Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy.

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding from the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

A CELEBRATED CASE.

How a Jockey Won $4,000 on "Jubilee" at the Late State Fair Meeting.

Concerning a case which is now on trial in the Marion county circuit court, the Portland Telegram relates this story:

Chris. Peterson, the owner of the running horse "Jubilee," has gone up to Salem to stand trial for an alleged piece of race horse jobbery. Peterson lives at Sacramento, California, and was formerly trainer for J. B. Haggins. A gentleman who has been around the circuit and knows all about the ins and outs of race business, said:

"The trouble came about as follows: Peterson had 'Jubilee' entered for the mile and a quarter dash at the state fair meeting. Up to the day of the race he had failed to pay his entrance fee and had about decided to withdraw his horse, as he had joined a pool made up of Babb, himself and two others, who were each to put up $500 to back 'Coloma' to win."

"Hazlitt was to ride 'Coloma' but when he found out 'Coloma' was out to win and 'Jubilee' was not in the race, he thought he saw a chance for a 'hog killing.'"

"He prevailed on Peterson to enter 'Jubilee,' saying that he would ride him and protect 'Coloma.' That is he would ride 'Jubilee' and crowd out any horse likely to beat 'Coloma,' at the same time holding back 'Jubilee' so as to let 'Coloma' win."

"Peterson and his pool agreed to the arrangement, and 'Jubilee' was entered at the last moment. Then Hazlitt goes to work and buys the field, with 'Jubilee' in it, for all the money he had, and stood to win $4,000 on him. The race was run and 'Jubilee' came in an easy winner. Of course, there was a big kick raised, and all the inside men, Woolman, Babb and all of them, dropped a lot of money."

"When 'Jubilee' came in first Peterson thought that he had been jobbed by the pool, and refused to pay his $500 share of it. Babb and the others then attached 'Jubilee,' for the amount. Peterson gave bonds and sent the horse to Sacramento, and to-day stands his trial at Salem."

"Hazlitt skipped to California with a pocketful after throwing down all his friends."

"The above story shows how little chance the 'rank outsider' has when he bets on a horse race, for it is fair to presume that some such arrangement as the above is made on every race, and unless a man is on the 'inside' his winnings are like angel's visits."

Exactly What is Sought After. A safe, reliable, harmless, not repulsive remedy that can be taken without changing the regular diet or disorganizing the system; a vegetable compound assisting nature to get rid of impurities in a gradual manner as nature intended. Such is Simmons Liver Regulator, and a trial proves this to the most skeptical. Complete satisfaction is guaranteed, and certainly it is a satisfaction to find the head clear, the bowels regular, the blood purified and the breath sweet.

Since April 1 the jetty at the mouth of the Columbia has been extended 7,250 feet, and before the end of the month 607 feet more will be added, making the total extension for eight months, one mile and a half. The jetty now extends over two and one-half miles into the ocean, and between fifty and sixty feet is added to its length daily. Between 14,000 and 17,000 tons a month are being dumped into the jetty tramway.

Catarth Cured. A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease, Catarth, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a recipe which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren St., New York City, will receive the recipe free of charge.

DYSPEPSIA.

That misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a distended and unwholesome stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble which obstructs its normal action is a disease. It is the most common of ailments, and is subject to both children and the aged. Dyspepsia is not a disease, but a symptom of some other disease. It is caused by indigestion, and is the result of the accumulation of acid and morbid matter in the stomach. It is a sign of a diseased stomach, and is the first step towards a general debility. It is a disease of the liver, and is the result of an impure and unhealthy diet. It is a disease of the stomach, and is the result of a disordered and unhealthy action of the digestive organs. It is a disease of the bowels, and is the result of a disordered and unhealthy action of the eliminative organs. It is a disease of the whole system, and is the result of a disordered and unhealthy action of the entire organism.

The underlying cause is in the LIVER.

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Allay Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time

Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.

My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner, of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons' Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may all who read this and are afflicted in any way with indigestion or otherwise, use Simmons' Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised.—Wm. M. Kasner, Fort Valley, Ga.

