B. Scott, of the Independent line, had sold his boats, the City of Salem and Ohio to the W. R. T. and C. Co., proves to be false. We are informed that those boats have always had full freights every trip they have made, and Purser Hatch says it will be a long time ere the beautiful colors presented to the City of by the ladies of Salem will be hauled down, and that beautiful boat pass into other hands than the present owners.

Drifts and Tow Heads 1876.

Upper Astoria, Clatsop county, Oregon. April 24, 1876. At a Special meeting of the Columbia River Fishermens Beneficial Aid Society, the following regulations for the government of all concerned were adopted. That the following drifts and tow heads be established for the fishing season of 1876. First Drift. From Woody Island to Brown's point. Second Drift. From Brown's Point inside of Snag Island to the 12th red buoy. Third Drift. From the 15th buoy to Tongue Point. Fourth Drift. From Tongue Point to a point a little west of Booth's Cannery, at a place to be designated by a spile or some permanent mark. Fifth Drift. From the termination of the 4th drift to Smith's Point. Sixth Drift. From Smith's Point to the Pacific Ocean. Seventh Drift. From the red buoy in the Prairie channel to Tongue Point up or down. Eighth Drift. The big snag in Chinook shoot will be considered a tow head. The fishermen in Astoria, in council have mutually agreed to bind themselves to be governed by the foregoing drifts, and it is expected from boats outside of the Society that they will also conform to the same. Any fisherman who is not fortunate enough to be a member of this Society has still another opportunity to join this Society, by applying before the 10th day of May, 1876, in accordance with the notice published elsewhere in the ASTORIAN. After which time the initiation fees will be raised to twenty-five dollars. By order of the Society, THOMAS DEALEY, Sec.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The management would respectfully announce to the citizens of Astoria that this entertainment is in every respect first class, and should not be confounded with itinerant shows of no merit that at times inflict themselves upon the public.

"The general verdict was that the manager's promises had been completely fulfilled."—San Jose Mercury.

"The performance was of the character indicated by the name of the Troupe—light, mirth provoking, and in many particulars reaching—to use the language of the Manager—the highest standard of Refined art."—Portland Evening Journal.

Last evening the celebrated Worrell Sisters appeared to excellent advantage, and their Songs, Dancing and Sketch acting pleased immensely, judging from the hearty applause they won. It is needless to mention the songs and Dutchisms of Geo. Knight. He never fails to make a "palpable hit" whenever he appears. To hear him in his famous speech affords enough fun alone to pay for the price of admission. Geo. Richards, the India Rubber man, who is as elastic and lithe as a steel spring, contributed in no small measure to the enjoyment of the entertainment by his clownish antics. In his speciality of "Flowey, Flowey," he is certainly imitable.—Oregonian, May 6, 1876.

SHERIDAN CORBYN, Manager.
