The first steel sailing vessel ever built on the grant lakes, says an exchange, was launched some weeks ago at the yards of the Chicago Shipbuilding company, on the Calumet river at Chicago. The new boat is owned by the Minnesota Steamship company, and is named Matta. The Malta is 382 feet keel, 239 feet over 40 feet beam, and 24 feet deep. On a draught of 14½ feet it will carry 3,000 tons, and when the 29-foot channel is completed its carrying capacity will exceed 4,000 tons.

Still another evidence that Christ is our Good Shepherd is because he will bring his people into his fold. He says: "Father, I will that where I am those may be also," "My sheep shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my kind."

Stronger form of speech can hardly be found in the whole range of the Bible. No one; man, angel, devil or spirit, shall be able to tear from Christ his believeing ones. Is your trust in this atrong and omnipotent Christ? Then fear not; think less of your own weakness, and more of Christ's strength; less of your own lack of faith and more of Christ's eternal faithfulness.
