A TRUE INCIDENT.

A Pointed Illustration of What Can Be Accomplished With Five Dollars.

Even a small amount of money in constant circulation may cancel many obligations, or serve to give honest employment to willing workmen. What helps one man is likely to help another; and he who pays his debts does more towards liquidating the debts of other men than he will be likely to imagine. The following incident, founded on a real occurrence, illustrates our meaning.

A. owed fifteen dollars to B.
B. owed twenty dollars to C.
C. owed fifteen dollars to D.
D. owed thirty dollars to E.
E. owed twelve dollars and fifty cents to F.

All of the persons that these initials represent were seated at the same table.

A., having a five-dollar note handed it to B., remarking that it paid five dollars of the fifteen dollars he owed B.

B. passed the note to C., with the remark that it paid five dollars of the twenty dollars which he owed.

C. passed it to D., and paid with it five dollars of the fifteen dollars which he owed D.

D. handed it to E., in part payment of the thirty dollars he owed him.

E. gave it to F., to apply on account of the twelve dollars and fifty cents due him.

F. passed it back to A., saying: "This pays half of the amount I owe you."

A. again passed it to B., saying: "I now owe you five dollars."

B. passed it again to C., with the remark: "This reduces my indebtedness to you to ten dollars."

C. again paid it to D., reducing his indebtedness to five dollars.

D. paid it over to E., saying: "I now owe you twenty dollars."

E. handed it again to F., saying: "This reduces my indebtedness to you to two dollars and fifty cents." Again F. handed the note to A., saying: "Now I don't owe you anything."

A. passed it immediately to B., thus canceling the balance of his indebtedness.

B. handed it to C., reducing his indebtedness to five dollars.

C. canceled the balance of his debt to D. by handing the note to him.

D. paid it again to E., saying: "I now owe you fifteen dollars."

Then E. remarked to F.: "If you will give me two dollars and fifty cents this will settle my indebtedness to you."

F. took two dollars and fifty cents from his pocket, handed it to E., and returned the five-dollar note to his pocket, and thus the spell was broken, the single five-dollar note having paid eighty-two dollars and fifty cents, and canceled A.'s debt to B., C.'s debt to D., E.'s debt to F., and F.'s debt to A., and at the same time having reduced B.'s debt to C. from twenty dollars to five, dollars, and D.'s debt to E. from thirty dollars to fifteen dollars.

Redwood Freight Rates on Lumber.

Yesterday the O. R. & N. company and the Union Pacific fixed a rate of 55 cents per hundred on lumber from Portland to Denver, and from Portland to Omaha, Kansas City, Council Bluffs, St. Joseph and other Missouri river points. This is a reduction of 9 cents a hundred to Denver, and 5 cents to the Missouri river, from last year's rates. The rate from Chicago to Denver is the same as from Portland, and this will place our lumber men on an equal footing with the great lumber markets of the world. The new rates will be permanent, at least for this season, and all the saw mills in the state will no doubt find a ready market for their entire output.

Oregonian, 3.

Prohibition in Michigan.

DETROIT, April 8.—From all reports received, the Evening Journal now figures the majority against prohibition at 3,676. More complete returns in most places may cut down the prohibition vote. This (Wayne) county gives a majority against the amendment of 22,344, being an increase of several hundred over former reports. There is now no doubt that prohibition has been defeated.

Senator Mitchell's Opinion.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, commented to-day on the action of the interstate commission in this wise: "The action of the commissioners in suspending the operation of the fourth section as regarding the southern railroads was entirely illegal. They have no more right to do it than I would have. The law provides what the commission may do where the conditions of a long and short haul are similar. The southern roads put in a plea that competition with ocean water rates necessitated certain rates for long hauls, which would be lower in proportion than short haul rates in their territory. This is not a case of similar conditions but dissimilar ones, and the commission went entirely beyond its power in making the suspension."

No One Need Remain A Dyspeptic.

"I have been suffering for over two years with Dyspepsia. For the last year I could not take a drink of cold water nor eat any meat without vomiting it up. My life was a misery. I had had recommended Simmons Liver Regulator, of which I am now taking the second bottle, and the fact is that words cannot express the relief I feel. My appetite is very good, and I digest everything thoroughly. I sleep well now, and I used to be very restless. I am fleshing up fast; good strong food and Simmons Liver Regulator have done it all. I write this in hopes of benefiting some one who has suffered as I did, and would take oath to these statements if desired."
