SCROFULA

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a cure for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength to the body, and produces a more permanent result than any medicine I ever used.
—W. E. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.
—M. C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried various remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.
—M. C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, without relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.—Susan L. Cook, 909 Albany st., Boston, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach. Millie Jane Peirce, S. Bradford, Mass. †

ALLEGED FACTS.

Chicago has 10,000 more men than women.
Congress costs a little over $10,000 per day.
Balloon ascensions are made by moonlight in Cincinnati.
Thirty-one of the ninety-six counties in Tennessee contain no railroads.

The tiniest of screws go in watches. The smallest is 4-1,000 of an inch in diameter.
The Montreal Star reminds us that there are 1,000,000 Canadians in the United States.

The largest cannon in the world is in Ghent, Belgium. The diameter of bore is 2 1/2 feet.
Natural gas has caused in Pennsylvania in three years seventy-three fires, costing $900,000.
The public speaking during a presidential campaign costs about a million dollars. But talk is cheap.

At a depth of forty-five feet underground the temperature of the earth is uniform throughout the year.
Of the 200 gold-beaters in New York not one is a woman; while of the 900 gold-cutters not one is a man.

The railroad bridges in this country, if placed continuously, would reach from San Francisco to New York.
Colorado claims the first monument to Sheridan. It is "Mt. Sheridan," a Peak of the Rockies, 14,000 feet high.

There were in service January 1st on American roads 26,415 locomotives, the estimated value of which was $184,905,000.
A Chicago newspaper makes the statement that a railroad train arrives and departs from that city every minute of the day.

The question whether the Arab or the white man is to rule Africa seems likely soon to force itself upon the world's attention.
The total sum expended by the federal government since its formation in 1789 on the Mississippi river and its tributaries is $55,654,209.

A man who slept with his false teeth in place swallowed them and his throat was cut in order to get them out. He died in consequence.
An Augusta, Ga., citizen only thirty five years boasts of being a grandfather. Both father and son married at the ripe age of seventeen.

On a Florida railroad they have a machine at stations so that passengers can drop a nickel in the slot and see how long they have to wait for the train to come.
A precious collection of ancient newspapers is being formed by a Connecticut literary man. He already possesses 51,000 copies of journals, representing 8,000 different publications.

A large percentage of the men employed as heaters in the iron mills at Pittsburg are more or less troubled with defective sight. The nature of their work compels them to gaze into the dazzling light of metal at white heat.
It is only sixty years ago that the first stage carrying the United States mail westward passed over the Allegheny mountains. The road taken by the stage was from Cumberland, Md., to Wheeling, a distance of 130 miles.

Dyspepsia and indigestion are killing more people than run, ten times over. When a man has dyspepsia his stomach is always with him and he is always conscious of it. He can't sleep, his food doesn't taste right, he's morbid. Your stomach ought to be your best friend, and it will be if after eating you will take a little Simmons Liver Regulator to assist digestion and allay all irritation.
After eating a hearty supper, if I take about a teaspoonful of Simmons Liver Regulator, I never feel the effects of the supper eaten.—OVID G. SPARKS, ex-Mayor of Macon, Ga.

It is said that not one-tenth the quantity of snuff is bought and sold in New York that there was fifteen years ago. The chewing habit is also dying out, but more slowly; but the demand for cigars and the youth destroying cigarettes ever increases.

Not a particle of quinine nor any mineral substance is contained in Ayer's Ague Cure—yet it is a warranted specific for malaria.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

The great mistake men make is this: They strive to increase their earnings, but they do not try to increase their earning capacity. They complain of the selfishness of employers, when, if they were wise, they would see that in this selfishness lies their greatest opportunity. The selfish employer is always on the lookout for the man who will serve him best and bring the most money into his treasury. He lies awake at night wondering where he can secure such a man. He is willing to reward capacity and fidelity liberally, not because he is generous, but because it is his interest to secure better service and better returns. Many of our young men have been quick to understand the situation and they have risen in the world.

For scrofulous disorders, and mercurial diseases, the best remedy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
A piece of pumice stone as large as one's fist soaked in coal oil and wired to a pole makes a good torch for burning insect webs out of fruit trees. A piece of soft brick may be used if pumice stone is not at hand.
