HOW TO WASH DISHES.

One Form of Domestic Work That is Always Wearisome.

A writer in a domestic journal says: One of the most wearisome domestic tasks which falls to the housewife doing her own work is the "never-ending, still-beginning" washing of dishes. It is often a real pleasure to prepare a dainty, palatable meal; a well earned satisfaction in viewing the work of one's hands in the light, sweet loaves of white or brown bread, the roast of flesh or fowl, done to a turn, the perfect cake, quivering custards, etc. But no one of these toothsome viands can be brought to pass without the aid of various pans, spoons, cups, etc., all to be cleaned for, perhaps, immediate use again. They must be washed by hands already weary, for modern invention, fertile as it is, has not yet, to my knowledge, produced an automatic dishwasher and drier. It is discouraging, and few things sooner bring the tired housekeeper's spirit down to zero (especially if the mercury has already gone down to that point) than a kitchen table full of sticky, greasy, unwashed dishes greeting her as she rises from breakfast or dinner, and in addition to the dishes used upon the family table. A very great help is to wash as you go, have your pan, with hot water and cloth handy, on the table, and as fast as you dish articles from the stove or range wash the cooking vessel. Rinse out frying-pans, kettles, etc., with very hot water to take off the grease. Chain dish-cloths readily take off whatever sticks to the side of the stew-pans or pots, or a common clam shell may answer the same purpose.

As nearly all cooking utensils are more easily washed when warm, washing as you go saves time for the dining room work after the meal, besides setting the kitchen sooner in order. Keep several thick holders near the stove, to save your hands (and towels) in lifting hot kettles and pans. Never take hold of these with the dish-cloth, as you wish to keep that important kitchen appliance entirely free from pot black and grease. By taking some simple precautions the cooking vessels can be washed with almost as much ease as your china service. By having your pan and hot water ready you may sit down to breakfast or dinner with the sense of relief that the kitchen things are out of the way—until next time.—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

A Philadelphia newspaper says that the prevailing impression that "the old time, broad-brimmed sugar-scoop Quakers" are dying out is erroneous, at least as far as Philadelphia is concerned. Twenty-five years ago the same impression prevailed, but to-day the benches in the meeting houses are as full as then.

Van Buren and Cleveland are the only two Democratic presidents who were candidates for re-election and were defeated. It was a Harrison that did the business for them in both cases.

PARENTS CRIMINALLY LIABLE.
More than half of all deaths occur before six years of age. An army of innocent, lovely children are swept needlessly away each year. Parents are criminally responsible for this. The death rate of children in England is less than half this. Acker's English Baby Sooter has done more to bring this about than all other causes combined. You cannot afford to be without it.
J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Cauliflower seed are eight times as valuable by weight as silver. They sell at $8 an ounce.

TERRIBLE FOREWARNINGS.
Cough in the morning, hurried or difficult breathing, raising phlegm, tightness in the chest, quickened pulse, chilliness in the evening or sweats at night, all or any of these things are the stages of consumption. Acker's English Cough Remedy will cure these fearful symptoms, and is sold under a positive guarantee by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The cost of the Sioux City, Iowa, Corn Palace is given as $56,000.

THE FIRST SYMPTOMS OF DEATH.
Knowing that a cough can be checked in a day, and the first stages of consumption broken in a week we hereby guarantee Acker's English Cough Remedy, and will refund the money to all who buy, take it as per directions, and do not find our statement correct.
J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Some Notorious Prisoners.

