A NEW PILOT BOAT NEEDED.

The Astoria and Portland Chambers of Commerce should not allow the coming session of the legislature to adjourn without making provision for a safer and more efficient pilot boat to patrol the mouth of the Columbia river.

In a gale of such duration and severity as recently blew the big English ship Red Hook away four distinct times from the river's entrance—once so far back on her course as San Francisco, the brave little San Jose is absolutely useless, and it is only by the most skillful maneuvering that the daring souls who compose her crew manage to preserve their lives.

During the late storms along the coast it is said this poor little smack seemed the special apt of the foaming and furious billows, and aside from the horrible peril of their position, the crew endured the excruciating torture of being cramped up below for whole days in succession, under tight battened hatchways, while tons of green water pounded and swirled back and forth across the frail deck.

Newspapers all over the country have published articles on the thrilling experience of the light keepers on Tillamook rock, and the narratives of hard ships and dangers encountered in the late hurricane told by the masters of great iron ships, will reappear in future tales and histories of the sea, but not a word has been said about, nor has a thought been seemingly given to the brave men who were caught by the same storm at their post of public duty, and sealed up in the stifling hold of the San Jose, like flies in a bottle, waiting in the angry sea up and down hundreds of miles of dangerous coast for days and nights together.

What a tribute it is to the valor and daring of Oregon's hardy sons that men can be found who are willing to serve the state by remaining out at sea for weeks in succession, during the tempests of the winter season, on a craft of the San Jose's puny build and dimensions, and it is a wonder that she has not long ago totally disappeared, or been reported as picked up and towed into some distant port with a crew of raving maniacs aboard.

In the opinion of competent judges, the peculiar service off the Columbia entrance requires a vessel of not less than 80 tons measurement, and of ten to twelve feet draft; and it is due to the blunder or negligence of some one in authority that such a vessel was not supplied in this instance. The new boat should be equipped with every modern convenience for the comfort of the crew, and she should be provided with steam power to be used as an auxiliary to her sails in time of storm or other emergency. It is believed that an appropriation can be obtained from the legislature for such purpose without difficulty, and the matter should receive attention in proper time to have the vessel in commission before the next shipping season begins.

The movement for amending the city charter should come from the people, and the proper way to get it started is to call a citizens' meeting for the purpose of discussing any defects and the general effect of any changes it may be expedient to make in that instrument.

The proposed amendments to the city charter under which the council may make the tentative assessment for the street improvements is a return to the recommended the elimination of the vicious and non-progressive policy of bonding the whole city to pay the deferred installments of a tax due from a few citizens for particular improvements, and it is such a simple process to adopt some one or another of these methods that it will be a pity if it is not done.

Judge Osburn's amendment against the final reading and passage of any ordinance at the same meeting at which it is introduced, is one of the best so far proposed to the charter.

The amendment or revision of the charter should be made by a non-partisan committee, selected in an open public meeting of citizens called for that purpose.

As a matter of fact it is no more the duty of the city council to amend or revise the city charter than it is that of the county court of Clatsop county.

Councilman Thompson has been a useful member of the committee on the Young's Bay bridge scheme.

HOPES CRUSHED TO EARTH

Will rise again in the bosom of a dyspeptic wife enough to substitute for the pseudo-tonics, which has bamboozled him out of his better in the possibility of cure, the real invigorant and stomachic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

The rheumatic aches derive speedy benefit from this healthful botanic medicine. Persons suffering from indigestion will find no positive permanent good from the fiery, untempered stimulants of commerce, too often used recklessly.

The Bitters is immeasurably to be preferred to those as a tonic, since its pure basis is modified by the conjunction with it of vegetable ingredients of the highest remedial excellence.

Malaria is prevented and remedied by it, and it infuses vigor into the weak and sickly. A vinegary three times a day is the average dose.

Is the truthful, startling title of a book about No-To-Bac, the harmless, guaranteed tobacco habit cure that braces up paralyzed nerves, eliminates the nicotine poison, makes weak men gain strength, vigor and manhood. You run no physical, or financial risk, as No-To-Bac is sold by Chas. Rogers, druggist, under a guarantee to cure or money refunded. Book free. Address Sterling Remedy Co., New York or Chicago.

THE DISCOVERY SAVED HIS LIFE.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles around, but of no avail, and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle, and began to use it, and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a trial bottle free at Chas. Rogers' Drug Store, Odd Fellows' Building.

"AM I MARRIED OR NOT?"

asked Mr. A. despondently. "I declare, my wife is so nervous and irritable that I don't stay in the house a moment longer than I can help. My home isn't what it used to be." "Mrs. A. is suffering from some functional derangement, I presume," said B. "Yes, she has been an invalid for years." "Exactly. Her experience is that of my wife, but she was cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Get this remedy for Mrs. A. and the happiness of your home will soon be restored." Mr. B. was right. For protracted, painful periods, irregularities—in short, all "complaints" peculiar to the female sex—the "Favorite Prescription" is a sovereign specific.
