ASTORIA, OREGON, SATURDAY, JULY 6, 1889

Fourth of July in Ilwaco.

The national holiday was grandly celebrated at Ilwaco. Thursday, that little burg swarming with people, all anxious to calebrate the day. The festivities opened with a grand procession at 10:20 A.M., headed by D. Markham as grand marshal, followed by the Ilwaco brass band, they coming one after the other. The Ilwaco fire department and a liberty car handsomelt decorated with flags, evergreens and flowers, containing beautiful little girls representing every state in the Unica, followed by citizens in vehicles on horseback and on foot. Arriving at the place designated for the exercises the president of the day, Mr. A. E. King, introduced judge J. J. Brumbach, who read the Declaration of Independent, and Dr. E. B. Stone, who delivered a very patriotic cration. The afternoon was spent in witnessing borse races, sack races, wheelbarrow races, greased pig, greased pole, a 1,000 yard foot race, won by Frank Tomkins, of the life saving graw. The celebration ended with a grand half in the evaning. It is estimated that over one thousand strangers were in the town.

Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria

Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria
Are spread by contagion, by the transfer of living matter. These particles come from the skin, the membranous lining of the mouth, nose and throat, and from the intestines and urinary organs. Disinfect promptly and thoroughly with Darbys Prophylactic Fluid, the great germ destroyer.

Prof. H. T. Lapton, of the Vanderbilt University, Tenn., says: "As a disinfectant and detergent Darbys Prophylactic Fluid is superior to any preparation with which I am acquainted."

Portand, July 5.—This morning the grand jury reported the following in dictments: R. Chinton, forging the name of L. Zimmermin on the 12th of June 2.

C. B. Sibert sewdly associating with Bertha Ware, and R. W. McConnell who murderously assaulted his daughter: law, Mary, residing in East Portland, June 1.

The following not true bills were reported: Joseph (Bunko) Kelly for having sent sailors out of the state without their consent, Bertha Ware accused of lewid association, with C. B. Sibert, Forgonically nothing. I don't know how to explain it. Old fishermen think the fish have crossed the Atlantic, and there seems to be some grounds for believing so, as many mackerel are now being caught off the Irish and English coasts. Taylor and James Allison accused of stealing a horse and bugy belonging to Geo. C. Sears, and E. A. McCay, accused of embezzling $100 from the Mount Hood laundry. Joseph Smith, obtaining money under false pretenses by soliciting poeuniary aid on false grounds—that his legs were broken and that he was suffering from spinal troubles.

The little schoomer Dolphin, owned by the Portland & Coast Steamship company, has been entirely overhauled and will leave out this evening for Shoalwater bay, laden with 100 tons general merchandise and hardwars, including two good sized botiers. DYSPEPSIA.

S that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspepties no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspeptics of active mental power and a bilious temperament are subject to Sick Headache; those, fleshy and phlegmatic have Constitution, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to gloomy forebodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper.

Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain,
