REVOLVERS IN KANSAS.

Topoka, Kan., Jan. 31.—The republicans are wrought up to a high state of excitement by the rumor that the populists will attempt tomorrow to remove them from the hall by force. Each republican has armed himself with a revolver and says he will use it if the populists attempt to resort to force.

HORRIBLE SUFFERING OF SAILORS.

Hamburg, Jan. 31.—Three sailors rescued from the wrecked ship Turkula subsisted for sixteen days on human flesh.
The master and eight seamen left the ship in a boat but nine men could not

THE HAWAIIAN REVOLUTION

Discussed at Yesterday's Cabinet Meeting in Washington.

ENGLAND WILL NOT PROTEST

A Large United States Squadron will be at Once Despatched to Honolulu to Protect Our Interests.

Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 31.—The discussion of the Hawaiian question at the cabinet meeting today was informal, and there being nothing before the body for its consideration, no action was taken. The matter of the reception of the commissioners of the Hawaiian provisional government concerns only the president and secretary of state, with whom their business must be transacted. There is seemingly no preparation being made at the navy department for sending vessels to Honolulu to support the Boston. The statement that 900 marines would be sent to Honolulu on the steamer Mariposa, lacks confirmation. The flying squadron consisting of the cruisers San Francisco, Atlanta, and Charleston, and the gunboat York- town, are expected at Barbadoes in a few days and they can easily be reached there by telegraph if it is decided to send any of the to Honolulu.

San Francisco, Jan. 31.—A special meeting of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce was held today to consider the question of annexation of Hawaii.
Resolutions were adopted urging the United States government to prompt acceptance of the proposed cession and requesting that the naval forces at Honolulu be augmented.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Representative Stanford of New York, today offered the following resolution:
"Resolved, that the sense of this body is that the time has come when the preservation and extension of our commerce and the upholding of our flag demand prompt action by this government toward the immediate annexation of the Hawa-ian Islands to the United States."

Salem, Or., Jan. 31.—A resolution in favor of annexation of the Hawaiian islands to the United States was adopted in both houses this afternoon.

London, Jan. 31.—It is learned on the best of authority that the British government has not instructed its British minister to the United States Pauncefote to protest against American interference in Hawaii, as Great Britain does not expect that the United States will take any step which Great Britain would be likely to object.

Washington, Jan. 31.—The senate today took up Chandler's resolution requesting the president to transmit to the senate any convention he may make with the provisional government of Hawaii, and Chandler proceeded to discuss it. Dolph made a long statement on the subject, giving the details as to population, commerce, etc. of the islands and favoring annexation.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT OPENED.

Gladston Takes His Oath of Office as Prime Minister.

London, Jan. 31.—The queen opened parliament today and Gladstone took the oath of office as prime minister.

Touching upon the question of home rule, for Ireland, Lord Salisbury said one object of the government during the past six months had been to get the support of that class of men who hitherto no politician in England had tried to conciliate.
The key note of the Irish policy of the government was supposed to rest on the support of the criminal classes. The prorogative of the crown had been used to shield murderers and released dynamite All acts of the government have caused the impression that they were much more in sympathy with criminals than desirous of vindicating the law. There was no country in the world, Lord Salisbury added, where property was now so insecure as in Great Britain in consequence of erroneous legislative action.

In the house of commons this evening, notice that Gladstone would introduce his home rule bill on Monday, elicited prolonged Liberal cheering. Balfour arose and amid a storm of opposition cheers, began in a sneering tone a general criticism of the government in its Egyptian policy. Balfour said among the causes of it undoubtedly were the rash utterances made by its prime minister and the chief secretary for Ireland when they were in the opposition. Balfour denounced the evicted tenants commission. He demanded that the home secretary should say whether he would not release Ryan and Callan, the Irish dynamite men, as a part of the policy that it was intended should involve the release of all Irish dynamite Gladstone was cheered loudly when he arose to answer Balfour. He reproached Balfour for assailing with inflammatory criticism a bill not yet introduced and for doing his utmost to prejudice the minds of his followers against the plan of home rule, of which he was still ignorant.

ANTI-OPTION BILL PASSED

Interstate Commerce Committee Brings in a Favorable Report on the Lake Washington Appropriation.

Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 31.—The house committee on inter-state and foreign commerce today ordered a favorable report on the senate bill appropriating $5,000 for construction of a ship canal to connect Lakes Union and Washington with Puget Sound. The bill is reported with an amendment striking out the proposed route by Smith's Cove, leaving the route to be decided upon by the secretary of war.

AN EARTHQUAKE IN THE EAST.

Athens, Jan. 31.—The island of Zante was shaken this morning by an earthquake and a panic ensued. In the town of Zante many houses were wrecked. The dome of the prison fell in and many prisoners were killed. Hundreds of people were injured and families fled from the town.

PERFISHOREAN PERFORMANCES.

Strange Ceremonies at Home and Abroad.

Of the dances of all times it may be said that they have always been associated with exuberant spirits, and this natural outburst of bodily activity, thinks the Boston Globe, may be attributed to either the excitement of the fight, of the chase, or of a religious ceremony, or to excessive delight. The Indians have long been famous for their war dances, one of the most exciting of which is that practiced by the Sioux, and representing by pantomimic actions the attack upon and massacre of the inhabitants of the neighboring village. The Cheyennes, too, execute a somewhat similar dance, the difference being that the attitudes through which they pass are supposed to describe a horse stealing raid. The Turk is never so happy as when he is prancing about and flourishing his sword or gun.
And it looks no good for the Turkish authorities when a number of the people of Albania, Montenegro or Herzegovina break out into a war dance. When this occurs steps are always immediately taken to suppress their buoyant spirits for fear the agitation would spread throughout the country. There are a number of dances of the red Indians which, though regarded as perfectly acceptable by the performers themselves, and the rest of their tribe, appear absolutely ridiculous to the civilized onlookers. The buffalo dance, for instance, is supposed to represent a grand hunt. One of the braves fixes the skull and horns of a buffalo on his head and skips about as the others try to catch him, dancing the while.

Then there is the snake dance of the Moquis, the scalp dance of the Sioux, Apache and Cheyenne, the rain dance of the Blackfeet, and the ghost dance, which was the main cause of the Indian rising in the Northwest a year or two ago.
