The Astoria Literary Society meets this evening.

—Wheat is worth eighty cents a bushel at Salem and one dollar at Astoria.

—Salem boys under 20, found on the streets after nine p. m., are locked up in the city jail.

—The board of pilot commissioners met in Portland to-day. Capt. Gray went up yesterday.

—E. C. Holden advertises a lot of miscellaneous articles for sale at auction to-morrow morning.

—Oats will be shipped next week from a farm near Albany through to the N. P. R. R. front without breaking bulk.

—Lieut. Schwatka lectures on "Nimrod in the North," next Tuesday in the Congregational church at Portland.

—The fifty-first anniversary of the birth of James A. Garfield will be celebrated next Sunday evening in Portland.

—Portland is fast extending her street car facilities. Desirable routes are eagerly sought after by various companies.

—Capt. J. E. Denny arrived down yesterday afternoon. He takes immediate charge of the tug Pioneer, vice Capt. Pease.

—Rev. W. T. Chapman will hold divine service at the upper Astoria schoolhouse at half past three next Sunday afternoon.

—If you have any books, documents, or papers, etc., that you want bound, dorable, and cheap, bring them to THE ASTORIAN office and you will be accommodated.

—Chief of Police Lappeus, of Portland, who is on the incoming steamer, brings with him Alfred Anderson and Bertha Nelson, who are accused of murdering the latter's husband a few weeks ago.

—The Statesman says that arrange ments are being perfected by the post-office department officials for bringing the mail for Walla Walla, and Washington territory in general, by the way of the Northern Pacific.

—The indefatigable partners Selig & McCrea, the champion dead-wall decorators of the northwest, are illuminating the thoroughfares with gorgeous pictorial delineations of clowns, harlequins and columbines.

—Wm. Van Damme, who was recently convicted of an attempt to murder his wife, was last Wednesday sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. His friends quoted Pinafore and said "Damme, 'tis too bad."

—The Klickitat Sentinel editor has seen a potato that actually weighed three pounds. (Slow music.) It—the Sentinel—states that "it was a blue mechanic." We've heard of Meahannocks, but probably this is a new variety.

—Commissioner McFarland, in a recent decision, declares that when a person has failed to make entry to a tract of land through being misinformed of his rights by local officers, when otherwise entitled to make entry, he will be protected by the department and lose nothing, unless required to do so by the actual demands of the law.

—We see by the Portland papers that an individual named John Rine who was in some way implicated with another individual who shot a police officer in an attempt to steal some cigars from a saloon, was sentenced to a term of seven years in the penitentiary—for not getting away with the cigars! John evidently made a mistake. Had he come down to Astoria, deserted his wife and committed bigamy he could have got off before the same judge, by paying a fine of $300, all same Lawrence.

Reading Matter.

Those long winter evenings you need reading matter, and now that the close of the year is coming on don't forget that at Carl Adler's you can subscribe for any periodical newspaper or magazine published in the United States or Europe, Harper's, Frank Leslie's, etc., at publishers prices.

Convict Labor.

Goldsmith & Lowenberg, wholesale store and tin dealers and manufacturers in this city, signed a contract with the governor and superintendent of the penitentiary, on Monday, for the labor of convicts for the term of ten years, at forty cents per day of ten hours. The state reserves the right to use as many inmates as are necessary to keep up the work about the institution or do any other work that may be needed. There are 182 prisoners now, and about 140 will be turned over to the contractors, who will at once begin the construction of a stove foundry, and when completed, they will transfer that portion of their business from Portland to the prison.—Standard.

The Northern Pacific.

The track of the Northern Pacific was laid yesterday to the second crossing of Clark's fork, 312 miles from Wallula junction and four miles beyond Belknap. Crossing will be made on false work by Saturday night. The advance force of graders are at the 326th mile, and the 335th mile will be completed about December 1st. Contractor Dunn, working west from Missoula, is pushing west with vigor. Mud and snow interfere somewhat with operations on Clark's fork, but in the course of a month the roughest places will have been passed and then the gap between the front and Missoula will be rapidly closed.—Oregonian, 16th.

