Ask For Ayer's

Sarsaparilla, and be sure you get it, when you want the best blood-purifier. With its forty years of unexampled success in the cure of Blood Diseases, you can make no mistake in preferring Ayer's to any other. The fore-runner of modern blood medicines, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is still the most popular, being in greater demand than all others combined.

Sarsaparilla

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is selling faster than ever before. I never hesitate to recommend it."—George W. Whitman, Druggist, Albany, Ind.

"I am safe in saying that my sales of Ayer's Sarsaparilla far exceed those of any other, and it gives thorough satisfaction."—L. H. Bush, Des Moines, Iowa.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's Pills are the best selling medicines in my store. I can recommend them conscientiously."—C. Bickhaus, Pharmacist, Roseland, Ill.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommend it when asked to name the best blood-purifier."—W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio.

"I have sold your medicines for the last seventeen years, and always keep them in stock, as they are staples. There is nothing so good for the youthful blood as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—R. L. Parker, Fox Lake, Wis.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla gives the best satisfaction of any medicine I have in stock. I recommend it, or, as the Doctors say, 'I prescribe it over the counter.' It never fails to meet the cases for which I recommend it, even where the doctors' prescriptions have been of no avail."—C. F. Calhoun, Monmouth, Kansas.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
PREPARED BY
Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

WHITE MEN AT AUCTION.

Scenes at a Recent Sale in Arkansas Exemplifying a Remarkable Law.

"Going to the auction to-day?"
"Who's up?"
"Old Smith will be sold; fined for stealing bread, I believe."
"No; I guess I won't bid on Smith."
This excerpt of conversation is rendered possible and frequent in this interesting state by a remarkable law, whose execution presents some strange phases of the various moods of justice. This is the law comprising sections 1213 and 1214 of Mansfield's Digest:

"When any person shall be convicted of any misdemeanor under the laws of this state by any court of competent jurisdiction the court shall render judgment against the person convicted, which judgment shall direct that the person convicted be put to labor in any manual work-house, or any bridge or other public improvement, or that the person be hired out to some person, as hereinafter provided, until the fine and costs are paid, which shall not exceed one day for each 75 cents of the fine and costs. It shall be the duty of the sheriff or constable, immediately after the conviction of any person of any misdemeanor, to proceed at once to hire said person out (if the fine and costs are not paid or secured) to some person, company or corporation."

J. M. Chatworthy of this city is the latest victim of this process of authorized slave trade, and a description of the scene which his case presented forms a fair exponent of the general method employed in these sales.

Mr. Chatworthy had found it expedient in the interest of greater personal security, to carry a revolver on his person. This fact was developed in an unpleasant manner about a week ago, and Mr. Chatworthy was brought up before Justice A. C. Horley. The case against him was clear, and according to the laws he was fined $50 and costs, making a total of $55.50. Mr. Chatworthy could not furnish the money or security for it and he was put up for sale.

The event was duly advertised, and when the hour for the sale arrived it was found that the constable who was to do the "outrying" was a colored man. His efforts to dispose of his white victim at a high figure presented a spectacle which has probably never been duplicated in this country.

One of the first bidders was another colored man who wanted a hand on his farm. He offered to pay 15 cents a day for the use of Mr. Chatworthy. He was raised 5 cents, but before securing the raise he began making inquiries as to what the man had been convicted of.

"What is the man's offense?" he asked.

"He was carrying a revolver on his person," replied his colored confederate, the constable.

"That settles it," replied the bidder. "I don't want any hand to help me if he carries a revolver."
The contest then narrowed down, and finally Mr. Chatworthy's services were sold for the magnificent sum of 25 cents per day.

Mr. Chatworthy is now serving his term.

What do the people of the east think of this law?—Helena, Ark. Special to N. Y. World.

CHIEF OF POLICE SALE.
Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a warrant issued by the Auditor and Police Judge of the city of Astoria, in accordance with an order made by the Common Council of the city of Astoria, by ordinance No. 1065, entitled an ordinance ordering the Auditor and Police Judge to issue warrants for the collection of Cedar street assessments, approved February 20th, 1889. Said warrant bearing date the 25th day of February, 1889, commanding me to levy upon lot No. 4 in block No. 123 in the city of Astoria as laid out and recorded by J. M. Shively, to collect an assessment of twenty-three dollars, which assessment was made for the improvement of Cedar street between West-6th street and Salmon street by ordinance No. 1065, entitled an ordinance declaring the probable cost of improving Cedar street from West-6th street to Salmon street, approved December 18th, 1888. I have this day levied upon lot No. 4 in block No. 123 in Shively's Astoria, and on Monday, the 23d day of April, 1889, at one o'clock P. M. of said day in front of the court house door in the city of Astoria, Clatsop county, Oregon, will proceed to sell lot No. 4 in block No. 123 in Shively's Astoria, to the highest bidder therefor, to pay said assessment, cost and expenses of sale. Said sale to be for U. S. gold coin.