"How some of the most notorious characters at the 'pen' are employed would make a good item, wouldn't it?" said an officer of that institution to a Statesman reporter yesterday. "I will tell you about a few," continued he, "and you can print it if you wish. William Dillion, a life-time man, who killed Mancini in the Argonaut saloon, Portland, is in the foundry, and is considered a model prisoner. He is smart enough to know that it will pay him to look well to his p's and q's, and he acts accordingly. Capt. W. W. Saunders, also a 'lifer,' for killing Charley Campbell, at Albany, is the hospital steward, and is as popular as any man about the prison, both with the convicts and the officers. He is a finished, gentlemanly fellow, with scholarly attainments, and he is so efficient that his services are indispensable. You know he comes of a family of fine physicians, and had some education in that line himself, so he makes a splendid steward for the hospital. Dan Moran, of Portland, is looking out for his personal interests by conducting himself properly and earning the full number of credits. Bill Daly, another notorious man from Portland, is now a trusty, and has but a few more days to serve. Cecil Berbe, who defaulted with funds belonging to Schindler, of Portland, is a book-keeper in the foundry, as is also C. P. Dixon, the defaulting agent of the Canadian Pacific railroad. The latter is a very bright fellow, and is a good prisoner. Charley Harding, who was the accomplice of "Pearl Page," in the robbing of an Alaskan, is now quite an expert moulder in the foundry, and is assisted by Poindexter, the famous cranksman who committed a large number of burglaries in Portland for the purpose, as he stated, of gratifying his wife's extravagant tastes. W. S. Johns, otherwise known as Warm Springs Johnny, who was pardoned recently by Gov. Penney, appears to have become attached to the prison, for he still hangs around, doing odd jobs, such as sawing wood, etc. J. J. P. McAllister, the 13-year-old paricide, is in the shoe shop, trying to learn the trade. He is very quiet and docile, and is very kindly treated by the officers, who pity his unfortunate condition.—Salem Statesman.

Which nationality furnished the most troops to the federal armies during the rebellion? From unofficial tables it appears that the Germans outnumbered the Irish, the proportions being 8.76 per cent as against 7.14 per cent.—N. Y. Sun.

W. O. Tuggle, LaGrange, Ga., writing about Darby's Prophylactic Fluid, says: "It is a priceless jewel as a disinfectant and deodorizer. My wife states for the benefit of young mothers that it is a valuable adjunct to the nursery." It is equally so to parents traveling with children. Not only is the fluid invaluable as a deodorizer, but a few drops added to the water in bathing will remove all eruptions from the skin, chafing, etc., and greatly refresh and soothe.

A toadstool will lift 340 pounds of solid weight while growing and a common cabbage head will burst staves thick as those used in pork barrels.

DO NOT SUFFER ANY LONGER.
Tired feeling, dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores, are all positive evidence of poisoned blood. No matter how it came poisoned it must be purified to avoid death. Acker's English Blood Elixir has never failed to remove scrofulous or syphilitic poisons. Sold under positive guarantee by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

The only place in which amber is found in paying quantities is said to exist in the Baltic sea.

BETTER THAN SUICIDE.
Professor Arnold says: "An incurable dyspeptic is justified in committing suicide." We will guarantee to cure any dyspeptic within three months by Acker's English Dyspepsia Tablets.
J. W. Conn, Druggist.

One Washington lobbyist is said to have lost $85,000 in election bets.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
THE BEST SALVE IN THE WORLD FOR Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sore, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. C. Dement.

A Secret Marriage Sustained.

A case involving the validity of a secret marriage has just been decided by the Nebraska supreme court.

The suit was brought by the wife. She alleged that she and her husband had been secretly married in Chicago. The ceremony was performed by a man who, as she supposed, was a minister, but she had never seen him before and did not know his name. There were no witnesses present. The marriage was kept a secret for more than two years.

The husband denied that there ever had been a marriage, or that any ceremony had been performed. He admitted that he had on more than one occasion acknowledged the plaintiff as his wife, and had known of her telling her family that they had been married, but he explained that this was done as a mere cloak to avoid scandal.

The court decides the case, which was a suit to have the wife's marital status and rights established, in favor of the complainant. It accepts her story, which was corroborated by other direct and circumstantial evidence, and holds that the marriage, though contracted in secret, and long kept a secret, was valid in law.

Princess Meternich, the eccentric leader of Austrian society, has become so thoroughly addicted to the cigarette habit that fears are entertained for her life.

The total mortality from yellow fever to the number of cases is in the proportion of about one to ten.