Mr. Laker, (angrily)—No, indeed, I'll never allow a daughter of mine to marry Ted Lardy. The young idiot hasn't any sense at all. Mrs. Laker (quietly)—I think you are mistaken about that. He was refused as a jurymen in a murder trial last week. Mr. Laker—You don't say! Well, that alters it.

PEOPLE EVERYWHERE

Confirm our statement when we say that Acker's English Remedy is in every way superior to any and all other preparations for an unusual craving for stimulants which kills the mind of the child. Acker's Baby Soother is especially prepared to benefit children and cure their pains. It is harmless and contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Ex-senator Riddleberger has become a full fledged Democrat, and has taken the stump in Virginia for the full Democratic ticket. He has been a pretty good sort of Democrat since he went back on his party in the senate, and voted to confirm Lamar as justice of the supreme court.

CAUTION TO MOTHERS.

Every mother is cautioned against giving her child tanninum or paregoric; it creates an unusual craving for stimulants which kills the mind of the child. Acker's Baby Soother is especially prepared to benefit children and cure their pains. It is harmless and contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

Whether General Mahone is elected or not, he is having a good deal of fun in the Virginia canvas. His midnight meetings in the woods to talk the situation over are making the Democrats nearly crazy.

PIMPLES ON THE FACE

Denote an impure state of the blood and are looked upon by many with suspicion. Acker's Blood Elixir will remove all impurities and leave the complexion smooth and clear. There is nothing that will so thoroughly build up the constitution, purify and strengthen the whole system. Sold and guaranteed by J. W. Conn, Druggist.

There are over 100 different kinds of clams, but only two are served on the table.

Very Unbecoming.

Lovely tints in the wrong place are ref of their charm. A lemon colored countenance—the peculiar endowment of our pitted brethren who "hit the pipe"—is unbecoming. It suggests bile, putrefaction, and the infernal nature of the complexion. Pain beneath the ribs and shoulder blades, constipation, dyspepsia, furred tongue, and sick headaches, are the indications of the biliousness. For its complaint and its multifarious symptoms, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an infallible specific. It relates the bowels satisfactorily, but without griping or violence. To the secretion of bile it gives a due impulse, but banishes an excess of that sallow colored principle from the blood. Sick headaches, nervousness of the brain, and fur on the tongue disappear when it is used. It renews digestion, fortifies the system against malaria, counteracts a rheumatic tendency, and remedies inaction of the kidneys.

They talk of a ship canal between Edinburgh and Glasgow to cost $35,000,000.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. C. Dement.

Every family should be provided with a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is a specific for colds and coughs.

Contentment is better than riches, and when a man has both he has great reason to be thankful.

No fictitious, certificates, but solid facts, testify the marvelous work done by Ayer's Sasaparilla.

OPIE T. READ.

How He Obtained an Advertisement for His Paper.

Opie T. Read, the editor of the Astorian Traveler, is a very big man, with a tremendously heavy head of long, black, unkempt hair. One day he was passing the office of a well-known hair-restorative establishment on State street, Chicago. His partner, Mr. Benham, was with him, and said:

"We ought to get an advertisement out of this establishment."

Opie looked in and saw a family of country people inside. "I'll get it for you right now," said he, and in he walked.

The countryman had just taken off his hat, and was showing the manager how bald he was, and asking if he thought the hair would ever grow again on his head. Opie walked up to the manager, and, putting out his hand, warmly said:

"My dear sir, I have come a long way to thank you in person and to show you what your restorative has done for me."

He took off his old, black, slouch hat, and shook out his long and wonderfully thick, fine hair.

"There, sir," said he gratefully, "look at that. Four months ago, you remember, I was as bald as that electric lamp there."

The manager was a little dazed. This was rather more than he could swallow.

"What did you do for it?" put in the interested countryman.

"Used this restorative—four dozen bottles of it—according to directions."

The upshot of it was the countryman took two dozen bottles and went his way.

"There," said Opie to his partner, "now you talk business with this man, and I guess you'll get a pretty good advertisement out of him."

When the manager learned who Opie was he said:

"You can put me down for the biggest ad. in your paper, and send in your bill when you please."

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.

It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick-headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. J. W. Conn, Druggist.