Logic from "Long Tom."

ASTORIA, Nov. 15, 1882.

Ed. ASTORIAN: Your article this morning was well put, in answer to the article in yesterday's Oregonian, relating to the "Astoria Barge." In fact, you have drawn the matter mildly. Let us see how it was with the Astoria and Patrician, both of whom have just now cleared.

The Patrician took on 1,099 tons of wheat at Portland and 870 short tons were lightered down to her and put in at Astoria. Let us see, then, what it cost her to go to Portland and get her load, and how much it would have cost her to have accepted the Astoria Transportation company's proposition to have her loaded at Astoria; and how much her owners would have saved if she had loaded at Astoria. I do not wish to compromise the captain by giving these figures; they are not obtained near right to show that we are right in saying that vessels can load at Astoria cheaper than they can by going to Portland. Now, here is the estimate of the Patrician's expenses in going to Portland:

Towage up and down..... $580 00
Pilottage, say..... 96 00
Lighterage, 970 tons at $1.25..... 1,212 50
Three days' time to ship going up and back..... 300 00
Total..... $2,088 50

There are other little matters of expense we will not reckon in dollars and cents, such as danger of collision, tearing the copper from ship's bottom, etc., for we find that the vessel has already incurred an expense to her owners of something over $1 per ton on total cargo, in going to Portland.

Now what would it have cost her to load at Astoria? She would have paid out just 62 cents per ton on her full cargo of 1,990 short tons or $1,225. Subtract this from the $2,088.50, and you will see that the Patrician would have saved the sum of $863 if she had loaded entirely at Astoria.

Now for that beautiful ship the Astoria, named after our enterprising city. I have often thought that the owners of that vessel probably intended to load that vessel the first trip at Astoria. I am quite certain that the second loading will be made at Astoria, if in the Columbia river. The Astoria brought down from Portland in the vessel 970 short tons and had lightered to Astoria 989 short tons wheat. In all her full cargo was 1,959 short tons. The folly of sending her to Portland to load can easily be seen without going into details, since it will not be disputed that it cost that vessel more to bring to her the lightered cargo than the Astoria Transportation company would have charged to bring the whole cargo of that vessel down from Portland and put it in the vessel at Astoria.

The Astoria large company have proven that in carrying grain and flour at 62 cents per ton they can make 20 to 25 cents per ton clear profit if they have work to do, and will bring shipping to Astoria. Is not the river free so that it can be allowed to do it? Yours,

LONG TOM.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. ISMAN, Station D, New York City.

Various Causes.

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYES HARE VIGOR will restore faded or gray hair, or red hair, to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed. It is used directly on the hair, and is beautifully shown on brassy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. It is harmless and safe in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It cures itching and red hair, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous.

Great Run.

The pure Java Coffee sold by A. M. Johnson & Co. only, is having the largest sale of any brand of prepared coffee ever brought to this market.

Success.

The sale of Syrup of Fies is simply immense. Everyone is taking it, and all admit that it is the best medicine ever used. Children cry for it on account of its pleasant taste, and grown people who have used it once never take anything else. Unlike other remedies for biliousness and constipation it never loses its power to act, and it always leaves the organs on which it acts stronger than before. Besides, one feels fresh and bright and realizes that it is his own work. W. E. De ment, druggist, is agent for Astoria. Hodge Davis & Co., Wholesale Agents, Portland Oregon.

Mothers should know it.

Fretful babies cannot help disturbing everybody, and mothers should know how soothing Parker's Ginger Tonic is. It stops babies' pains, makes them healthy, relieves their own anxiety and is safe to use.—Journal.

To the Public.

I take great pleasure in informing the traveling public that I have moved into my new hotel on Jefferson and Hanilton streets, and will endeavor to keep as respectable a house and set as good a table as any hotel in the northwest. I also take this method of publicly thanking the Hansen Bros., architects and contractors and builders of my hotel for the masterly and workmanlike manner in which they did their work, and for bringing many dealings with me in our business transactions.
